Otherness in Communication Research Luisa

Magalhaes, 2025-01-02 This book offers various perspectives from media studies, interpersonal communication, and intercultural communication on the experience and effects of being othered, excluded, and treated as less than. Its three sections cover: 1) expressions of otherness in everyday life; 2) experiences of otherness in media discourses; and 3) strategies against otherness in social interaction. This book challenges the expression of otherness that is frequently related to texts of colonialism and of western social hegemony, characteristic of the Global North, therefore giving voice to perspectives from the Global South in a pluralistic reading The collection of contexts in which the expression of otherness is highlighted in this book are presented in the perspective of the powerless other As a receiver involved in a communicative process the othered individual is approached in relation to his identitarian demonstrations both in daily life face to face and virtual contexts and in critical situations These range from households to school and to media environments therefore enhancing a thorough perspective on the phenomenon of othering in plural contexts
