Economics of Education George Psacharopoulos, 2014-05-17. Economics of Education Research and Studies reviews key topics in the field of economics of education since the 1960s. This book is organized into 12 parts. Part I and Part II focus on the supply side of human capital and narrower aspects of human capital creation by means of education. Subsequent parts look at the benefits of education, relationship between education and employment, controversies in the field of economics of education, issues of manpower planning, and methodology for empirically analyzing the issues in the economics of education. The last two parts address the costs of education with emphasis on cost function analysis and on the financing of education.

Geriatrics Models of Care Michael L. Malone, Elizabeth A. Capezuti, Robert M. Palmer, 2015-05-22. This book describes geriatrics practice models that are used to guide the care of older adults, allowing seniors to remain at home, prevent functional disability, and preserve quality of life. The models include specific interventions which are performed by health care workers to address the needs of older persons and their caregivers. These models respect patient values, consider patient safety, and appreciate psychosocial needs as well. Divided into six parts that discuss hospital-based models of care, transitions from hospital to home, outpatient-based models of care, and emergency department models of care, this text addresses the needs of vulnerable patients and the community. Geriatric Models of Care is an excellent resource for health care leaders who must translate these programs to address the needs of the patients in their communities.
