Diversity Calender 2014:

2014 Leveraging Diversity Calendar Kari Heistad, 2013-09-15 Critical Conversations Tom Gilson, 2016 Christian parents need to be prepared to answer the myriad challenges teens might hear in today's increasingly pro homosexual culture Why shouldn't gays get married Who says gay sex is wrong Does the Bible actually say there's anything wrong with homosexuality Don't you care that kids are being bullied just for being themselves To start the discussion Gilson provides a brief history of the issues beginning with the sexual revolution of the 1960s He explains how and why cultural attitudes have reversed on this subject in such a short timespan leaving Christians scrambling for answers This is perhaps the most complicated and contentious issue Christians face in today's culture Most churches are poorly equipped to handle it parents are even less prepared The good news is that parents need not have pat answers ready before they dive into conversations with their teens and preteens on this difficult topic Learning together parents struggling through these issues alongside their kids and leading them to biblical answers has relational benefits Answers are important though so manageable nontechnical answers to common questions surrounding this issue are provided as well as a guide to further resources International Monetary Fund Annual Report 2014 International Monetary Fund. Secretary's Department, 2014-10-03 Seven years after the onset of the global financial crisis the world still has a way to go to secure a sustainable recovery marked by strong growth that supports rapid job creation and benefits all International Monetary Fund IMF Managing Director Christine Lagarde says in her foreword to the institution's Annual Report 2014 From Stabilization to Sustainable Growth published today The recovery is ongoing but it is still too slow and fragile subject to the vagaries of financial sentiment Millions of people are still looking for work The level of uncertainty might be diminishing but it is certainly not disappearing Ms Lagarde said that throughout the crisis and in the recovery period the IMF has been and continues to be an indispensable agent of economic cooperation for its membership The report covers the work of the IMF's Executive Board and contains financial statements for the year May 1 2013 to April 30 2014 It describes the IMF's support for its 188 member countries with an emphasis on the core areas of IMF responsibility assessing their economic and financial policies providing financing where needed and building capacity in key areas of economic policy Advancing Multicultural Dialogues in Education Richard Race, 2017-10-27 This edited collection advances the call for continued multicultural dialogues within education Dialogue and education are the two most essential tools that can help tackle some of the biggest problems we are facing across the globe including fanaticism chauvinistic nationalism religious fundamentalism and racism The contributors to this book explore the necessity of sustained dialogue within the wider social and political sciences alongside in national and international politics where more multicultural voices need to be heard in order to make progress The book builds on existing evidence and literature to advocate in favour of this movement and highlights how important and significant multiculturalism and multicultural education remains It will be essential reading for students and academics working in the fields of education and Creating Multicultural Change on Campus Raechele L. Pope, Amy L. Reynolds, John A. Mueller, 2014-06-16 Embrace the best practices for initiating multicultural change in individuals, groups, and institutions. Higher education institutions have begun to take steps toward addressing multicultural issues on campuses, but more often than not, those in charge of the task have received little to no training in the issues that are paramount in serving culturally diverse students. Creating Multicultural Change on Campus is a response to this problem, offering new conceptualizations and presenting practical strategies and best practices for higher education professionals who want to foster the awareness, knowledge, and skills necessary for multicultural change on an institutional level. In Creating Multicultural Change on Campus, the authors of the classic text Multicultural Competence in Student Affairs delve deep into key concepts in multicultural organizational development, guiding readers who want to enact change not just at the individual level but also at the group and institutional levels. Readers will be introduced to frameworks that are crucial for creating inclusive, welcoming, and affirming campus environments. You'll also find comprehensive examples from several institutions along with specific examples of effective multicultural practices that are useful for real-world situations. The book provides the strategies, frameworks, and expert guidance for recognizing and addressing multicultural issues in institutions of higher learning. Offers a rich understanding of both Multicultural Organizational Development (MCO) and the Multicultural Change Intervention Matrix (MCIM) and how these models are important for evaluating environments and outcomes. Is appropriate for those who serve students directly as well as higher education leaders and administrators who create professional development programs. Is designed as a practical guide and filled with specific examples to help readers apply strategies to their own campuses. A much-needed resource; this book can help lead institutions toward meaningful action that will have a positive impact for all individuals in a student body and the professionals who serve them.

Case Studies in Biocultural Diversity from Southeast Asia F. Merlin Franco, Magne Knudsen, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2022-07-27 This open access book demonstrates the linkages between local languages, traditional knowledge, and biodiversity at the landscape level in Asia.

providing a fresh approach to discussions on Asia's biocultural diversity. The book carries forward earlier analyses but importantly focuses on traditional ecological calendars, folk medicine, and folk names in the context of the vital importance of maintaining biological, cultural, and linguistic diversity. It does this by addressing a range of cases and issues in relation to Southeast Asia, Brunei Darussalam, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, and North East India. The several chapters demonstrate the ways in which the various forms of knowledge of the environment and its categorizations are important in areas such as landscape and resource management and conservation. They also demonstrate that environmental knowledge and the practical skills which accompany it are not necessarily widely shared. This book sends important messages to those who care about the sustainability of our environment, the maintenance of its biocultural diversity, or at least the maintenance of what remains of it because much has changed. This interdisciplinary collection draws from a wide range of disciplines and is of appeal to students and scholars in anthropology, environmental studies, geography, biodiversity, and linguistics. The considered key for societies to achieve greater social cohesion and equality. Yet schools, as the main providers of formal education, have increasingly come into question concerning their role in manifesting and perpetuating social categorisations, inequalities, and discrimination instead of decreasing existing fragmentations and challenging power relations and hierarchies. As a diverse society, Kenya is faced with power struggles and rivalries between different groups; for instance, along ethnic lines often constructed deep in colonial history. This affects teaching and learning in school, and the result is that Kenya is faced with vast disparities in terms of educational access and success, rendering some social groups marginalised and others favoured. Positioning Diversity at Kenyan Schools explores the ways in which teachers in Kenyan primary and secondary schools experience and deal with social categorisations and diversity in terms of ethnicity, gender, wealth, culture, religion, etc. in their professional practice and in the current education system. Using critical pedagogy and diversity theory as a lens for positioning diversity in Kenyan schools, the questions that this book sets out to answer are: In what ways do the teachers and schools' practices lead to transformation in terms of more social equality and less discrimination? In what ways do the practices manifest existing group categorisations, hierarchies, and discrimination? How can schools and teaching practices in postcolonial Kenya become more inclusive and foster social cohesion and equality? Handbook of Research
