Diversity In Mind And In Action 3 Volumes Praeger Perspectives:

Diversity in Mind and in Action [3 Volumes] Jean Lau Chin, 2009-06-22 America as a melting pot is a myth. Divergent groups do not fully blend with each other and the fact that people can retain their cultural identities is our strength. Our weakness, however, is a lack of respect for diversity that may reduce opportunity in areas ranging from health and education to employment and legal protection. The importance of understanding, supporting, and acting to encourage cultural diversity across social, psychological, political, legal, career, and educational avenues is addressed in this one-stop source for the latest research, developments, and updates. Social privilege for certain groups, the oppression of others, and methods to teach diversity necessary for our future are all addressed. Contributors from psychologists to educators to social workers also take a close look at programs spurring success in diversity in the United States and globally. This dynamic, revealing work demonstrates that we must expand and are expanding our definition of diversity to include not only race and ethnicity but also sexual orientation, religion, and disability. The challenge for those who want a society that honors all is to establish equity for all.

Diversity in Mind and in Action [3 Volumes] Jean Lau Chin, 2009-06-22 The editor of the award-winning four-volume Praeger set The Psychology of Prejudice and Discrimination brings her team back together to take a comprehensive look at the flip side of the issue: diversity. The challenge for those who want a society that honors all is to establish equity for all. While full victory in that challenge has been slow to come, Diversity in Mind and in Action makes it clear that there are success stories to be shared and new avenues to be spotlighted. Features personal stories and vignettes to illustrate effects of policies and programs or lack thereof. Offers Key Questions as an appendix in each volume. Includes six illustrations.
