Franz Jagerstatter Letters And Writings From Prison:

Franz Jagerstatter Putz, Erna ,2021-02-01 Franz Jagerstatter an Austrian farmer devoted husband and father and devout Catholic was executed in 1943 for refusing to serve in the Nazi army Before taking this stand Jagerstatter had consulted both his pastor and his local bishop who instructed him to do his duty and to obey the law an instruction that violated his conscience For many years Jagerstatter's solitary witness was honored by the Catholic peace movement while viewed with discomfort by many of his fellow Austrians Now with his beatification in 2007 his example has been embraced by the universal church     The Spirit and the Screen Steven Félix-Jäger,Chris E. W. Green,2023-05-15

The Spirit and the Screen engages contemporary films from the perspective of pneumatology to give theologians of culture fruitful new perspectives that begin with the Spirit rather than other common theological contact points Christology anthropology theological ethics creation eschatology etc This book explores pertinent pneumatological issues that arise in film as well as literary devices that draw allusions to the Spirit It offers three main contributions first it explores how Christian understandings of the person and work of the Spirit illuminate the nature of film and film making second it shows that there are in fact Spirit figures in film as distinct from but inseparable from Christ figures even if sometimes they are not intended as such Spirit led characters are moved to act prophetically against their inclinations and in excess of their skill or knowledge and with eccentric life giving creativity third it identifies subtle and explicit symbolizations of the Spirit in pop culture symbolizations that require deep careful thinking about the Christian doctrine of the Spirit and generate new horizons for cultural analysis The contributors of this book explore these issues asking how Christian convictions and experiences of the Spirit might shape the way one thinks about films and film making     Introducing Catholic Social Thought J. Milburn Thompson,2015-02-26 Introduces Catholic social teaching of the twenty first century and includes encyclicals of Benedict XVI

Exploring Film and Christianity Rita Benis,Sérgio Dias Branco,2024-11-29 This book examines the connections between film and Christianity considering how films express and depict Christian faith and spirituality and provide experiences associated with it The notion of movement as immobility from Simone Weil is employed to describe film and its images in motion Its movements can reconnect us with the movements of the world those motions in which a mysterious sense of order what Weil calls immobility arises Film is understood as a privileged form to access inscrutable spiritual invisibilities that can be linked with Christian concepts and practices The chapters in Exploring Film and Christianity offer new studies of famous directors such as Andrei Tarkovsky and Robert Bresson combined with analyses of recent notable films including Terrence Malick's Knight of Cups Martin Scorsese's Silence and Denis Villeneuve's Blade Runner 2049 Organized around the productive topics of theory expression depiction and experience this volume is a valuable contribution to interdisciplinary research on film and Christianity     Conversion as Transformation Dominic Arcamone,2020-01-29 The process of human transformation is complex and ongoing This book presents a framework for understanding human transformation through the insights of Bernard Lonergan The reader will be introduced to terms such as the turn to the subject consciousness subjectivity and intersubjectivity It will explore terms such as horizon feelings values self esteem sublation conversion dialectic and religious experience The book explores transformation through the way mentors have authored their own lives told their own stories and taken possession of their interiority Transformation is illustrated through the lives of saints and ordinary men and women who did extraordinary things such as St Augustine Dag Hammarskjold Vaclav Havel Franz Jaggerstatter St Therese of Lisieux Fredrich Nietzsche Katherine Ann Power and Marie Cardinal Transformation is also illustrated through the medium of cinema Babette s Feast The Mission As It is in Heaven Romero Dead Poets Society Ordinary People The Godfather trilogy Three Color trilogy The Lord of the Rings trilogy Dial M for Murder and Twelve Angry Men While the book treats religious moral affective intellectual and psychic conversion as moments of transformation it argues that ecological conversion requires all of these so as to meet the most serious moral challenge of our time

The Invisible Source of Authority David Walsh,2025-07-15 The Invisible Source of Authority is a philosophical meditation on the secular age and challenges the notion that the secular can be understood without reference to God How does one reject God while denying belief This is the central paradox of our secular age where efforts to erase God only affirm his presence In The Invisible Source of Authority David Walsh examines this paradox and argues that a secular world actually reveals God more clearly rather than bringing about what has been called the death of God Unlike many critics of modernity Walsh argues that secularism is not inhospitable to authentic religious faith and cannot be understood without reference to God Drawing on the writings of early modern thinkers like Montaigne Descartes and Grotius Walsh asserts that God s absence from the secular world is testimony to God s transcendence Because the secular is always that which has withdrawn from serving God Walsh suggests that this presupposition proves that God remains indispensable to the self understanding of secular society The Invisible Source of Authority seeks to remind us that despite his seeming absence the transcendent God remains an essential presence

Austria's Difficult Past Jakub Gortat,2025-07-01 The role played by film in reshaping Austria s post war national identity is often studied within narrow historical and geographical margins Film history traditionally focuses on either the work of a sole director German cinematography or the immediate aftermath of World War

II and neglects the link that exists between historical television films and Austria's distinct culture of remembrance In Austria's Difficult Past Jakub Gortat addresses this gap by providing a comprehensive analysis of television films produced by Austrian ORF and German television studios between 1961 and 1980 In doing so he explores the way films mediated the burden of memory and the legacy of Austria's complicity in the Nazi regime A Passion for Life Joan

Chittister, 2014-01-10 Reflections by Joan Chittister with icons by Robert Lentz present over two dozen saints and prophets from Hildegard of Bingen to Martin Luther King Jr who speak to the urgent spiritual questions of our time Preventing

Unjust War Roger Bergman, 2020-12-15 Catholic pacifists blame the just war tradition of their Church That tradition they say can be invoked to justify any war and so it must be jettisoned This book argues that the problem is not the just war tradition but the unjust war tradition Ambitious rulers start wars that cannot be justified and yet warriors continue to fight them The problem is the belief that warriors do not hold any responsibility for judging the justice of the wars they are ordered to fight However unjust a command renders any war just for the obedient warrior This book argues that selective conscientious objection the right and duty to refuse to fight unjust wars is the solution Strengthening the just war tradition depends on a heightened role for the personal conscience of the warrior That in turn depends on a heightened role for the Church in forming and supporting consciences and judging the justice of particular wars As Saint Augustine wrote The wise man will wage just wars For unless the wars were just he would not have to wage them and in such circumstances he would not be involved in war at all The Root of War is Fear Forest, Jim, 2016-08-18 Providing an intimate and timely view of

Merton this book traces the theme of peace and nonviolence in Merton's life and writings drawing in particular on extensive correspondence with Jim Forest a Merton biographer Humility Michael W. Austin, 2024-03-12 Amid culture wars and church division Michael W Austin calls us back to the authentic Way following Christ in humility and love American Christians have lost the Way We chase power and comfort and coat our self-righteousness in a Christian veneer We comfort ourselves that we follow the rules and go to church so life will work out for us But we have forgotten what it means to truly follow Christ Michael Austin brings us back to basics of the Christian life humility and love Drawing on Philippians and 1 Corinthians Austin reminds us how Jesus in love poured himself out for others This other-centeredness stands contrary to vainglorious affirmation in our lives online and off and it is the key to healing the deep divisions in our communities Austin guides the reader through spiritual disciplines to aid in the formation of this virtue from praying the Psalms to building healthy communities For Christians seeking transformative union with God in their souls and society Humility is the ideal companion Martin Institute and the Dallas Willard Research Center at Westmont College Dallas Willard Research Center Book Award Finalist 2025 Into the Heart of the Father Leonard J. Y. Ciftci,2024-04-17 Should religion and politics be kept apart What should be the relationship between the church and the state M Y Ciftci answers these questions by studying the most important event in the recent history of the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council 1962 65 The book provides a new interpretation of the Council s teaching on church state relations to better appreciate its flaws and need for reform By paying attention to the often overlooked importance given by the Council to the lay apostolate it reveals how the Council did not reform as is often thought but retained a flawed conception of the laity s role in politics It then proposes a new framework for understanding church state relations using the ressourcement method of returning to scripture and tradition and by a critical dialogue with Oliver O Donovan and various Protestant biblical scholars of the Powers in the New Testament Ciftci shows how fruitful an self consciously ecumenical approach can be for political theology As most ressourcement theologians have overlooked political issues and since ecumenical theology rarely touches on issues of church state relations this work makes an original contribution to the ressourcement project and to ecumenism      The Life Journey of a Joyful Man of God Adrian L. van Kaam,2010-09-23 To have known Adrian van Kaam in person is to have loved him for reasons human and spiritual His kindness to everyone is as legendary as his fidelity to the mystery in all the peaks and valleys of daily life His humility is the fire that enkindles his original vision of formative spirituality His gentle joyful spirit radiates on every page of this retelling of his life story In it he takes us to the heart of his thinking in the fields of psychology and spiritual formation He welcomes us wholeheartedly into the intimate corners of his family his friendships and his pastoral and professional life He brings us into a little known arena of world history the infamous Dutch Hunger Winter of 1944 1945 We travel with him from that bleak period through the renewal of his life s work in the United States to its crowning phase in the Epiphany Association co founded with his colleague and editor of this unforgettable work of love Dr Susan Muto      The Gospel of Peace Dear, John,2023-11-10 A comprehensive commentary of the synoptic gospels from the perspective of nonviolence      How Saints Die Antonio Maria Sicari,2021-09-15 Italian Carmelite Antonio Maria Sicari s vibrant biographies of saints from Augustine to Catherine of Siena to Faustina Kowalska have been read across Europe for decades In How Saints Die Sicari turns to the most difficult challenge in the life of a Christian the hour of death What he uncovers in this darkest moment however is not desolation but inexplicable joy I have recounted the death of many saints he writes but all of them have confirmed for me the truth of this ancient Christian intuition in the death of a saint it is death that dies With in depth research and a flair for storytelling Sicari brings before our eyes the gracious last hours of one hundred men and women lovers and martyrs thinkers and workers ancients and moderns old men and teens Included are Kateri Tekakwitha Maximilian Kolbe Mother Teresa Thomas Aquinas Josephine Bakhita J r me Lejeune Clare of Assisi and many more In each a new shade of the divine light shines through Those seeking insight into the mystery of death and suffering will find in this book not only wisdom but rich and realistic consolation Divided into brief readable chapters organized by theme the collection offers at every bend another fine grained snapshot of a Christian fully alive

Person-Centered Politics Eamonn O'Higgins, 2024-04-09 What accounts for the widespread disillusionment with politics Person centered Politics suggests that politics today through its structures processes and institutions tends to presuppose and to impose a certain caricature of the human person that inhibits and frustrates a real sense of personal participation in an authentic common good of politics and society In 12 chapters that touch on fundamental themes of political philosophy Person centered Politics proposes the social and transcendent dimensions of personal existence and their application to the renewal of politics today The themes explore the commonly accepted assumptions of politics today and how a renewed understanding of the person can invigorate political discourse and action In Person centered Politics the author is in continuous dialogue with some of the major contemporary philosophers and thinkers such as Eric Voegelin David Walsh Robert Sokolowski Vaclav Havel Pierre Manent Peter Simpson and Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI Detailed footnotes in each chapter provide reference to further sources of enlightenment and research Person centered Politics proposes an outline for a renewed vision of politics that is centered on the truth of human existence and not a politics that distorts and suffocates the human spirit because in the words of E Voegelin the right order of the soul through philosophy furnishes the standard for the right order of society and not the other way round
