McCandless, Susan T. Gooden, 2024-03-05 Public administration education programs prepare students in the provision of important public and nonprofit services so it is essential that such programs help prepare administrators to advance social equity one of the pillars of the discipline This exciting new book from social equity authorities Sean McCandless and Susan T Gooden demonstrates how public administration faculty can teach social equity across the curriculum in practical terms This edited collection features chapters from authors experienced in both public administration and in teaching social equity Each chapter discusses teaching social equity in a particular class Introduction to Public Administration Organizational Dynamics and Theory Human Resources Policy Process Research Methods Capstones and more through distinct pedagogical practices that advance student learning including case studies community engagement projects and simulations The text captures an array of instructional approaches to social equity within public affairs education particularly at the graduate level It includes approaches from both established and newer instructors across a diversity of universities The book serves as an important resource to faculty who teach these courses as well as the students who take them Most importantly it is a resource to academics and practitioners alike who share a commitment to fairness in the implementation of public services Jsl Vol 18-N2 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 2009-09-16 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Political Parties and Political Systems Andrea Rómmele, Piero Ignazi, David M. Farrell, 2005-04-30 Since its release in 1980 Kay Lawson s Political Parties and Linkage A Comparative Perspective has become a classic text in the field of political science In her groundbreaking work Lawson approaches linkage from an angle left unexplored by her predecessors Her thinking filled in the systematic and theoretical void by envisioning political parties as the link between citizens and policy makers This collection of essays by leading political scientists reflects on Lawson s concept of linkage its theory and its application over the last quarter century The work is divided into two sections the first covers linkage s impact on party research and the second focuses on its application in general political science The first looks at such topics as the evolution and intellectual development of Lawson s concept through social actors policy responsiveness and multi layer politics The second handles issues like globalization the relation of state and society the European Union and it s proposed constitutional reform and the cross cultural significance of linkage in such countries as India The book concludes with an illuminating chapter by Lawson that responds to the featured themes and explains her current views on linkage and democracy

Justice of the Peace and Local Government Review ,1928 Dewey and European Education Jürgen Oelkers,Heinz Rhyn,2012-12-06 Although John Dewey s ideas have been of central interest in Anglo Saxon philosophy and history of education it is only recently that similar interest has developed in continental Europe Deweyan philosophy of education has had to pass through national filters which meant that it was received in national contexts of reform The German Dewey was differently construed to the French Italian or English Dewey This seems to change after 1989 and the fall of socialist education when interest in Dewey increased The new political and philosophical interest in Dewey has to do with the lost alternative socialism and thus with the opening of Eastern Europe and the new problems of education within a worldwide community This volume stresses two points The original interest of European education in Dewey will be presented in case studies concerning different national contexts and thus different Dewey s What can be called the renewal of interest will be argued from different sides It is our intention to show that today s interest in Dewey is not the remake of the reception within the different camps of progressive education This volume will be of interest to philosophers of education historians of education and people engaged in the philosophy history and the reception of Dewey Building Knowledge in Higher Education Christine Winberg,Sioux McKenna,Kirstin Wilmot,2020-05-27 From pressures to become economically efficient to calls to act as an agent of progressive social change higher education is facing a series of challenges There is an urgent need for a rigorous and sophisticated research base to support the informed development of practices Yet studies of educational practices in higher education remain theoretically underdeveloped and segmented by discipline and country Building Knowledge in Higher Education illustrates how Legitimation Code Theory is bringing research together from across the disciplinary map and enabling practical change in a rigorously theorized way The volume addresses both students and educators Part I explores ways of supporting student achievement from STEM to the arts from introductory courses to doctoral training and from using new digital media to reflective writing Part II focuses on academic staff development in higher education reaching from curriculum design to pedagogic practices All chapters focus on issues of contemporary relevance to higher education showing how Legitimation Code Theory enables these issues to be understood and practices improved Building Knowledge in Higher Education brings together internationally renowned scholars in higher education studies academic development academic literacies and sociology with some of the brightest new researchers The volume significantly extends understandings of teaching and learning in changing higher education contexts and so contributes to educational research and practice It will be essential reading not only to scholars and students in these fields but also to scholars and educators in higher education more generally

International Handbook of Violence Research Wilhelm Heitmeyer, John Hagan, 2003-12-31 An international manual is like a world cruise a once in a lifetime experience All the more reason to consider carefully whether it is necessary This can hardly be the case if previous research in the selected field has already been the subject of an earlier review or even several competing surveys On the other hand more thorough study is necessary if the intensity and scope of research are increasing without comprehensive assessments That was the situation in Western societies when work began on this project in the summer of 1998 It was then too that the challenges emerged any manual especially an international one is a very special type of text which is anything but routine It calls for a special effort the state of the art has to be documented for selected subject areas and its presentation made as compelling as possible The editors were delighted therefore by the cooperation and commitment shown by the eighty one contributors from ten countries who were recruited to write on the sixty two different topics by the constructive way in which any requests for changes were dealt with and by the patient response to our many queries This volume is the result of a long process It began with the first drafts outlining the structure of the work which were submitted to various distinguished colleagues Friedheim Neidhardt of Berlin Gertrud Nunner Winkler of Munich and Roland Eckert of Trier to name only a few supplied valuable comments at this stage
