Class Collision Annette Mackey, 2010-08 What if you didn't know your boyfriend was worth millions Born into wealth and privilege David spends his days rattling the servants and torturing the maid until he is kidnapped for ransom and left for dead Grueling years follow until he meets Linda She's sassy pigheaded beautiful and way more than he can possibly handle Hate love and passion combine as he tries to win her heart She sees him as a drifter Little does she know he's a prince in disguise Set during the Great Depression Class Collision will transport you to a simpler time filled with heartache and unexpected love The Railwayman, 1928 The Harbinger, 1845 The Harbinger, 1966 Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1946 Historicizing the French Revolution Antonino De Francesco, 2022-03-24 This book provides a critical examination of over 300 historical works about the French Revolution published in Europe in particular in France Great Britain Germany Italy and Russia as well as in the United States between 1789 and 1989 It also goes on to examine recent trends in French Revolution historiography and consider where histories of this landmark event may go in the future By emphasizing the elements which have been valued or hidden exalted or silenced Historicizing the French Revolution shows how reflections on 1789 are always fundamentally tied to the times in which they are formulated Antonino De Francesco looks at the ways in which these historical accounts can be seen to support and at times contrast with the formation of political modernity both in national and international contexts as it has taken shape in the hundreds of years that have followed this key moment in world history The Motion Picture Guide, 1993 Narratives of Migration and Displacement in Dominican Literature Danny Méndez, 2012-03-12 Establishing an interdisciplinary connection between Migration Studies Post Colonial Studies and Affect Theory Méndez analyzes the symbolic interplay between emotions cognitions and displacement in the narratives written by and about Dominican and Dominican Americans in the United States and Puerto Rico He argues that given the historic place of creolization as a marker of national cultural and social development in the Caribbean and particularly the Dominican Republic this cultural process is not magically annulled in Caribbean immigrations to the U S Instead this book illustrates the numerous ways in which Dominicans subjective interpretation of their experiences of migration and incorporation into U S society seen through the filter of multiple creolizations of the past are woven into their written works as a series of variations on Americanness and Dominicaness Through close readings of selected writings by Pedro Henríquez Ureña José Luis González Junot Díaz Josefina Béez Loida Maritza Pérez among others Méndez argues that emotional creolizations operate as a psychological parameter on immigrant populations as they negotiate their transcultural status against the ideological norms of assimilation in their new host country Consequently he proposes that this emotional creolization is dialectical that is it not only affects diasporic populations but also changes the norms and terms of assimilation as well Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States.
