multiple instances of translated compilations Translation and Transfer of Knowledge in Encyclopedic Compilations 1680 1830 expands into the vast realm of the multilingual encyclopedic compilation the most tangible proof of the global enlightenment Through the presentation of an extensive corpus of translated compilations this volume argues that the true site of knowledge transfer resided in the transnational movement of ideas exemplified by these compendia The encyclopedia came to represent the aspiring nation as a viable economic and political player on the world stage the capability to tell knowledge through culture became the hallmark of a nation s cultural capital symbolic of its might and mapping the how why and where of the global eighteenth century Encyclopédie Philipp Blom, 2004 The story of one of the most revolutionary books in history the Encyclopédie and the young men who risked everything to write it In 1777 a group of young men produced a book that aimed to tear the world apart and rebuild it It filled 27 volumes and contained 72 000 articles 16 500 pages and 17 million words The Encyclopédie was so dangerous and subversive that it was banned by the Pope and was seen as one of the causes of the French Revolution The writers included some of the greatest minds of the age Denis Diderot the editor who had come to Paris to become a Jesuit but found the joys of the city too enticing d Alembert one of the leading mathematician of the 18th century Rousseau the father of Romanticism and Voltaire the author of CANDIDE During the 16 years it took to write compile and produce all 27 volumes the writers had to defy the authorities and faced exile jail and censorship as well as numerous internal falling outs and philosophical differences Enlightening the World Philipp Blom, 2005-06-11 During the sixteen years it took to write compile and produce all twenty seven volumes the writers had to defy authorities and face exile jail and censorship as well as numerous internal falling outs and philosophical differences Encyclopédie s editors and contributors daily skirted danger based solely on their belief systems Compiling this collection made them the Encyclopedists as they came to be called the most feared men in all of Versailles and the intellectual leaders of the French Revolution In Enlightening the World novelist and historian Philipp Blom breathes new life into the sixteen year struggle to create the Encyclopédie by portraying the men who wrote it the powerful forces that tried to suppress it and the tremendous impact it had on the world BOOK JACKET Transforming Topoi Andrew James Johnston, Margitta Rouse, Wilhelm Schmidt-Biggemann, 2018-09-10 Traditionen leben von der Dialektik der Wiederholung die das Gleiche stets anders inszeniert Sie speisen sich aus den Erinnerungen an der Grenze von bedacht und selbstverst ndlich getan lassen sie sich nur als selbstverst ndliche berzeugungen bestimmen Aber wie ist es dennoch m glich Traditionen zu beeinflussen Der vorliegende Band widmet sich der Frage wie man mit Traditionen Symbolpolitik machen kann Was sind die Zumutungen der Traditionen wenn sie politisch instrumentalisiert werden Gibt es Grenzen der Manipulation die im Wesen der jeweiligen Traditionen liegen und sie folglich definieren Die Beitr gerInnen geben eine Vielzahl von Antworten indem sie sich Topoi aus Mittelalter und Fr her Neuzeit aus interdisziplin rer Perspektive widmen Traditions thrive on the dialectic of repetition Drawing their topoi from the well of memory they are situated on the very border between the deliberate and the habitual

Yet how is it possible to influence traditions The present collection of essays studies the ways in which traditions are employed in the service of symbolic politics What are the burdens and impositions of traditions when their topoi are consciously exploited in the service of ideological purposes Are there certain limits to manipulation that lie in the very nature of the traditions in question a nature which therefore defines them The contributors give a host of answers studying topoi in medieval and early modern Europe from an interdisciplinary perspective Archaeology of the Unconscious Alessandra Aloisi, Fabio Camilletti, 2019-07-10 In reconstructing the birth and development of the notion of unconscious historians of ideas have heavily relied on the Freudian concept of Unbewussten retroactively projecting the psychoanalytic unconscious over a constellation of diverse cultural experiences taking place in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries between France and Germany Archaeology of the Unconscious aims to challenge this perspective by adopting an unusual and thought provoking viewpoint as the one offered by the Italian case from the 1770s to the immediate aftermath of WWI when Italo Svevo's La coscienza di Zeno provides Italy with the first example of a psychoanalytic novel Italy's vibrant culture of the long nineteenth century characterised by the sedimentation circulation intersection and synergy of different cultural philosophical and literary traditions proves itself to be a privileged object of inquiry for an archaeological study of the unconscious a study whose object is not the alleged origin of a pre made theoretical construct but rather the stratifications by which that specific construct was assembled In line with Michel Foucault's Archéologie du savoir 1969 this volume will analyze the formation and the circulation across different authors and texts of a network of ideas and discourses on interconnected themes including dreams memory recollection desire imagination fantasy madness creativity inspiration magnetism and somnambulism Alongside questioning pre given narratives of the history of the unconscious this book will employ the Italian difference as a powerful perspective from whence to address the undeveloped potentialities of the pre Freudian unconscious beyond uniquely psychoanalytical viewpoints A Frail Liberty Tessie P. Liu, 2022-07 A Frail Liberty traces the paradoxical actions of the first French abolitionist society the Société des Amis des Noirs Society of the Friends of Blacks at the juncture of two unprecedented achievements of the revolutionary era the extension of full rights of citizenship to qualifying free men of color in 1792 and the emancipation decree of 1794 that simultaneously declared the formerly enslaved to be citizens of France This society helped form the revolution's notion of color blind equality yet did not protest the pro slavery attack on the new citizens of France Tessie P Liu prioritizes the understanding of the elite insiders vision of equality as crucial to understanding this dualism By documenting the link between outright exclusion and political inclusion and emphasizing that a nation's perceived qualifications for citizenship formulate a particular conception of racial equality Liu argues that the treatment and status distinctions between free people of color and the formerly enslaved parallel the infamous divide between active and passive citizens These two populations of colonial citizens with African ancestry then must be considered part of the normative operations of French citizenship at the time Uniquely locating racial differentiation in the French and Haitian revolutions within the logic and structures of political representation Liu deepens the conversation regarding race as a civic identity within democratic societies The Sensational Past: How the Enlightenment Changed the Way We Use Our Senses Carolyn Purnell, 2017-02-07 Sight smell hearing taste and touch as they were celebrated during the Enlightenment and as they are perceived today Blindfolding children from birth Playing a piano made of live cats Using tobacco to cure drowning Wearing flea colored clothes These actions may seem odd to us but in the eighteenth century they made perfect sense As often as we use our senses we rarely stop to think about their place in history But perception is not dependent on the body alone Carolyn Purnell persuasively shows that while our bodies may not change dramatically the way we think about the senses and put them to use has been rather different over the ages Journeying through the past three hundred years Purnell explores how people used their senses in ways that might shock us now And perhaps more surprisingly she shows how many of our own ways of life are a legacy of this earlier time The Sensational Past focuses on the ways in which small peculiar and seemingly unimportant facts open up new ways of thinking about the past You will explore the sensory worlds of the Enlightenment learning how people in the past used their senses understood their bodies and experienced the rapidly shifting world around them In this smart and witty work Purnell reminds us of the value of daily life and the power of the smallest aspects of existence using culinary history fashion medicine music and many other aspects of Enlightenment life

Breaking up Time Chris Lorenz, Berber Bevernage, 2013-06-19 Thirteen expert historians and philosophers address basic questions on historical time and on the distinctions between past present and future Their contributions are organised around four themes the relation between time and modernity the issue of ruptures in time and the influence of catastrophic events such as revolutions and wars on temporal distinctions the philosophical analysis of historical time and temporal distinctions and the construction of time outside Europe through processes of colonialism imperialism and globalisation

The Extraterrestrial Encyclopedia David Darling ,Dirk Schulze-Makuch, 2016-02-17 The Extraterrestrial Encyclopedia is an A to Z of the search for life in the Universe Entries cover astrobiology the origins and evolution of life the hunt for exoplanets SETI and extraterrestrial life in science fiction philosophy and popular speculation including UFOs The book is written in an engaging style for the layperson and contains numerous B W illustrations Keywords Encyclopedia ET SETI Science Extraterrestrial Origins Evolution Planets Universe David Darling Dirk Schulze Makuch Stars Life Keywords for Marxist Art History Today Larne Abse Gogarty, Andrew Hemingway, 2020-05-11 The mood of systemic crisis that has marked the early 21st century has been accompanied by an upsurge in Marxist thought in a whole range of domains and extends to art history In this volume 19 scholars from different generations different national contexts and with different relationships to Marxism reflect on the status of 18 keywords with special pertinence to Marxist art historical inquiry today Starting point of the researches was the knowledge that while certain keywords have been crucial to recent developments in Marxist art history and cultural theory more broadly others seem to have slipped out of view The scholars are not so much interested in the historical semantics of words although that plays some role in the essays as in the present state of Marxist art history

Leibniz: Logico-Philosophical Puzzles in the Law Alberto Artosi, Bernardo Pieri, Giovanni Sartor, 2013-06-06 This volume presents two Leibnizian writings the Specimen of Philosophical Questions Collected from the Law and the Dissertation on Perplexing Cases These works originally published in 1664 and 1666 constitute respectively Leibniz's thesis for the title of Master of Philosophy and his doctoral dissertation in law Besides providing evidence of the earliest development of Leibniz's thought and amazing anticipations of his mature views they present a genuine intellectual interest for the freshness and originality of Leibniz's reflections on a striking variety of logico philosophical puzzles drawn from the law The Specimen addresses puzzling issues resulting from apparent conflicts between law and philosophy the latter broadly understood as comprising also mathematics as well as empirical sciences The Dissertation addresses cases whose solution is puzzling because of the convoluted logical form of legal dispositions and contractual clauses or because of conflicting priorities between concurring parties In each case Leibniz dissects the problems with the greatest ingenuity disentangling their different aspects and proposing solutions always reasonable and sometimes surprising And he does not refrain from peppering his intellectual acrobatics with some humorous comments

The Other Enlightenment Matthew Sharpe, 2023-02-16 Challenging widespread misunderstandings this book shows that central to key enlightenment texts was the practice of estranging taken for granted prejudices by adopting the perspective of Others The enlightenment's key progenitors led by Montesquieu Voltaire and Diderot were more empiricist than rationalist and more critical than utopian Moreover each was an artful exponent of the proto postmodernist practice of asking Europeans to review what they considered unquestionable through the eyes of Others Persians women Tahitians Londoners natives and natives the blind and even imaginary extra terrestrials This book aims to show that this self estrangement as a means to gain critical distance from one's taken for granted assumptions was central to the enlightenment and remains vital for critical and constructive sociopolitical thinking today

The History of Cartography, Volume 4 Matthew H. Edney, Mary Sponberg Pedley, 2020-05-15 Since its launch in 1987 the History of Cartography series has garnered critical acclaim and sparked a new generation of interdisciplinary scholarship Cartography in the European Enlightenment the highly anticipated fourth volume offers a comprehensive overview of the cartographic practices of Europeans Russians and the Ottomans both at home and in overseas territories from 1650 to 1800 The social and intellectual changes that swept Enlightenment Europe also transformed many of its mapmaking practices A new emphasis on geometric principles gave rise to improved tools for measuring and mapping the world even as large scale cartographic projects became possible under the aegis of powerful states Yet older mapping practices persisted Enlightenment cartography encompassed a wide variety of processes for making circulating and using maps of different types The volume's more than four hundred encyclopedic articles explore the era's mapping covering topics both detailed such as geodetic surveying thematic mapping and map collecting and broad such as women and cartography cartography and the economy and the art and design of maps Copious bibliographical references and nearly one thousand full color illustrations complement the detailed entries

The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell,Nikolai Kremmentsov,2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind

Rebuilding the Profession Dorothy Figueira,2020-01-20 This volume is meant to be a retrospective look at the field of Comparative Literature as it has developed in the past two decades as well as a reflection on its future direction if it is to remain relevant and innovative as a field of study From its inception in the second half of the twentieth century Comparative Literature in the US has been conceived as a cross disciplinary cross national and crosscultural enterprise that brings together theoretical developments in the Humanities and Social Sciences to reflect on the most important intellectual and cultural trends from a comparative perspective through the lens of literary studies Most of the founders of Comparative Literature were distinguished European scholars who sought a safe haven from the ravages of World War II and its aftermath and who understandably focused on the Western literary intellectual and cultural tradition which at the time was in danger of being annihilated by the onslaught of Fascism and Communism With the advent of the age of globalization the field of Comparative Literature has become increasingly diverse and must therefore be reoriented and recognized accordingly
