The SAGE Handbook of Social Gerontology Dale Dannefer, Chris Phillipson, 2010-08-13. This SAGE Handbook integrates basic research on social dimensions of aging. It presents programmatic applications of research in areas not often seen in Handbooks including imprisonment, technology and aging, urban society, aged and elderly migration. The authors constitute a Who's Who of international gerontology and the focus on globalization and aging is unique among Handbooks today. This Handbook should be in the library of every social gerontologist. Vern L Bengtson, Professor of Gerontology, University of Southern California. This volume reflects the emergence of ageing as a global concern including chapters by international scholars from Asia, Australasia, Europe and North America. It provides a comprehensive overview of key trends and issues in the field drawing upon the full range of social science disciplines. The Handbook is organized into five parts each exploring different aspects of research into social aspects of ageing: Disciplinary overviews, summaries of findings from key disciplinary areas within social gerontology, Social relationships and social differences, explores area like social inequality, gender, religion, inter generational ties, social networks and friendships, Individual characteristics and change in later life, examines different aspects of individual aging including self and identity, cognitive processes and bio social interactions and their impact on physical and psychological aging, Comparative perspectives and cultural innovations, topics include ageing and development, ageing in a global context, migration and cross cultural perspectives on grandparenthood, Policy issues covering policy concerns such as long term care, technology and older people, end of life issues, work and retirement and the politics of old age. This will be essential reading for all students, researchers and policy makers concerned with the major issues influencing the lives of older people across the globe.

Handbook of Sociology of Aging Richard A. Settersten, Jr., Jacqueline L. Angel, 2011-05-11. The Handbook of Sociology of Aging is the most comprehensive, engaging and up to date treatment of developments within the field over the past 30 years. The volume represents an indispensable source of the freshest and highest standard scholarship for scholars, policy makers and aging professionals alike. The Handbook of Sociology of Aging contains 45 far reaching chapters authored by nearly 80 of the most renowned experts on the most pressing topics related to aging today. With its recurring attention to the social forces that shape human aging and the social consequences and policy implications of it, the contents will be of interest to everyone.

who cares about what aging means for individuals families and societies The chapters of the Handbook of Sociology of Aging illustrate the field s extraordinary breadth and depth which has never before been represented in a single volume Its contributions address topics that range from foundational matters such as classic and contemporary theories and methods to topics of longstanding and emergent interest such as social diversity and inequalities social relationships social institutions economies and governments social vulnerabilities public health and care arrangements The volume closes with a set of personal essays by senior scholars who share their experiences and hopes for the field and an essay by the editors that provides a roadmap for the decade ahead The Handbook of Sociology of Aging showcases the very best that sociology has to offer the study of human aging
