

TEACHING THE CULTURE OF LIFE:

The Ultimate Gift

A Culture of Life Studies movie discussion guide

Note to parents

- Some of the characters lead misguided lifestyles (implied adultery, excessive drinking, smoking, etc.), but this is clearly shown as wrong.
- Mild Language: BS, screw you, this is hell
- There is brief thematic violence in Ecuador as well as an intense situation involving hostages.

BEFORE YOU WATCH

Brainstorm the following question before viewing the film: If someone were to give you "the ultimate gift," what would it be?

STORY SUMMARY

After his grandfather's death, Jason Stevens is given the chance to inherit "the ultimate gift," but only if he follows a series of instructions. If Jason fails any of the tasks given to him, he forfeits the "ultimate gift." A playboy who has always known wealth, Jason balks at the idea of following his grandfather's plan in order to inherit an undisclosed amount of money.

Despite his misgivings, Jason relents and begins the first set of tasks on a ranch in Texas where he learns the meaning of work. As the tasks progress, Jason finds himself homeless and in need of true friends who value him as a person. In order to meet one of the task requirements, Jason halfheartedly befriends two people he meets in the park, Alexia and her daughter Emily. As Jason progresses through the tasks, he finds himself experiencing a change of heart. While in Ecuador, Jason discovers the place where his father died and struggles to understand why he should forgive his grandfather. Captured and imprisoned by drug lords, Jason fears for his life and tries to escape, only to find that his conscience will no longer let him be self-serving.

Jason returns to the United States with a newfound desire to help other people fulfill their dreams. At the end of the film, Jason is reminded of the need for forgiveness and the importance of serving others. Jason receives the ultimate gift, but only when he understands that the ultimate gift is more valuable than money and riches.
