The Times of the Americas, 1978 The national newspaper about all of Latin America Decolonizing Modernism Jose Luis Venegas, 2017-07-05 James Joyce's Ulysses 1922 has been recognized as a central model for the Spanish American New Narrative Joyce's linguistic and technical influence became the unequivocal sign that literature in Spanish America had definitively abandoned narrow regionalist concerns and entered a global literary canon In this bold and wide ranging study Jose Luis Venegas rethinks this evolutionary conception of literary history by focusing on the connection between cultural specificity and literary innovation He argues that the intertextual dialogue between James Joyce and prominent authors such as Argentines Jorge Luis Borges and Julio Cortazar Cuban Guillermo Cabrera Infante and Mexican Fernando del Paso reveals the anti colonial value of modernist form Venegas explores the historical similarities between Joyce's Ireland during the 1920s and Spanish America between the 1940s and 70s to challenge depoliticized interpretations of modernist aesthetics and propose unsuspected connections between formal experimentation and the cultural transformations demanded by decolonizing societies Jose Luis Venegas is Visiting Assistant Professor of Spanish at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro

First Pages Giancarlo Maiorino,2010-11 Titology a term first coined in 1977 by literary critic Harry Levin is the field of literary studies that focuses on the significance of a title in establishing the thematic developments of the pages that follow While the term has been used in the literary community for thirty years this book presents for the first time a thoroughly developed theoretical discussion on the significance of the title as a foundation for scholarly criticism Though Maiorino acknowledges that many titles are superficial and indexical there exists a separate and more complex class of titles that do much more than simply decorate a book s spine To prove this argument Maiorino analyzes a wide range of examples from the modern era through high modernism to postmodernism with writings spanning the globe from Spain and France to Germany and America By examining works such as Essais The Waste Land Ulysses and Don Quixote First Pages proves the power of the title to connect the reader to the thematic cultural and literary context of the writing as a whole Much like a facade to a building the title page serves as the frontispiece of literature a sign that offers perspective and demands interpretation
