Actors Join Writers on Strike

• THERE is little doubt that this morning starts a new history of the picture industry. What has been known, for over 50 years, as "the picture business" now takes on and will have a different face during the next several months and for the rest of its days.

EVERYTHING in the business will be changed—production, distribution, exhibition. The strike of the actors and the writers will demand, and get, a new operation all around reaching every pay check in the business.

We look for a sell-off of most major studios and a sell-out of all backlogs to TV. We anticipate all production to be conducted on an individual basis, leasing studio space and distributing through one of the existing major setups, but each greatly reduced in size and overhead and, as a result, a greatly reduced handling fee. We believe these changes will bring down the price of tickets at least 50% and the whole package of production, distribution and exhibition might again enjoy the $50,000,000 to 100,000,000 customers the movies formerly entertained each week.

It's our opinion that not ONE major company had any idea of selling its backlog because of the continual rise in ticket sales for the past eight months, and even with the tremendous cost of production and the ability to make just a few hits each year, they could live with the amount of money coming in at the boxoffice. You might say, "Of the majors were dead set against any TV."

Guild Calls on Studios to Return to Negotiating Table

A last-minute request from major studios for a moratorium on the strike was rejected by unanimous vote of the guild members yesterday afternoon.

Sinatra To Star In Six Pontiac Specials On NBC In 1960-61

As his own first client for his newly-formed theatrical agency, Frank Sinatra has closed a deal with Pontiac, whereby he'll star in six specials next season on NBC-TV. Since Pontiac has always broadcast its specials, it is assumed Sinatra for the first time will beam his specials in the big medium. It's also fairly certain Sammy Davis Jr., Zsa Zsa Gabor, Dean Jagger, Robert Lawford and Shirley Maerz, among others, will shift theatrical representation to Sinatra's agency.

Sinatra concludes a three-year pact with ABC on May 11, when he beams "Welcome Home to Elvis Presley."

Roach Establishing Puerto Rico Studio

San Juan, P. R.—Roach Corp., headed by Roach, with Puerto Rican and other investors and an authorized $3,000,000, is leasing a port hangar at Isla Grande, the Puerto Rico Ports Authority. (Continued on Page 4) and the strike now is in effect. In reply to producers' proposals that pictures now in progress be allowed to finish shooting, the guild replied, "a strike is a strike and the major company presidents are responsible for it, therefore no moratorium can be given."

The guild also called a mass membership meeting for next Sunday night at the Hollywood Palladium at which the membership will be brought up to date on developments. The board also voted to ask the Federal Mediation Agency to help settle the dispute.

Italian Producers Step Up Activity

Rome—Possibly with an eye to a bigger share of the U.S. and world film market resulting from the Hollywood strike situation, Italian producers are stepping up activity.

Productions and co-productions, which the Italian situation has gone past.

Producers Laid Off
Warren producers, a strike victim, are preparing two

Actors Seek Legal Advice

Group of SAG members opposed to the strike have consulted an attorney for legal opinion on feasibility of petitioning for an NLRB election of actors working in the struck major studios. Position of the dissidents is that SAG no longer has a collective bargaining agreement. Situation is similar to that of musicians two years ago when Musicians Guild of America won bargaining rights for tunesters in the major plants over the AFM, after latter staged a walkout.

Sinatra And Sidney Paying IA Double Guilds' Demands

Demands of the IATSE and basic studio craft unions for double the amount of added payments granted by producers to the actors and writers guilds on post-1948 films released to TV has created a serious roadblock in Guild negotiations with independent producers for new contracts.

Johnston To Fabian: 'It's Up To Actors'

Replying to another telegram from S. H. Fabian, chairman of American Congress of Exhibitors, to AMPP executive vice Charles S. Boren, urging a delay in the SAG strike to give the parties "more time to arrive at some statesmanlike solution acceptable to all" and warning that a studio shutdown will result in "irreparable damage,"
