A Functional Theory of Government, Law, and Institutions Kalu N. Kalu, 2019-07-12 This book examines the notion that while states may differ in terms of ideology economic system and institutional architecture their role as an organizing framework for system wide political action and international relations is contingent on a series of competing and oftentimes mutually exclusive factors This work clarifies factors that contribute to our understanding of the critical roles of systemic and sub systemic elements of society and how they reinforce the reciprocal problems of human and social organizations and the institutionalization processes that help to constrain them

The Oxford Handbook of

Nigerian Politics A. Carl LeVan, Patrick Ukata, 2018-10-18 The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics offers a comprehensive analysis of Nigeria's very rich history and ever changing politics to its readers. It provides a deep understanding of Nigeria's socio-political evolution and experience by covering a broad range of political issues and historical eras. The volume encompasses 44 chapters organized thematically into essays covering history, political institutions, civil society, economic and social policy, identity and insecurity, and Nigeria in a globalized world. By identifying many of the classic debates in Nigerian politics, the chapters serve as an authoritative introduction to Africa's most populous country. The chapters are interdisciplinary, introducing readers to classic debates and key research on Nigeria as well as new methodologies, new data, and a compelling corpus of research questions for the next generation of researchers and readers interested in Africa.

The Crisis of Democracy? Chances, Risks and Challenges in Japan (Asia) and Germany (Europe) Ralf Kleinfeld, Carmen Schmidt, 2019-10-29 Is democracy in crisis? Against the background of a visible loss of trust in political, economic, religious, and other institutions in Japan and Germany, this question is being posed with increasing urgency. This volume brings together contributions from political sciences, sociology, economics, psychology, history, law, and educational science to shed light on the future of our democracies, economies, educational systems, party politics, national policies, and social structural changes, as well as socialization in the family and school, and related value changes. By focusing on Japan and Germany and including examples from Western Europe and East Asia, this publication will determine transnational tendencies and provide an understanding of the different consequences of development from country to country against the background of different historical, cultural traditions and institutional realities. Comparative Politics, 2018

Revitalizing Classrooms Jeffery W. Galle, Rebecca L. Harrison, 2017-10-24 Revitalizing Classrooms brings together six diverse essays with the central purpose of providing a venue for scholar teachers from a number of disciplines to convey their individual journeys in pedagogical innovation. These classroom narratives involve a paradigm shift away from traditional lecture modes to vital, active, engaged teaching and learning. From high school classrooms to undergraduate and graduate classes, these models provide adaptable ways to reinvigorate and energize classroom spaces that center student-driven learning. The Political Ecology of Pakistan Ghulam Mujtaba, 2018-10-22 Pakistan is about to play a pivotal role in global politics. Serving as a gateway to the Middle East and a conduit to Central and South Asia, it will be a crucial partner as the United States contends with China's rise as an emerging global superpower and seeks to maintain its hegemony in the region. The problem is for many people in the West, Pakistan is somewhat of a black box with few Westerners understanding the country's complex history and current political reality. The Political Ecology of Pakistan aims to change this by outlining the geopolitical history of Pakistan since the country gained independence in 1947, focusing in particular on the military's ongoing role in state affairs and the struggle for democracy to take root in the region. In addition, this book outlines Pakistan's improved economy, internal security, religious harmony, equality of opportunity, corruption-free society, and growing transparency and accountability all of which will make the country a vital partner in securing and maintaining peace in the region This information will be of interest to policymakers as well as those who are seeking to understand Pakistan s geopolitical significance Bosnia as Civic State and Global Citizen Philip C. Aka,2021-11-22 For long the narrative in constitutional law public policy and statecraft is that Bosnia must join the EU as a matter of economic development and nation building This book introduces another dimension to the narrative oversights without which the story remains one dimensional rather than balanced That missing element in the literature this study integrates is a reformed Bosnian state along the lines proposed in this book that operates outside the EU The setting of the work within the fields of knowledge of comparative constitutional law and public choice theory provides added value to the reader including students scholars policy makers and lay persons African Intellectuals and the State of the Continent Olayiwola Abegunrin,Sabella

Abidde,2018-07-26 This festschrift is composed in honor of a distinguished scholar and Pan Africanist Professor Sulayman S Nyang whose career and intellectual pursuits spans more than 45 years much of it at Howard University Nyang s contributions to African affairs transcend the scope of the academic world as he served as First Secretary and Head of Chancery of the Gambian Embassy in Saudi Arabia from 1975 to 1977 and consultant to the World Bank and United Nations agencies In addition Professor Nyang served as the President of the Interfaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington DC and a member of the boards of many academic journals and organizations of Islamic Studies in the USA He has published copiously on a variety of issues affecting continental Africans Africans in the Diaspora and beyond He has published and collaborated on dozens of books and book chapters and more than 100 articles in referred journals Populist

Authoritarianism Wenfang Tang,2016 Populist Authoritarianism attempts to explain why protests and regime support coexist in China It proposes a theoretical framework of Populist Authoritarianism as the explanation of regime sustainability The book draws empirical evidence from multiple public opinion surveys conducted from 1987 to 2014 Gender in the

Political Science Classroom Ekaterina M. Levintova,Alison Kathryn Staudinger,2018-07-12 A collection of studies examining the role of gender in teaching and learning in the traditionally male dominated field of political science Gender in the Political Science Classroom looks at the roles gender plays in teaching and learning in the traditionally male dominated field of political science The contributors to this collection bring a new perspective to investigations of gender issues in the political behavior literature and feminist pedagogy by uniting them with the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning SoTL The volume offers a balance between the theoretical and the practical and includes discussions of issues such as curriculum class participation service learning doctoral dissertations and professional placements The contributors reveal the discipline of political science as a source of continuing gender based inequities but also as a potential site for transformative pedagogy and partnerships that are mindful of gender While the contributors focus on the discipline of political science their findings about gender in higher education are relevant to SoTL practitioners other social science disciplines and the academy at large

A bold and compelling collection that asks important questions about the ways in which the teaching of Political Science reproduces gender inequities Aeron Haynie      The Political Economy of Universal Healthcare in Africa Philip C. Aka,Hassan Wahab,Yvette M. Alex-Assensoh,2022-04-27 The global rise in pandemics most recently COVID 19 and other health challenges some of which are due to climate change have imposed significant challenges on the healthcare systems in economies around the world Thus this book deals with an issue that is very timely and relevant not just in Africa but globally It critically assesses healthcare reforms in Ghana under the Fourth Republic since 1993 Although it focuses on Ghana s National Health Insurance Scheme of 2003 the book instructively goes beyond this program The book argues that although Ghana is a bellwether of healthcare reforms in Africa its healthcare initiatives are still far from the service haven of healthcare as a human right Themes that animate the book s argument include the need to translate human rights law such as the right to health into practical policies that work for ordinary citizens Key highlights of the book include an increased accent on health as a human right emphasis on comparative analysis in healthcare studies and the formulation of a four hallmark framework embedded in economics law politics and human rights to act as a guide for assessment of healthcare reforms in Africa in particular and Ghana more specifically Using Ghana as a case study and analytical window into the world the book offers a valuable and timely resource for academics students and policymakers across the disciplines of development and healthcare economics law public policy political science sociology and African and Caribbean studies as well as in various fields in health science      Diversity in Decline? Arjun Tremblay,2018-12-28 In this book Arjun Tremblay considers the future of multiculturalism contextualised within an ideological and political shift to the right Is there any hope that multiculturalism will survive alongside the rise of the political right across democracies How can policy makers continue to recognize and to accommodate minorities in an increasingly inhospitable ideological environment Based on evidence from three case studies Tremblay develops a hypothesis of multicultural outcomes arguing that while the threat to multiculturalism is real there still is hope and that not only is the fate of minority rights in liberal democracies far from sealed but it may still be possible to further protect the rights of immigrant and other minority groups in years to come In order to do this proponents of diversity politics may need to reconceptualise multiculturalism and other minority rights along instrumental lines as a means to fulfil policy objectives above and beyond the recognition and accommodation of immigrant minorities This will be an important read for scholars interested in minority rights multiculturalism diversity politics comparative politics institutionalism right wing and far right studies and public policy      Comparative Politics James Tyler Dickovick,Jonathan Eastwood,2019      Human Rights in Nigeria's External Relations Philip Aka,2016-12-20 This book is a broad ranging argument for thorough reforms at home and abroad in Nigeria as the only antidote to the nation building dilemmas Nigeria confronts in the first quarter of the twenty first century Because of its enormous material and human endowments Nigeria is dubbed the Giant of Africa It is a moniker many of its leaders take seriously Yet Nigeria is a state rife with instability some of it periodically erupting into violence Given still ongoing national security challenges in the land that notoriously includes a bloody religion oriented terrorism the Fourth Republic since 1999 the longest period of continuous democratic rule since independence key to the timeline of this book has not been insulated from the spell of instability The main argument of this work is that internationally agreed upon ethical standards embedded in human rights can save Nigeria This book is a methodologically and theoretically grounded seminal discourse on Nigerian foreign relations that spells out the human rights or lack thereof in those relations including underlying and impinging domestic forces This work is set around six issues of application embedded in a temple of Nigeria s human rights foreign policy comprising two steps and four pillars reconstructed national interest increased human rights at home redesigned peacekeeping reshaped foreign policy machinery increased bilateralism in foreign relations and the use of ECOWAS as human rights tool Although focused on the period since independence for proper understanding of events from the past that shape the current patterns of politics in the land this book also embodies a historical background chapter that overviews the pre colonial and colonial eras Passion, Craft, and Method in Comparative Politics Gerardo L. Munck, Richard Snyder, 2007-07-02 In the first collection of interviews with the most prominent scholars in comparative politics since World War II Gerardo L. Munck and Richard Snyder trace key developments in the field during the twentieth century Organized around a broad set of themes intellectual formation and training major works and ideas the craft and tools of research colleagues collaborators and students and the past and future of comparative politics these in depth interviews offer unique and candid reflections that bring the research process to life and shed light on the human dimension of scholarship Giving voice to scholars who practice their craft in different ways yet share a passion for knowledge about global politics Passion Craft and Method in Comparative Politics offers a wealth of insights into contemporary debates about the state of knowledge in comparative politics and the future of the field
