Coming Into Contact Annie Merrill Ingram, 2007 A snapshot of ecocriticism in action Coming into Contact collects sixteen previously unpublished essays that explore some of the most promising new directions in the study of literature and the environment They look to previously unexamined or underexamined aspects of literature s relationship to the environment including swamps internment camps Asian American environments the urbanized Northeast and lynching sites The authors relate environmental discourse to practice including the teaching of green design in composition classes the restoration of damaged landscapes the persuasive strategies of environmental activists the practice of urban architecture and the impact of human technologies on nature The essays also put ecocriticism into greater contact with the natural sciences including elements of evolutionary biology biological taxonomy and geology Engaging both ecocritical theory and practice these authors more closely align ecocriticism with the physical environment with the wide range of texts and cultural practices that concern it and with the growing scholarly conversation that surrounds this concern Coming Into Contact Ann A. Merrill, Ian Marshall, Daniel J. Philippon, Adam W. Sweeting, 2010-01-25 A snapshot of ecocriticism in action Coming into Contact collects sixteen previously unpublished essays that explore some of the most promising new directions in the study of literature and the environment They look to previously unexamined or underexamined aspects of literature s relationship to the environment including swamps internment camps Asian American environments the urbanized Northeast and lynching sites The authors relate environmental discourse to practice including the teaching of green design in composition classes the restoration of damaged landscapes the persuasive strategies of environmental activists the practice of urban architecture and the impact of human technologies on nature The essays also put ecocriticism into greater contact with the natural sciences including elements of evolutionary biology biological taxonomy and geology Engaging both ecocritical theory and practice these authors more closely align ecocriticism with the physical environment with the wide range of texts and cultural practices that concern it and with the growing scholarly conversation that surrounds this concern Classic Haiku , 2011-12-27 Sparrows Playing hide and seek Among the tea blossoms Kobayashi Issa Haiku the traditional Japanese verse form composed of seventeen syllables can express a dramatic scene or philosophical idea in a single line of verse In this collection haiku poet Yuzuru Miura has selected and translated poems by past masters such as Basho and Buson as well as haiku by contemporary poets Fireflies pheasants a summer shower winter snow camellias all the favorite haiku subjects are included among the one hundred poems of this impressive anthology Classic Haiku evokes the peace and serenity of the Japanese way of life Harp of Burma Michio Takeyama, 2011-12-20 Harp of Burma is Japan s classic novel of pathos and compassion in the midst of senseless warfare Winner of the prestigious Mainichi Shuppan Bunkasho prize and the basis for the critically acclaimed film The Burmese Harp by Ichikawa Kon Harp of Burma shares a powerful human story about Japanese soldiers on the front lines in WWII Losing a desperate battle against British forces in the tropical jungles of Burma

the young soldiers discover that the trials of war involve more than just opposing the enemy Distressed and disoriented by the alien climate and terrain strange behavior of foreigners and the emotions stirred by the senselessness of war their commander's ability to lead them in song helps them discover music's power to make even the most severe situations more tolerable Even though they face the inevitability of defeat singing the songs of their homeland revives their will to live Through the story of these men and of the music that saw them through the war Takeyama presents thought provoking questions about political hostilities and the men who unleash them Harp of Burma is Japan's classic novel of pathos and compassion in the midst of senseless warfare
