

Ch. 5 Civil

Define the concept of civil rights.

- Civil rights are guaranteed by the government that it will treat everyone equally. These rights are for the people who before were not treated equally because of the group or groups they are identified with.

Describe the standards that courts use when deciding whether a discriminatory law or regulation is unconstitutional.

- The courts use rational basis test which is when they can prove that is a good law set in place for a reason. The person who is going against the law has to prove why it shouldn't be in place.

Identify three core questions for recognizing a civil rights problem.

- What groups are being threatened?
- What right is being threatened to this group?
- What can we do for this situation?

Identify key events in the history of African American civil rights.

- The Brown v. Board of Education in 1954
- Little Rock Nine
- The Voting Rights Act
- People of color are still fighting for their civil rights even after all they have been through.

Explain how the courts, Congress, and the executive branch supported the civil rights movement.

- They used civil disobedience and direct action to support these groups in the civil rights movement.

Describe the role of grassroots efforts in the civil rights movement.

- Grassroots had made three organizations which are The Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Congress of Racial Equality, and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. They preferred a more confrontational approach.

Describe early efforts to achieve rights for women.

- Women were not allowed to do basically anything, it was very hard for them if they were to want to get a divorce their husband. There then became many groups of women trying to get their rights, like the right to vote, and they would protest in front of the white house. In 1920 they had finally been given the Nineteenth Amendment which is the right to women voting.

Explain why the Equal Rights Amendment failed to be ratified.

- The Equal Rights Amendment was failed to be ratified because it did not receive support from the 38 states. It was very weakly supported as the deadline was coming up which is why they extended it.

Describe the ways in which women acquired greater rights in the twentieth century.

- They protested hard for their rights and gained the ones that they had always deserved to have.

Analyze why women continue to experience unequal treatment.

- Women continue to experience unfair treatment by the way their wages are at work. Women are always paid less than men in the work place even when their job requires a lot more experience and harder work.
