The Familiar and the Unfamiliar in Twentieth-century Architecture Jean La Marche, 2003 Matching the texts the architects wrote with the buildings they were designing contemporaneously he focuses on the language employed in discussing the subject to reveal the author architects distinct voices and points of view BOOK JACKET

Digital Draw Connections Fabio Bianconi, Marco Filippucci, 2021-04-27 This book stems from the seminal work of Robert Venturi and aims at re projecting it in the current cultural debate by extending it to the scale of landscape and placing it in connection with representative issues It brings out the transdisciplinary synthesis of a necessarily interdisciplinary approach to the theme aimed at creating new models which are able to represent the complexity of a contradictory reality and to redefine the centrality of human dimension As such the volume gathers multiple experiences developed in different geographical areas which come into connection with the role of representation Composed of 43 chapters written by 81 authors from around the world with an introduction by Jim Venturi and Cezar Nicolescu the volume is divided into two parts the first one more theoretical and the other one which showcases real world applications although there is never a total split between criticism and operational experimentation of research

A Primer on Theory in Architecture Karen Cordes Spence, 2016-12-01 A Primer on Theory in Architecture discusses how theory is defined in architecture how it is identified its location in larger perspectives or worldviews its relationships to other areas in architecture and how it can be constructed The book explores the definition elements and characteristics of theory along with subjects associated with theory and how these associations are recognized In addition case studies tackle both individual theorists and common approaches to the topic Aimed at the new student of architectural theory if you are just beginning to tackle this subject begin with this book

AA Files, 2007

The Figure of Knowledge Sebastiaan Loosen, Rajesh Heynicks, Hilde Heynen, 2020-10-01 It is a major challenge to write the history of post WWII architectural theory without boiling it down to a few defining paradigms An impressive anthologising effort during the 1990s charted architectural theory mostly via the various theoretical frameworks employed such as critical theory critical regionalism deconstructivism and pragmatism Yet the intellectual contours of what constitutes architectural theory have been constantly in flux It is therefore paramount to ask what kind of knowledge has become important in the recent history of architectural theory and how the resulting figure of knowledge sets the conditions for the actual arguments made The contributions in this volume focus on institutional geographical rhetorical and other conditioning factors They thus screen the unspoken rules of engagement that postwar architectural theory ascribed to Local Architecture Brian Mackay-Lyons, 2014-12-16 In architecture as in food local is an idea whose time has come Of course the idea of an architecture that responds to site draws on local building traditions materials and crafts and strives to create a sense of community is not recent Yet the way it has evolved in the past few years in the hands of some of the world s most accomplished architects is indeed defining a new movement From the rammed earth houses of Rick Joy and Pacific Northwest timber houses of Tom Kundig to the community built structures of Rural Studio and Francis K r designers everywhere are championing an architecture that exists from in and for a specific place The stunning projects presented here in the first book to examine this global shift were featured at the thirteenth and final Ghost conference held in 2011 organized by Nova Scotia architect educator and local practitioner Brian MacKay Lyons The result is the most complete collection of contemporary regionalist architecture available with essays by early proponents of the movement including Kenneth Frampton Juhani Pallasmaa and Pritzker Prize winning architect Glenn Murcutt

Women's Places Brenda Martin, Penny Sparke, 2003-09-02 What was different about the environments that women created as architects designers and clients at a time when they were gaining increasing political and social status in a male world Through a series of case studies Women's Places Architecture and Design 1860-1960 examines in detail the professional and domestic spaces created by women who had money and the opportunity to achieve their ideal Set against a background of accepted notions of modernity relating to design and architecture of the late 19th and early 20th centuries this book provides a fascinating insight into women's social aspirations and identities It offers new information and new interpretations in the study of gender material culture and the built environment in the period 1860-1960 Clip, Stamp, Fold Beatriz Colomina, 2021-04-29 An explosion of little architectural magazines in the 1960s and 1970s instigated a radical transformation in architectural culture as the magazines acted as a site of innovation and debate Clip Stamp Fold takes stock of seventy little magazines from this period The book brings together a remarkable range of documents and original research which the project has produced during its continuous travels over the last four years starting with the exhibition at the Storefront in November 2006 The book features transcripts from the Small Talks events in which editors and designers were invited to discuss their magazines a stocktaking of over 100 significant issues that tracks the changing density and progression of the little magazine phenomenon transcripts of more than forty interviews with magazine editors and designers from all over the world a selection of magazine facsimiles and a fold out poster that offers a mosaic image of more than 1 200 covers examined during the research I Am a Monument Aron Vinegar, 2008 Learning from Las Vegas originally published by the MIT Press in 1972 was one of the most influential and controversial architectural books of its era Thirty five years later it remains a perennial bestseller and a definitive theoretical text Its authors architects Robert Venturi Denise Scott Brown and Steven Izenour famously used the Las Vegas Strip to argue the virtues of the ordinary and ugly above the heroic and original qualities of architectural modernism Learning from Las Vegas not only moved architecture to the center of cultural debates it changed our ideas about what architecture was and could be In this provocative rereading of an iconic text Aron Vinegar argues that Learning from Las Vegas is not only of historical interest but of absolute relevance to current critical debates in architectural and visual culture Vinegar argues that to read Learning from Las Vegas only as an exemplary postmodernist text to understand it for example as a call for pastiche or as ironic provocation is to underestimate its deeper critical and ethical meaning and to miss the underlying dialectic between skepticism and the ordinary expression and the deadpan that runs through the text Vinegar's close attention to the graphic design of Learning from Las Vegas and his fresh interpretations of now canonical images from the book such as the Duck the Decorated Shed and the recommendation for a monument make his book unique Perhaps most revealing is his close analysis of the differences between the first 1972 edition designed for the MIT Press by Muriel Cooper and the revised edition of 1977 which was radically stripped down and largely redesigned by Denise Scott Brown The dialogue between the two editions continues with this book where for the first time the two versions of Learning from Las Vegas are read comparatively Publisher's website Dictionary Catalog of the Art and Architecture Division New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1975 Political Postmodernisms Lidia Klein, 2023-03-31 Political Postmodernisms shows how sites outside of Western Europe and North America undermine an established narrative of architecture theory and history It focuses specifically on postmodern architecture which is traditionally understood as embodying the flippant and apolitical aesthetics of capitalist affluence By investigating postmodern architecture's manifestations in the unlikely settings of Chile during the neoliberal dictatorship of Augusto Pinochet and Poland during the late socialist Polish People's Republic the book argues for a new account that incorporates the political roles it plays when seen in a global perspective Political Postmodernisms has three goals First it challenges the familiar narrative regarding postmodern architecture as following the cultural logic of late capitalism Fredric Jameson or as a socially conservative project Jürgen Habermas Second it fills in portions of Chilean and Polish architectural history that have been neglected by Chilean and Polish architectural historians themselves Third Political Postmodernisms shows how architecture can work as a political form serving propagandistic purposes and functioning as part of oppositional projects The book is projected to be of use to students and scholars in global modern and contemporary architecture history history of urban planning East European Studies and Latin American Studies Heterotopia and Heritage Preservation Smaranda Spanu, 2019-05-02 This book approaches the field of built heritage and its practices by employing the concept of heterotopia established by the French philosopher Michel Foucault The fundamental understandings of heritage its evolution and practices all reveal intrinsic heterotopic features the mirror function its utopic drive and its enclave like nature The book draws on previous interpretations of heterotopia and argues for a reading of heritage as heterotopia considering various heritage mechanisms heritage selection conservation and protection practices and heritage as mnemonic device in this regard Reworking the six heterotopic principles an analysis grid is designed and applied to various built heritage spaces vernacular religious architecture urban 19th century ensembles Guided through this theoretical itinerary the reader will rediscover the heterotopic lens as a minor yet promising Foucauldian device that allows for a better understanding of heritage and its everyday practices Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries Landscape Architecture ,1978 Architecture and the Public World Kenneth Frampton,2024-01-25 This book brings together Kenneth Frampton s essays from the 1960s to today which epitomize his reflections on the historical theoretical entanglements of architecture with place the public realm cultural identity urban landscape and environment and the political question of the predicament of architecture in the new Millennium The essays explore Frampton s contention that architecture s imperative is to assume a significant responsibility for the edification and stewardship of the Arendtian public world One of the most theoretically sophisticated and politically committed architectural thinkers Frampton s work breaks emphatically with the limits and norms of much contemporary practice and restores a sense of richness and social consequence of architecture s unfinished project while offering abiding lessons not only for architecture but for social cultural and design criticism alike
