John Flint, Professor David Robinson, 2008 This book examines how new dimensions of diversity and difference so often debated in the national context are emerging at the neighbourhood level Promoting social cohesion Newman, Ines, Ratcliffe, Peter, 2011-05-11 This book makes a forthright case for a shift in policy focus from community cohesion to the broader notion of social cohesion and is distinctive and innovative in its focus on evaluation It constitutes an extremely valuable source both for practitioners involved in social cohesion interventions and for researchers and students studying theory based evaluation and the policy areas highlighted housing intergenerational issues the recession education communications community development Negotiating Cohesion, Inequality and Change Hannah Jones, 2015-01-14 This unique study explores how local bureaucrats and politicians negotiate diversity discrimination migration and class in the midst of many other issues that affect community cohesion Drawing on original empirical research Hannah Jones contends that local government workers must often occupy uncomfortable positions when managing ethical professional and political commitments Ultimately she reveals the surprising extent to which governmental power affects the lives and emotions of the people who wield it Religion and Civil Society in Europe Joep de Hart, Paul Dekker, Loek Halman, 2013-07-15 Religion is back again in Europe after never having been gone It is manifest in the revival of religious institutions and traditions in former communist countries in political controversies about the relationship between the church and the state and about the freedom of religion and the freedom to criticize religion and in public unease about religious minorities This book is about religion and civil society in Europe It moves from general theoretical and normative approaches of this relationship via the examination of national patterns of religion state relations to in depth analyses of the impact of religion and secularization on the values pro social attitudes and civic engagement of individuals It covers Europe from the Lutheran North to the Catholic South and from the secularized West to the Orthodox East and Islamic South East with comparative analyses and country studies concluding with an overall Europe USA comparison Integrating Immigrants in Europe Peter Scholten, Han Entzinger, Rinus Penninx, Stijn Verbeek, 2015-06-02 This open access book explores how research and policymaking in the field of migrant integration have developed historically and how this interrelationship plays out in the strongly politicised climate of opinions on migration in Europe It features interdisciplinary theoretical contributions as well as original empirical studies on research policy dialogues at both the EU and country level The chapters study not only how the dialogue between research and policy is structured such as advisory bodies research agencies and ad hoc committees but also how these dialogues affect policymaking and the development of migrant integration research itself as well The analysis reveals profound changes in the dialogue structures associated with the research policy nexus in the domain of migrant integration On the one hand dialogue structures have become more ad hoc often established in response to distinct political events or to specific problems On the other politicisation has not thwarted all efforts to develop more institutionalised dialogue structures between producers and users of knowledge In addition research has contributed to policymaking in very different ways in various European countries This edited volume is unique in this effort to reflect on the impact of research policy dialogues both on the development of migrant integration policies as well as on migrant integration research It will be of importance to scholars in this field as well as to policymakers and other stakeholders involved in migrant integration policymaking
