Handbook of Palliative Care Christina Faull, Sharon de Caestecker, Alex Nicholson, Fraser Black, 2012-10-16 This handbook offers a practical thorough approach to the clinical practice of palliative care Adding North American authors to its roster of UK contributors the third edition of this award winning book addresses important changes in the evidence base of palliative care as well as an emphasis on end of life community based care It features new chapters on dementia and advance care planning a simplified lymphoedema discussion and an ongoing commitment to providing essential guidance for physicians nurses and all primary care providers involved in palliative care in hospital hospice and community settings

Fundamental Aspects of Palliative Care Nursing 2nd Edition Robert Becker, 2016-06-13 This new and expanded edition is aimed directly at the learning needs of student nurses and is unique in that context Whilst there are many high quality books available for academic study in palliative care this is currently the only one that balances a strong educational focus for developing nursing practice with an understanding of the particular needs of student nurses The text maintains a sensitive and supportive approach to the key themes of palliative care nursing but contains important new material of a wide range of initiatives that are impacting on end of life care across the UK It will provide the reader with a concise easy to read and learning oriented text that will give advice and direction to the many challenges faced in this most important area of patient care Each chapter examines a key component of care and new features include Learning outcomes at the start of each chapter to guide the reader Clinical anecdotes to illustrate the reality and complexity of practice Extensive use of recognisable symbols to guide the reader and improve the usability of the text Competency assessment to help gauge knowledge and progress Reflective points to aid professional development Reflective activities to enable the student to reinforce learning from practice Links to appropriate clauses of the current 2008 NMC Code of Professional Conduct Quality internet resources relevant to chapter content Self assessment multiple choice tests at the end of each chapter to consolidate learning An extensive palliative care quiz covering the main topic areas of the book to test knowledge This can be used as evidence with professional portfolios Evidence-Based Geriatric Medicine Jayna

Holroyd-Leduc, Madhuri Reddy, 2012-05-07 The latest addition to the Evidence Based Book series Evidence Based Geriatric Medicine provides non geriatrician clinicians an overview of key topics central to the care of the older patient This guide focuses on the management of common problems in the elderly taking into account their life situations as well as treatment of specific conditions Leading geriatricians with expertise in evidence based medicine utilize the best available evidence and present this information in a concise easy to use question based format Evidence Based Geriatric Medicine is a unique guide to the optimum management of older patients Handbook of Psychiatry in Palliative Medicine Harvey Max

Chochinov, William Breitbart, 2009 Psychiatric or psychosocial palliative care has transformed palliative medicine Palliation that neglects psychosocial dimensions of patient and family experience fails to meet contemporary standards of comprehensive palliative care While a focus on somatic issues has sometimes overshadowed attention to psychological existential and spiritual end of life challenges the past decade has seen an all encompassing multi disciplinary approach to care for the dying take hold Written by internationally known psychiatry and palliative care experts the Handbook of Psychiatry in Palliative Medicine is an essential reference for all providers of palliative care including psychiatrists psychologists mental health counselors oncologists hospice workers and social workers Journal of the National Cancer Institute, 2008 The Handbook of LGBTQIA-Inclusive Hospice and Palliative Care Kimberly D. Acquaviva, 2023-10-10

Hospice and palliative care professionals are experts at caring for individuals and families experiencing serious or life limiting illnesses Not everyone feels safe seeking out their expertise however LGBTQIA people may be deterred from seeking support because of barriers both overt and subtle that hospice and palliative care programs and professionals erect through their policies and practices This book is an accessible expert guide to incorporating LGBTQIA inclusive practices into end of life care It equips both new and experienced hospice and palliative care professionals with the knowledge they need to ensure that all people receive high quality care Kimberly D Acquaviva surveys fundamental concepts and the latest clinical developments integrating relatable anecdotes and poignant personal reflections She discusses her own experience caring for her wife Kathy who was diagnosed with ovarian cancer in 2019 Unable to find a local hospice with an LGBTQIA inclusive nondiscrimination statement let alone one whose staff had been trained to provide nondiscriminatory care to LGBTQIA people Kathy died at home six months later without hospice care Acquaviva offers clear actionable strategies for palliative care and hospice physicians physician associates advanced practice registered nurses registered nurses social workers counselors chaplains and others She also emphasizes how incorporating LGBTQIA inclusive practices can transform work with every person receiving care Anchored in the evidence and written in plain language this book is the definitive guide for hospice and palliative care professionals seeking to deliver exceptional care to all the patients and families they serve

Heart Failure and Palliative Care Miriam Johnson,2024-11-01 This book is a guide to help clinicians caring for people with advanced heart failure develop a team approach for a group of people who despite the increased awareness remains disadvantaged in accessing support to help them live with and support them as they die from this serious illness Grief and Bereavement in the Adult Palliative Care Setting E. Alessandra Strada,2013-04-09 For patients and family caregivers the journey through illness and transitions of care is characterized by a series of progressive physical and emotional losses Grief reactions represent the natural response to those losses Grief is defined by a constellation of physical cognitive emotional and spiritual manifestations varying in length and severity While grief reactions are common and expected responses to loss they have the potential to cause significant suffering And while grief is not a disease it can develop into a pathological process warranting specialized treatment Additionally some aspects of grief overlap with the symptoms of clinical depression and anxiety making diagnosis difficult Grief and Bereavement in the Adult Palliative Care Setting provides practical evidence based and clinically effective approaches to understanding the multifaceted nature of grief and bereavement in patients with advanced illness and their caregivers This handbook is an ideal tool for palliative care providers of various disciplines who provide direct clinical services to patients and family members It assists clinicians in recognizing and identifying grief reactions as unique expressions of patients and caregivers history and psychological functioning Primary care physicians who provide care to patients and families will also find this practical assessment and treatment guide helpful They will learn how to best support bereaved patients and caregivers when grief is uncomplicated and when to choose more active interventions that may include appropriate referrals to mental health professionals

Palliative Care Nursing Marianne Matzo, Marianne L. Matzo, Deborah Witt Sherman, 2018-06-28 This 5th edition is an important achievement it is a symbol of commitment to the field of palliative nursing where we have been and where we are going Betty Rolling Ferrell PhD MA FAAN FPCN CHPN From the Foreword The aging population has only grown since the first edition of this comprehensive and seminal publication nearly 20 years ago Based on the need to humanize rather than medicalize the illness experience for patients this text delves into palliative care beyond the specific diseases affecting the patient Instead content focuses on the whole person and family Palliative patients struggle with chronic debilitating and painful conditions and grapple with the fact that life as they knew it has already passed away Families and friends reciprocally suffer not knowing how to help and therefore become the secondary victims of the disease This is not the challenge of a lone nurse or a single physician therapist or social worker Rather palliative and hospice care requires the expertise and unique roles of an interprofessional team to help the patient and family strengthen their resilience continue to find meaning and purpose in life and cure what can be cured Palliative Care Nursing Fifth Edition delivers advanced empirical aesthetic ethical and personal knowledge This new edition brings an increased focus on outcomes benchmarking progress and goals of care It expounds upon the importance of the cross disciplinary collaboration introduced in the previous edition Every chapter in Sections I II and III includes content written by a non nursing member of the interprofessional team Based on best evidence and clinical practice guidelines this text presents comprehensive targeted interventions responsive to the needs of palliative and hospice patients and family Each chapter contains compassionate timely appropriate and cost effective care for diverse populations across the illness trajectory Key Features The expanded new edition offers current comprehensive one stop source of highly relevant clinical information on palliative care Life span approach age appropriate nursing considerations e g geriatric pediatric and family Includes disease specific and symptom specific nursing management chapters Promotes a holistic and interdisciplinary approach to palliative care Offers important legal ethical and cultural considerations related to death and dying Case Studies with Case Study Conclusion in each clinical chapter New to The Fifth Edition An expanded chapter on Palliative Care incorporates most up to date scope and standards information on Basic and Advanced HPNA certification self reflection and self care for nurses A chapter on Interprofessional Collaboration Instructor Resources Power points and Test bank

Improving Palliative Care for Cancer National Research Council, Institute of Medicine, National Cancer Policy Board, 2001-10-19 In our society's aggressive pursuit of cures for cancer we have neglected symptom control and comfort care Less than one percent of the National Cancer Institute's budget is spent on any aspect of palliative care research or education despite the half million people who die of cancer each year and the larger number living with cancer and its symptoms

Improving Palliative Care for Cancer examines the barriers scientific policy and social that keep those in need from getting good palliative care It goes on to recommend public and private sector actions that would lead to the development of more effective palliative interventions better information about currently used interventions and greater knowledge about and access to palliative care for all those with cancer who would benefit from it
