Dismantle, Erase Brett Josef Grubisic, Gisèle M. Baxter, Tara Lee, 2014-06-16 What do literary dystopias reflect about the times In Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase contributors address this amorphous but pervasive genre using diverse critical methodologies to examine how North America is conveyed or portrayed in a perceived age of crisis accelerated uncertainty and political volatility Drawing from contemporary novels such as Cormac McCarthy's The Road Neil Gaiman's American Gods and the work of Margaret Atwood and William Gibson to name a few this book examines dystopian literature produced by North American authors between the signing of NAFTA 1994 and the tenth anniversary of 9 11 2001 As the texts illustrate awareness of and deep concern about perceived vulnerabilities ends of water oil food capitalism empires stable climates ways of life non human species and entire human civilizations have become central to public discourse over the same period By asking questions such as What are the distinctive qualities of post NAFTA North American dystopian literature and What does this literature reflect about the tensions and contradictions of the inchoate continental community of North America Blast Corrupt Dismantle Erase serves to resituate dystopian writing within a particular geo social setting and introduce a productive means to understand both North American dystopian writing and its relevant engagements with a restricted mapped reality Teaching Young Adult Literature Today Judith A. Hayn, Jeffrey S. Kaplan, Karina R.

Clemmons, 2016-11-02 Teaching Young Adult Literature Today introduces the reader to what is current and relevant in the plethora of good books available for adolescents More importantly literary experts illustrate how teachers everywhere can help their students become lifelong readers by simply introducing them to great reads smart insightful and engaging books that are specifically written for adolescents Hayn Kaplan and their contributors address a wide range of topics how to avoid common obstacles to using YAL selecting quality YAL for classrooms while balancing these with curriculum requirements engaging disenfranchised readers pairing YAL with technology as an innovative way to teach curriculum standards across all content areas Contributors also discuss more theoretical subjects such as the absence of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and questioning LGBTQ young adult literature in secondary classrooms and contemporary YAL that responds to the changing expectations of digital generation readers who want to blur the boundaries between page and screen This book has been updated to reflect the wealth of new YA literature that has been published since the first edition appeared in March 2012 and to reflect new trends in technology that influences how adolescents are reading and responding to literature

Everybody Sees the Ants A.S. King,2011-10-03 Lucky Linderman didn't ask for his life He didn't ask his grandfather not to come home from the Vietnam War He didn't ask for a father who never got over it He didn't ask for a mother who keeps pretending their dysfunctional family is fine And he didn't ask to be the target of Nader McMillan's relentless bullying which has finally gone too far But Lucky has a secret one that helps him wade through the daily mundane torture of his life In his dreams Lucky escapes to the war-ridden jungles of Laos the prison his grandfather couldn't escape where Lucky can be a real man an adventurer and a hero It's dangerous and wild and it's a place where his life just might be worth living But how long can Lucky keep hiding in his dreams before reality forces its way inside

Michael L Printz Honor recipient A S King's smart funny and boldly original writing shines in this powerful novel about learning to cope with the shrapnel life throws at you and taking a stand against it

Whole Novels for the Whole Class Ariel Sacks,2013-10-03 Work with students at all levels to help them read novels Whole Novels is a practical field-tested guide to implementing a student-centered literature program that promotes critical thinking and literary understanding through the study of novels with middle school students Rather than using novels simply to teach basic literacy skills and comprehension strategies Whole Novels approaches literature as art The book is fully aligned with the Common Core ELA Standards and offers tips for implementing whole novels in various contexts including suggestions for teachers interested in trying out small steps in their classrooms first Includes a powerful method for teaching literature writing and critical thinking to middle school students Shows how to use the Whole Novels approach in conjunction with other programs Includes video clips of the author using the techniques in her own classroom This resource will help teachers work with students of varying abilities in reading whole novels

Race in Young Adult Speculative Fiction Meghan Gilbert-Hickey,Miranda A. Green-Barteet,2021-04-22 Winner of the Children's Literature Association's 2023 Edited Book Award Contributions by Malin Alkestrand Joshua Yu Burnett Sean P Connors Jill Coste Meghan Gilbert Hickey Miranda A Green Barteet Sierra Hale Kathryn Strong Hansen Elizabeth Ho Esther L Jones Sarah Olutola Alex Polish Zara Rix Susan Tan and Roberta Seelinger Trites Race in Young Adult Speculative Fiction offers a sustained analysis of race and representation in young adult speculative fiction YASF The collection considers how characters of color are represented in YASF how they contribute to and participate in speculative worlds how race affects or influences the structures of speculative worlds and how race and racial ideologies are implicated in YASF This collection also examines how race and racism are discussed in YASF or if indeed race and racism are discussed at all Essays explore such notable and popular works as the Divergent series The Red Queen The Lunar Chronicles and the Infernal Devices trilogy

They consider the effects of colorblind ideology and postracialism on YASF a genre that is often seen as progressive in its representation of adolescent protagonists Simply put colorblindness silences those who believe and whose experiences demonstrate that race and racism do continue to matter In examining how some YASF texts normalize many of our social structures and hierarchies this collection examines how race and racism are represented in the genre and considers how hierarchies of race are reinscribed in some texts and transgressed in others Contributors point toward the potential of YASF to address and interrogate racial inequities in the contemporary West and beyond They critique texts that fall short of this possibility and they articulate ways in which readers and critics alike might nonetheless locate diversity within narratives This is a collection troubled by the lingering emphasis on colorblindness in YASF but it is also the work of scholars who love the genre and celebrate its progress toward inclusivity and who further see in it an enduring future for intersectional identity

Hayn, Jeffrey S. Kaplan, Amanda L. Nolen, Heather A. Olvey, 2015-11-19 No matter the location schools are guided by standards including Common Core State Standards This collection of contributions by some of the country's leading literacy experts offers practical suggestions for implementing young adult literature to meet the demand that standards mandate for focusing on nonfiction in teaching literacy The challenges to CCSS abound and teachers who are currently seeking avenues to reach their students no matter what content they teach will find the strategies and suggestions useful The text advocates using young adult literature to accomplish content area literacy and is intended as a primer for those who are building curriculum

Citizenship, Law and Literature Caroline Koegler, Jesper Reddig, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2021-10-25 This edited volume is the first to focus on how concepts of citizenship diversify and stimulate the long standing field of law and literature and vice versa Building on existing research in law and literature as well as literature and citizenship studies the collection approaches the triangular relationship between citizenship law and literature from a variety of disciplinary conceptual and political perspectives with particular emphasis on the performative aspect inherent in any type of social expression and cultural artefact The sixteen chapters in this volume present literature as carrying multifarious at times opposing energies and impulses in relation to citizenship These range from providing discursive arenas for consolidating challenging and re negotiating citizenship to directly interfering with or inspiring processes of law making and governance The volume opens up new possibilities for the scholarly understanding of citizenship along two axes Citizenship as Literature Enacting Citizenship and Citizenship in Literature Conceptualising Citizenship

Stewardship and the Future of the Planet Rachel Carnell, Chris Mounsey, 2022-07-22 This volume examines historical views of stewardship that have sometimes allowed humans to ravage the earth as well as contemporary and futuristic visions of stewardship that will be necessary to achieve pragmatic progress to save life on earth as we know it The idea of stewardship human responsibility to tend the Earth has been central to human cultures throughout history as evident in the Judeo Christian Genesis story of the Garden of Eden and in a diverse range of parallel tales from other traditions around the world Despite such foundational hortatory stories about preserving the earth on which we live humanity in the Anthropocene is nevertheless currently destroying the planet with breathtaking speed Much research on stewardship today in the disciplines of geography urban studies oceans research and green business practice offers insights that should help address the ecological challenges facing the planet Simultaneous scholarship in the humanities and other fields reminds us that the damage done to the planet has often been carried out in the name of tending the land In order to make progress in environmental stewardship scholars must speak to each other across the disciplinary boundaries as they do in this volume
