Community That Is Christian:

Living in Christian Community Art Gish, 1998-09-29 This book is a description of what the church ought to be Gish purposes to deal with the concrete issues of what it really means to be a Christian community the body of Christ Created for Community Stanley J. Grenz, 1998-08 Makes theology accessible to a wider audience introducing readers to the core doctrines of the Christian faith and encouraging them to connect belief with everyday life Christian Community The Navigators, Jack Kuhatschek, 2022-09 Over 3 million LifeChange studies sold LifeChange Bible studies train you in good Bible study practices even as you enjoy a robust and engaging Bible study experience Learn the skill as you study the Word Your study of the Scriptures will never be the same At its heart the Christian life is about relationships loving God our neighbors and our brothers and sisters in Christ In this LifeChange topical Bible study you ll learn what life is supposed to be like in God s family a life that is patterned after the eternal relationship between the Father Son and Holy Spirit Social isolation has such a devastating impact because God created us for community A pandemic and the rise of social media has amplified this isolation This LifeChange study guides you towards genuine Biblical community The LifeChange Topical studies are optimized for small group use Every study is broken down into 8 9 sessions of about 45 minutes Each session includes Questions interpretation and application of a passage to the topic Personally focused Your Response question For Further Study section that gives readers another passage to explore around the topic Callouts that include language study historical context and illuminating quotes from commentaries Jesus and Community Gerhard Lohfink, 1984-01-01 The author calls the present day church to once again be the contrast society which attracts non believers by living what it preaches and by being different without being narrowly sectarian Handbook of the Oneida Community (Christian Perfectionist); with a sketch of its founder (J. H. Noyes), and an outline of its constitution and doctrines. no. 1, 2 ,1867 Living Faith in God 6 / Celebrating Jesus Presence in the Christian Community' 2007 Ed. , Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ,1988 Building Community Loughlan Sofield, Rosine Hammett, Carroll Juliano, 1998 Insights from psychology group theory and theology are knit together to create a primer for Christian communities Especially helpful are insights into conflict forgiveness decision making intimacy and confrontation Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 ,2004 Publication ,1991 An Introduction to Christian Ethics Roger H Crooks, 2015-10-02 This book is a college level introductory textbook in Christian ethics It introduces the field of ethics and a variety of approaches to its study The book is written for college students and is designed to help them develop a method of dealing with the thorny moral issues The Anointed Community Gary M. Burge, 1987 Recent research on the Johannine literature has concluded that behind these writings stands a flourishing community of Christians who lived under the tutelage of the Beloved Disciple preserved his writings and venerated his memory In this book Gary M Burge examines one feature of this community's belief and experience the role of the Spirit in its view both of Christ and of the Christian experience Small Christian Communities Today Joseph G. Healey, Jeanne Hinton, 2005 How can churches in America modeling the oldest Christian communities renew themselves from within They can look to examples of thriving small Christian communities within their own country and throughout the world This inspiring book shows what is happening now across six continents to give pastors and lay leaders of every denomination encouragement through useable examples from their counterparts around the world Christian Philosophy J. Aaron Simmons, 2019 One of the marks of being a philosopher is participating in debates about what counts as philosophy Of particular note in such debates is the question of how to distinguish philosophy from theology Although a variety of answers to this question have been offered in the history of philosophy in recent decades the prominence of Christian philosophy has been heralded by many as a genuine triumph over the problematic narrowness of strong foundationalism positivism and scientism For others however it signals that philosophy continues to risk being replaced by confessional theology Wherever one comes down on such issues and however one interprets recent trends in philosophy of religion the idea of Christian philosophy continues to present pressing questions for those working in meta philosophy epistemology metaphysics hermeneutics and value theory In this volume established scholars representing a variety of cultural traditions religious perspectives and philosophical priorities all wrestle with how the idea of Christian philosophy should be understood appropriated and engaged in light of where philosophy is and where it is likely to go The volume includes classical essays that have deeply marked the field and also new essays that explore the relevance of Christian philosophy to issues in disability studies engaged pedagogy lived phenomenology the academic study of religion and the workings of social power Rather than offer a unified view that seeks to settle things the contributors demonstrate that Christian philosophy remains a topic of lively debate Wherever one comes down on the issues considered here this volume shows that Christian philosophy is neither merely of historical interest nor of interest only to Christians but instead remains a thoroughly philosophical topic worthy of serious consideration and substantive critique With a Foreword by Nicholas Wolterstorff Noah Porter Professor Emeritus of Philosophical Theology at Yale University Senior Research Fellow in the Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture at the University of Virginia and Honorary Professor of Australian Catholic University Currents in Twenty-First-Century Christian Apologetics John J. Johnson, 2008-09-01 In this book Johnson avoids the standard approach of many apologetic works that seek to prove in systematic fashion that Christianity is true Rather he takes the position of orthodox Christianity and looks at various challenges that have been raised against it For example should the horrors of the Holocaust force Christian thinkers to alter their view of God's goodness Is Christianity inherently anti Jewish for claiming that Jews must embrace Jesus as Messiah Are revived hallucination theories about Christ's resurrection tenable explanations of the birth of the Christian movement Is the presuppositional approach of certain Reformed thinkers useful for doing Christian apologetics These and similar questions are addressed in this book The Christian Advocate, 1927 Church, Community and Power Roy Kearsley, 2008 In the era of post Christendom how can church as a sociological reality be switched on to the destructive dangers yet constructive possibilities of power flowing in and around its community Attuned to the current distrust of church power this book creatively works out responses that could turn painful censure into a re visioning of church power relations helped by neglected critical studies The approach exposes a complexity to power and filters that insight into a theology of church Much attention is paid in the book to the relevance to a religious community of post modern philosopher Michel Foucault and of recent feminism The topic of power has universal importance in the study of religion though the response to analysis and critique in this book is drawn specifically from Christian sources Kearsley concludes with an exploration for a future renovated self critical authentic and growing community sensitive to power while remaining in line with classic Christianity The Country Church and Community Cooperation Henry Israel, 1913 Christian Ethics Newman Smyth, 1907 Record of Christian Work Alexander McConnell, William Revell Moody, Arthur Percy Fitt, 1918 Includes music
