Entanglements Sinfree Makoni, Unyierie Idem, Edwin Appah Dartey, Bassey E. Antia, 2025-08-12 This book explores the ways in which language is understood in diverse contexts and how linguistic theories and the idea of language as an object fail to represent a reality that is inherently multi and trans The chapters tease out the way that an understanding of language as a social practice and the central role of the speaker s and their repertoire allows for a more nuanced interpretation of language in contexts ranging from English as an international neutral language in research and teaching to the importance of life trajectories and multilingualism in the development of theoretical perspectives The book offers a glimpse of a decolonial linguistics that recognizes the importance of entanglement between languages between the North and South and between the personal and the theoretical

Shades of Decolonial Voices in Linguistics Sinfree Makoni, Cristine Severo, Ashraf Abdelhay, Anna Kaiper-Marquez, Višnja Miložićić, 2023-09-12 This book argues that Linguistics in common with other disciplines such as Anthropology and Sociology has been shaped by colonization It outlines how linguistic practices may be decolonized and the challenges which such decolonization poses to linguists working in diverse areas of Linguistics It concludes that decolonization in Linguistics is an ongoing process with no definite end point and cannot be completely successful until universities and societies are decolonized too In keeping with the subject matter the book prioritizes discussion debate and the collaborative creative production of knowledge over individual authorship Further it mingles the voices of established authors from a variety of disciplines with audience comment and dialogue to produce a challenging and inspiring text that represents an important step along the path it attempts to map out
