Distorted Imagination Lessons From The Rushdie Affair:

Distorted Imagination Ziauddin Sardar, Merryl Wyn Davies, 1990-01-01

Reading Rushdie M. D. Fletcher, 1994

Salman Rushdie is perhaps the most important writer of the present time His significant and controversial literary interventions in debates on post colonial culture and contemporary South Asian Islam are matched by the contribution he has made to postmodern literature in the West culminating in the award to him in 1993 of the twenty fifth anniversary Booker of Bookers prize This collection of articles focuses on Rushdie s five novels The context is set by the introduction The Politics of Salman Rushdie s Fiction which discusses the political stance of Rushdie s fiction the various influences on his work and the textual strategies and techniques he employs for political expression and cultural critique The postmodern post colonial interface the carnivalesque and satire are major themes treated here and in the articles that follow which also provide diverse other perspectives on Rushdie s thought and method A number of essays have been commissioned specially for this volume An appendix listing selected writings by Rushdie and articles on the Satanic Verses Affair is followed by a comprehensive bibliography annotating critical studies of Rushdie s work

The Cambridge Companion to Salman Rushdie Abdulrazak Gurnah, 2007-08-23 Salman Rushdie is a major contemporary writer who engages with some of the vital issues of our times migrancy postcolonialism religious authoritarianism This Companion offers a comprehensive introduction to his entire oeuvre Part I provides thematic readings of Rushdie and his work with chapters on how Bollywood films are intertextual with the fiction the place of family and gender in the work the influence of English writing and reflections on the fatwa Part II discusses Rushdie s importance for postcolonial writing and provides detailed interpretations of his fiction In one volume this book provides a stimulating introduction to the author and his work in a range of expert essays and readings With its detailed chronology of Rushdie s life and a comprehensive bibliography of further reading this volume will be invaluable to undergraduates studying Rushdie and to the general reader interested in his work

Liberation and Purity Chetan Bhatt, 2023-05-05 First published in 1997 The rise of new religious movements has raised important questions about how race ethnicity and the lives of black minority communities in the West are to be understood In Liberation and purity Chetan Bhatt critically examines the ideas and organization of new Hindu and Islamic movements and relates this to contemporary debates in philosophy social theory and cultural studies He considers the creation of new traditions and new ethnicities by these movements and explores how ideas of purity pollution the body sexuality and gender are key themes in their ideas of emancipation Bhatt explores the relationship between right wing and progressive social movements in modern civil societies and examines the influence on these movements of new globally organized communications technologies

Islam in Transition Jessica Jacobson, 2006-08-21 Islam in Transition focuses on the ways in which Islamic religion still engenders powerful loyalties within what is now a predominantly secular society and how in their continual adherence to their religion many young British Pakistanis find a welcome sense of stability and permanence By presenting material collected in field work study and by using extensive quotations from interviews the author argues that in a world where concepts of identity are always being challenged traditional sources of authority and allegiance still survive Blasphemy in Modern Britain David S. Nash, 2019-10-10 Originally published in 1999 this book deals with the cultural and legal debates which have counterposed the right to free speech and the need to protect Christian sensibilities in Britain from the time of the French Revolution to the present day Central to the book is a close study of the content and public reception of the anti Christian literature of the 19th century associated with the names G W Foote and J W Gott the Freethinker and The Truthseeker David Nash here also examines a variety of critical theoretical approaches to blasphemy and blasphemous writing including postmodernism and the work of Foucault and Said The book concludes with a detailed examination of 20th century blasphemy cases up to and including the Gay News case The Last Temptation of Christ and Visions of Ecstasy

Territorial Terrors Gerhard Stilz, 2007 The Short Story Ailsa Cox, 2009-03-26 Long regarded as an undervalued and marginalised genre the short story is undergoing a renaissance The Short Story celebrates its unique appeal Practitioners and scholars address the issues facing short story criticism in the 21st century Author A L Kennedy shares the pleasures and frustrations of writing the short story in the literary marketplace This is followed by an assessment of recent attempts to promote short story readership in the UK Other contributors look at forms such as the short short and the short story sequence The range of authors discussed includes Martin Amis Anita Desai Salman Rushdie and James Joyce The short story is the most international of genres this is reflected in chapters on Jorge Luis Borges and Italo Calvino and on Japanese short fiction Postcolonial and translation theory are combined with the close reading of specific texts Neglected authors such as the Welsh writer Dorothy Edwards and the colonial figure Frank Swettenham are re evaluated and we also consider genre writing with chapters on crime fiction and Ray Bradbury s Martian Chronicles Integrating theory and practice The Short Story will appeal both to writers and to students of literary criticism Humour and Religion Hans Geybels, Walter Van Herck, 2011-03-17 Leading scholars analyze the importance and functioning of humor in different world religions

Travel Writing and the Transnational Author S. Knowles, 2014-06-19 Travel Writing and the Transnational Author explores the travel writing and transnational literature of four authors from the postcolonial canon Michael Ondaatje Vikram Seth Amitav Ghosh and Salman Rushdie Writing Muslim Identity Geoffrey Nash, 2012-01-26 The relationship between Islam and the West is one of the most urgent and hotly debated issues of our time This book is the first to offer a comprehensive overview of the way in which Muslims are represented within modern English writing ranging from the novel through memoir and travel writing to journalism Covering a wide range of texts and authors it scrutinises the identity Muslim by looking at its inscription in recent and contemporary literary writing within the context of significant events like the Rushdie Affair and 9 11 Examining the wide range of writing internationally that takes Islam or Islamic cultures as its focus the author discusses the representation of Muslim identity in writing by non Muslim writers former Muslim native informants and practising

Muslims Muslim Communities in England 1962-90 Jed Fazakarley, 2017-07-10 This book analyses Muslim integration into English society from the 1960s to the 1990s The author argues that contrary to common narratives built around a sudden transformation during the Rushdie affair religious identity was of great importance to English Muslims throughout this period The study also considers what the experiences of Muslim communities tell us about British multiculturalism With chapters which consider English Muslim experiences in education employment and social services British multiculturalism is shown to be a capacious artifice variegated across and within localities and resistant to periodization It is understood as positing separate ethnic communities and serving these communities with special provisions aimed ultimately at integration It is argued moreover to have developed its own momentum limiting the efficacy of 21st century backlashes against it Muslim Communities in England 1962 90 will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including sociology history and politics Muhammad Karen Armstrong, 2023-06-15 A life of the prophet Muhammad by bestselling author Karen Armstrong Armstrong has a dazzling ability she can take a long and complex subject and reduce it to its fundamentals without over simplifying SUNDAY TIMES One of our best living writers on religion FINANCIAL TIMES Not just a sympathetic book that would dispel the misconceptions and misgivings of its western readers but also a book that is of considerable importance to Muslims MUSLIM NEWS Most people in the West know very little about the prophet Muhammad The acclaimed religious writer Karen Armstrong has written a biography which will give us a more accurate and profound understanding of Islam and the people who adhere to it so strongly Muhammad also offers challenging comparisons with the two religions most closely related to it Judaism and Christianity Understanding Sharia Raficq S. Abdulla, Mohamed M. Keshavjee, 2018-04-30 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Sharia has been a source of misunderstanding and misconception in both the Muslim and non Muslim worlds Understanding Sharia Islamic Law in a Globalised World sets out to explore the reality of sharia contextualising its development in the early centuries of Islam and showing how it evolved in line with historical and social circumstances The authors Raficq S Abdulla and Mohamed M Keshavjee both British trained lawyers argue that sharia and the positive law flowing from it known as fiqh have never been an exclusive legal system or a fixed set of beliefs In addition to tracing the history of sharia the book offers a critique concerning its status today Sharia is examined with regard to particular issues that are of paramount importance in the contemporary world such as human rights criminal penalties including those dealing with apostasy blasphemy and adultery commercial transactions and bio medical ethics amongst other subjects The authors show that sharia is a legal system underpinned by ethical principles that are open to change in different circumstances and contexts notwithstanding the claims for transcendental permanence made by Islamists This book encourages new thinking about the history of sharia and its role in the modern world Islam in Europe Ceri Peach, Steven Vertovec, 2016-07-27 The twelve million Muslims living in western and eastern non CIS Europe are confronted with the combined localised effects of xenophobia nationalism an historical stigma attached to Islam and a contemporary fear of the global Islamic threat In resistance a variety of Muslim groups throughout Europe have developed a politics of religion and community calling for equal treatment of Muslim minorities in the public sphere This volume provides insights into these groups and activities their histories ideologies organizations and modes of representation Reading the Qur'an Ziauddin Sardar,2017 In this enlightening and highly readable book a leading British Muslim intellectual offers a refreshingly new interpretation of the Qur'an Freedom of Religion and Religious Pluralism Md. Jahid Hossain Bhuiyan,Carla M. Zoethout,2023-03-20 Religious pluralism is an important aspiration of contemporary societies meaning that religious diversity is permitted and everyone has the freedom of religion or belief or not to believe The peaceful coexistence of people of a myriad of faiths is indispensable for securing peace in the modern era of political upheaval and economic dissonance This book brings together a variety of religious and non religious perspectives on religious pluralism It explores the key philosophical and legal issues associated with religious freedom and social harmony Freedom of Religion and Religious Pluralism intends to serve as a valuable resource for scholars specialising in religion citizenship and migration studies It will also act as a reference for courses on law religion and human rights Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics Tahir Abbas,2011-03 The expression of an Islamic political radicalism in Britain has been one of the most dramatic developments in recent decades Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics explores the nature of this phenomenon by analysing the origins of Islam and its historical contact with Western Europe and Britain and the emergence of Islamic political radicalism in the Muslim world and in the West Tahir Abbas draws on historical analysis and contemporary case studies to explore the post war immigration and integration of Muslim groups the complex relations that exist between a secular liberal Britain and a diverse but multifaceted Islam and the extent of social and economic inequalities that affect Muslims as individual citizens and in local area communities He shows how violent extremism among British Muslims is in reality influenced by a range of issues including the factors of globalisation and contemporary politics media and culture Analysing and dissecting public policy Abbas offers suggestions for tackling the major social political and economic questions facing British Muslims in the post 7 7 era An important contribution to the study of religion race and ethnicity in modern Britain this accessible work will be of interest to anyone working in the field of Islamic studies sociology and political radicalism Cover design by Mahtab Hussain www.mahtabhussain.com Distorted Imagination Ziauddin Sardar,Merryl Wyn Davies,1990 Three Begums Ziauddin Sardar,2025-04-01 Three Begums revolves around the lives of three ordinary women Hamida Merryl and Saliha who lived extraordinary interwoven lives of fabulous joy fierce pain and untold trauma Like many who came before them they loved and dreamed Although born in different times and places they were united through their dedication to bettering the lives of all around them Each fell victim to disease and premature death without fulfilling their desires but like all desires these continue beyond their lifetimes Flowing seamlessly between the biographical and autobiographical Ziauddin Sardar captures the complexities of everyday living human relationships and raw emotion weaving lives and ambitions together The great story of human societies unfolds through the eyes of an individual with each chapter struggling to fulfil the aspirations of the last Sardar shows how his own life was shaped by these women and how their collective life undulated sea like to the rhythms of Urdu poetry This genre defying book takes readers on a journey that is inimitably personal yet reverberates universally Powerful and unforgettable Three Begums is a profound reminder that in a good life the only thing that matters is virtue particularly the virtue of compassion and working for something greater than oneself
