Compelling Interest Examining The Evidence On Racial Dynamics In Colleges And Universities:

Compelling Interest Mitchell J. Chang, Daria Witt, James Jones, Kenji Hakuta, 2003-03-12 In recent years American colleges and universities have become the locus of impassioned debates about race conscious social policies as conflicting theories clash over the ways to distribute the advantages of higher education in a fair and just manner Just below the surface of these policy debates lies a complex tangle of ideologies histories grievances and emotions that interfere with a rational analysis of the issues involved As never before the need for empirical research on the significance of race in American society seems essential to solving the manifest problems of this highly politicized and emotionally charged aspect of American higher education The research evidence presented in this book has a direct relevance to those court cases that challenge race conscious admission policies of colleges and universities Though many questions still need to be addressed by future research the empirical data collected to date makes it clear that affirmative action policies do work and are still very much needed in American higher education This book also provides a framework for examining the evidence pertaining to issues of fairness merit and the benefits of diversity in an effort to assist courts and the public in organizing beliefs about race and opportunity

The Oxford Handbook of W. E. B. Du Bois Aldon D. Morris, Michael Schwartz, Cheryl Johnson-Odim, Walter R Allen, Marcus Anthony Hunter, Karida L Brown, Dan S Green, 2024 The wide ranging work of W E B Du Bois critical to understanding the role that race has played in creating the modern world we find around us mostly has been ignored or hidden from sociological researchers until after the civil rights movement in the U S As a result one of the key goals of The Oxford Handbook of W E B Du Bois is to reclaim Du Bois from those efforts to marginalize his thought The chapters of this volume explore in a comprehensive manner all aspects of Du Boisian sociology It is organized into ten thematic sections Social Theory Change and Agency Sociology Social Science Humanities Public Intellectual Women and Gender Studies Methodologies and Archival Resources Black Interiority and Whiteness Color Line Empire Marxism and War Talented Tenth and Black Colleges and Universities Black Community Religion Crime and Wealth Internationalism Pan Africanism and Anti Colonialism

Race, Equity, and the Learning Environment Frank Tuitt, Chayla Haynes, Saran Stewart, 2023-07-03 At a time of impending demographic shifts faculty and administrators in higher education around the world are becoming aware of the need to address the systemic practices and barriers that contribute to inequitable educational outcomes of racially and ethnically diverse students Focusing on the higher education learning environment this volume illuminates the global relevance of critical and inclusive pedagogies CIP and demonstrates how their application can transform the teaching and learning process and promote more equitable educational outcomes among all students but especially racially minoritized students The examples in this book illustrate the importance of recognizing the detrimental impact of dominant ideologies of evaluating who is being included in and excluded from the learning process and paying attention to when teaching fails to consider students varying social psychological physical and or emotional needs This edited volume brings CIP into the realm of comparative education by gathering scholars from across academic disciplines and countries to explore how these pedagogies not only promote deep learning among students but also better equip instructors to attend to the needs of diverse students by prioritizing their intellectual and social development creating identity affirming learning environments that foster high expectations recognizing the value of the cultural and national differences that learners bring to the educational experience and engaging the whole student in the teaching and learning process As the World Turns Walter R.

Allen, Marguerite Bonous-Hammarth, Robert T. Teranishi, 2012-03-15 Examines two of the major problems confronting higher education in this modern world This volume compares discriminated underrepresented and excluded groups in universities around the globe identifying personal group institutional and societal factors related to persistent inequality

Diversity's Promise for Higher Education Daryl G. Smith,2015-06 Daryl G Smith s career has been devoted to studying and fostering diversity in higher education She has witnessed and encouraged the evolution of diversity from an issue addressed sporadically on college campuses to an imperative if institutions want to succeed In this second edition of Diversity s Promise for Higher Education Smith emphasizes a transdisciplinary approach to the topic of diversity drawing on an updated list of sources from a wealth of literatures and fields She claims with optimism when the conclusions from a wide variety of studies using different methodologies begin to converge we may apply the results with some confidence Smith responds to recent criticism of diversity efforts on campuses as a convoluted list of grievances without focus on the historic issue of inequity by making explicit the central relationship between diversity and equity To become more relevant to society the nation and the world while remaining true to their core mission higher education institutions must begin to see diversity as central to teaching and research She argues that institutions can pursue diversity efforts that are inclusive of the varied and growing issues apparent on campuses without losing focus This thoughtful volume draws on 50 years of diversity studies It offers students researchers and administrators an innovative approach to developing and instituting effective and sustainable diversity strategies

Designing Intersectional Online Education Xeturah Woodley,Mary Rice,2022-02-14 Designing Intersectional Online Education provides expansive yet accessible examples and discussion about the intentional creation of online teaching and learning experiences that critically center identity social systems and other important ideas in design and pedagogy Instructors are increasingly tasked with designing their own online courses curricula and activities but lack information to support their attention to the ever shifting overlapping contexts and constructs that inform students positions within knowledge and schooling This book infuses today s technology enhanced education environments with practices derived from critical race theory culturally responsive pedagogy disability studies feminist womanist studies queer theory and other essential foundations for humanized and socially just education Faculty scholars technologists and other experts across higher education K 12 and teacher training offer fresh robust insights into how actively engaging with intersectionality can inspire designs for online teaching and learning that are inclusive intergenerational anti oppressive and emancipatory

Social Justice Education Kathleen Skubikowski, Catharine Wright, Roman Graf, 2023-07-14 This book addresses the combination of pedagogical curricular and institutional commitments necessary to create and sustain diversity on campus Its premise is that the socially just classroom flourishes in the context of a socially just institution and it invites faculty and administrators to create such classrooms and institutions This book grew out of a project involving deans and directors of teaching centers and diversity offices from six institutions to instigate discussions among teachers and administrators about implementing socially just practices in their classrooms departments and offices The purpose was to explore how best to foster such conversations across departments and functions within an institution as well as between institutions This book presents the theoretical framework used and many of the successful projects to which it gave rise Recognizing that many faculty have little preparation for teaching students whose backgrounds culture and educational socialization differ from theirs the opening foundational section asks teachers to attend closely to their and their students relative power and positionality in the classroom and to the impact of the materials resources and pedagogical approaches employed Further chapters offer analytical tools to promote inquiry and change The concluding sections of the book demonstrate how intra and inter institutional collaborations inspired teachers to rise to the challenge of their campuses commitments to diversity Among the examples presented is an initiative involving the faculty development coordinator and faculty from a wide range of domains at DePauw University who built upon an existing ethics initiative to embed social justice across the curriculum In another professors of mathematics from three institutions describe how they collaborated to create socially just classrooms that both serve mathematical learning and support service learning or community based learning activities The final essay by a student from the Maldives describing how she navigated the chasm between life in an American college and her family circumstances will reinforce the reader s commitment to establishing social justice in the academy This book provides individual faculty faculty developers and diversity officers with the concepts reflective tools and collaborative models as well as a wealth of examples to confidently embark on the path to transforming educational practice

Whiteness, Power, and Resisting Change in US Higher Education Kenneth R. Roth, Zachary S. Ritter, 2020-12-22 This edited volume connects the origins of US higher education during the Colonial Era with current systemic characteristics that maintain white supremacist structures and devalue students and faculty of color as well as areas of study that interrogate Whiteness The authors examine power structures within the academy that scaffold Whiteness and promote inequality at all levels by maintaining a two tier faculty system and a dearth of Faculty and Administrators of Color Finally contributors offer systemic and collective solutions toward a more equitable redistribution of power primarily among faculty and administration through which other inequities may be identified and more easily addressed

Indicators for Monitoring Undergraduate STEM Education National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Science Education, Committee on Developing Indicators for Undergraduate STEM Education, 2018-03-08 Science technology engineering and mathematics STEM professionals generate a stream of scientific discoveries and technological innovations that fuel job creation and national economic growth Ensuring a robust supply of these professionals is critical for sustaining growth and creating jobs growth at a time of intense global competition Undergraduate STEM education prepares the STEM professionals of today and those of tomorrow while also helping all students develop knowledge and skills they can draw on in a variety of occupations and as individual citizens However many capable students intending to major in STEM later switch to another field or drop out of higher education altogether partly because of documented weaknesses in STEM teaching learning and student supports Improving undergraduate STEM education to address these weaknesses is a national imperative Many initiatives are now underway to improve the quality of undergraduate STEM teaching and learning Some focus on the national level others involve multi institution collaborations and others take place on individual campuses At present however policymakers and the public do not know whether these various initiatives are accomplishing their goals and leading to nationwide improvement in undergraduate STEM education Indicators for Monitoring Undergraduate STEM Education outlines a framework and a set of indicators that document the status and quality of undergraduate STEM education at the national level over multiple years It also indicates areas where additional research is needed in order to develop appropriate measures This publication will be valuable to government agencies that make investments in higher education institutions of higher education private funders of higher education programs and industry stakeholders It will also be of interest to researchers who study higher education in K 12 schools standardized assessment of individual achievement in K 12 schools higher education admissions testing monitoring educational progress licensure and certification testing and legal and ethical issues      Reflections on School Integration Mokubung O. Nkomo, Carolyn McKinney, Linda Chisholm, 2004 School integration means among other things that the divisions created by apartheid need to be addressed systematically and systemically Integration is not merely about changing the racial demographics of learner and educator bodies It means schools changing to meet the needs of all children fostering meaningful interaction among learners in the classroom on the playground and in extra mural activities as well as instilling a human rights culture It means constructing curricula texts and pedagogies that are informed by a democratic ethos and it requires teachers school managers and communities that are equipped to promote a democratic school environment In short it is about inclusivity and social cohesion And the issue of integration is as pertinent internationally as it is in South Africa questions of race racism citizenship and diversity are central to school systems throughout the world This book contains the proceedings of a colloquium held in October 2003 attended by leading South African and international researchers to take stock of the status quo in school integration and identify new directions research should be taking to support the process of change      Improving the First Year of College Robert S. Feldman, 2005-01-15 The first year of college represents an enormous milestone in students lives Whether attending a four year or two year institution of higher education living on campus or at home or enrolled in a highly selective school or a college with an open admissions policy students are challenged in unique and demanding ways during their first year Although many students rise to the challenges they face for some the demands are too great Retention rates beyond the first year are disappointing one third of first year students seriously consider leaving college during their first term and ultimately one half of all students who start college complete it What are the factors that impact students during their first year How can the academic and social experiences of first year students be optimized What can we do to improve retention rates to maximize the number of students who complete college Improving the First Year of College employs a variety of perspectives from leading researchers and student service providers to address these questions and examine the first year of college This volume also highlights the development of learning communities and coaching as well as how technology impacts students first year Perhaps most important the book provides examples of best practices as determined through research by leaders in the field to permit educators to draw on their experiences      Applied Social Sciences Georgeta Rață, 2014-07-24 Applied Social Sciences Education Sciences is a collection of essays specific to the field of education The volume contains both essays on general issues in education education in antiquity discipline in early childhood quality of the educational process formative assessment pedagogical approaches to literature teacher training gender stereotypes in education and education and media and essays on education in elementary school curriculum design options and science achievement in early adolescence in high school age and learning context performance evaluation argumentation in the teaching of fiction truancy and student leadership styles and in higher education communication skills student s time scholarly digital curation Facebook mediated teacher student relationship initial teacher training quality of pre service teacher training teacher s professional competence professional profile of the teacher researcher and teaching at tertiary level This volume will appeal to a wide range of readers including counsellors doctors managers psychologists researchers social workers students teacher trainers and teachers of all subjects and of all levels who wish to improve both personally and professionally It will also be of great use to all those who interact one way or another with both students and teachers
