Class Self Culture Transformations:

Class, Self, Culture Beverley Skeggs, 2004 Class Self Culture puts class back on the map in a novel way by taking a new look at how class is made and given value through culture. It shows how different classes become attributed with value enabling culture to be deployed as a resource and as a form of property which has both use value to the person and exchange value in systems of symbolic and economic exchange. The book shows how class has not disappeared but is known and spoken in a myriad of different ways always working through other categorisations of nation race gender and sexuality and across different sites through popular culture political rhetoric and academic theory. In particular attention is given to how new forms of personhood are being generated through mechanisms of giving value to culture and how what we come to know and assume to be a self is always a classed formation. Analysing four processes of inscription institutionalisation perspective taking and exchange relationships it challenges recent debates on reflexivity risk rational action theory individualisation and mobility by showing how these are all reliant on fixing some people in place so that others can move.

TV Transformations Tania Lewis, 2013-09-13 The past decade has seen an explosion of lifestyle makeover TV shows. Audiences around the world are being urged to renovate everything from their homes to their pets and children while lifestyle experts on TV now tell us what not to eat and what not to wear. Makeover television and makeover culture is now ubiquitous and yet compared with reality TV shows like Big Brother and Survivor there has been relatively little critical attention paid to this format. This exciting collection of essays written by leading media scholars from the UK US and Australia aims to reveal the reasons for the huge popularity and influence of the makeover show. Written in a lively and accessible manner the essays brought together here will help readers make sense of makeover TV by offering a range of different approaches to understanding the emergence of this popular cultural phenomenon. Looking at a range of shows from The Biggest Loser to Trinny and Susannah Undress essays include an analysis of how and why makeover TV shows have migrated across such a range of TV cultures the social significance of the rise of home renovation shows the different ways in which British versus American audiences identify with makeover shows and the growing role of lifestyle TV in the context of neo liberalism in educating us to be good citizens This book was published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media and Cultural Studies The Struggle over Class G. Anthony Keddie, Michael Flexsenhar III, Steven J. Friesen, 2021-10-08 An interdisciplinary discussion engaging classics archaeology religious studies and the social sciences The Struggle over Class brings together scholars from the fields of New Testament and early Christianity to examine Christian texts in light of the category of class Historically rigorous and theoretically sophisticated this collection presents a range of approaches to and applications of class in the study of the epistles the gospels Acts apocalyptic texts and patristic literature Contributors Alicia J Batten Alan H Cadwallader Cavan W Concannon Zeba Crook James Crossley Lorenzo DiTommaso Philip F Esler Michael Flexsenhar III Steven J Friesen Caroline Johnson Hodge G Anthony Keddie Jaclyn Maxwell Christina Petterson Jennifer Quigley Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza Danielle Sloodjes and Emma Wasserman challenge both scholars and students to articulate their own positions in the ongoing scholarly struggle over class as an analytical category Picturesque Literature and the Transformation of the American Landscape, 1835-1874 John Evelev, 2021-05-04 Picturesque Literature and the Transformation of the American Landscape 1835 1874 recovers the central role that the picturesque a popular mode of scenery appreciation that advocated for an improved and manipulated natural landscape played in the social spatial and literary history of mid nineteenth century America It argues that the picturesque was not simply a landscape aesthetic but also a discipline of seeing and imaginatively shaping the natural that was widely embraced by bourgeois Americans to transform the national landscape in their own image Through the picturesque mid century bourgeois Americans remade rural spaces into tourist scenery celebrated the city streets as spaces of cultural diversity created new urban public parks and made suburban domesticity a national ideal This picturesque transformation was promoted in a variety of popular literary genres all focused on landscape description and all of which trained readers into the protocols of picturesque visual discipline as social reform Many of these genres have since been dubbed minor or have been forgotten by our literary history but the ranks of the writers of this picturesque literature include everyone from the most canonical Hawthorne Melville Thoreau Emerson and Poe to major authors of the period now less familiar such as Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Lydia Maria Child Nathaniel Parker Willis and Margaret Fuller to those now completely forgotten Individual chapters of the book link picturesque literary genres to the spaces that the genres helped to transform and in the process create what is recognizably our modern American landscape
