Challenges Facing Higher Education At The Millennium Issues In Higher Education:

Challenges Facing Higher Education at the Millennium Werner Z. Hirsch, Luc Weber, 1999-08-05 In May 1998 the participants in the Glion Colloquium gathered in Switzerland to identify the major problems currently facing higher education in the United States and Western Europe and to propose effective means for meeting those challenges Challenges Facing Higher Education at the Millennium is a collection of papers written by the participants of this colloquium Higher Education in Transition Brian L. Fife, Joseph Losco, 1999-12-30 This book explores the state of higher education at century's end and the challenges awaiting it in the next millennium It assesses changes in the student population the role of faculty spending patterns government support the role of intercollegiate athletics the nature of presidential leadership and the impact of technological change This volume is a call to educators parents and taxpayers alike to enter into a dialogue about the future directions of higher education that they are willing to support Because in the last few decades higher education has attempted to extend both its reach and scope despite the finite nature of resources at its disposal the new millennium will mark a time when colleges and universities must clearly delimit and prioritize their goals This volume is a call to educators parents and taxpayers alike to enter into a dialogue about the future directions of higher education that they are willing to support The role of higher education in a high tech interdependent world economy has never been more important than it is today Yet never before has its future been so cloudy Changes in the nature of the student population tuition increases that consistently outpace the cost of living increasing conflict between faculty and administration personnel attacks on tenure the professionalization of collegiate sports and political attacks and threats to state funding are all transforming an institution in ways that are as yet uncertain at best This volume reviews the source and impact of change on today's colleges and universities Leading scholars contribute chapters on specific aspects of collegiate life and the way internal and external forces are changing the scope and function of higher education Challenges Facing Higher Education at the Millennium Werner Zvi Hirsch, 2008 Major Challenges Facing Higher Education in the Arab World: Quality Assurance and Relevance Adnan Badran, Elias Baydoun, John R. Hillman, 2019-03-25 This book focuses on two crucial issues that need to be addressed as a matter of urgency by universities in the Arab region namely a conducting independent assessments of the quality of their teaching research administration governance and planning and b determining the relevance of their teaching research and societal impacts Although well established around the world in manufacturing industries and private sector service industries including the research and commercialisation arms of the major universities and research institutes it is only in recent years that quality assurance QA assessments have started to be applied to most aspects education Several Arab universities are adopting various forms of QA but some variants are little more than bureaucratic box ticking exercises with minimal commitment by staff to the ultimate aim of continuing self improvement This book will be of interest to senior management at faculty and departmental level and above in all Arab universities specifically and more generally in Islamic institutions of higher education Senior management in other universities especially in the developing world will benefit from its analyses and recommendations

Developments in Higher Education: National Strategies and Global

Perspectives (Penerbit USM) Shukran Abd. Rahman, 2013 Developments in Higher Education National Strategies and Global Perspectives brings together a collection of meticulously researched articles providing insights into the changing nature of higher education through internationalisation and its consequent impact on the futures of higher education These articles are intended for academics policymakers and researchers in higher education to enhance their understanding leading ultimately to sustainable human capital development The book seeks to present a comprehensive discussion on internationalisation as a variable in higher education and hence derive alternative futures of higher education systems It also suggests a different perspective regarding the appraisal of higher learning institutions and the subsequent influence on policy recommendations Many of these important aspects are gathered together under topics such as Internationalising Higher Education A Malaysian Perspective Rankings and Policy Contradictions Is It Time to Move Beyond Rankings and Campuses 2060 Four Futures of Higher Education in Four Alternative Futures of Society This book is recommended to anyone seeking to further enhance their knowledge in higher education especially in regards to policymaking

The European Research University Guy Neave, 2018-01-08 In a modern Europe even with 900 years of history and learning behind it the European Research University faces major challenges on multiple fronts This book maps out both the present and the long term issues that the European Research University must now tackle

Higher Education and Lifelong Learning Hans Schuetze, Maria Slowey, 2013-01-11 Responding to the emerging needs of lifelong learners arguably represents one of the most fundamental challenges facing higher education systems of the countries of the developing world At the start of the new century the concept of Lifelong Learning may indeed be counted as one of the the key organising concepts underlying public policy in many countries The interpretation of the concept however remains highly contested This timely book throws new light on the dramatic changes taking place in higher education through an exploration of the participation of non traditional students in ten countries Among others the following areas are explored the complex reality behind the statistics on participation in higher education in five European countries Austria Germany Ireland Sweden and the United Kingdom North America Japan Australia and New Zealand contrasting perceptions of lifelong learning changing patterns of participation by adults in higher education national and institutional policies and innovations to accommodate non traditional students and new forms of study conclusions for policy practice and research Higher Education for Lifelong Learners will be of interest to academics researchers and students involved with higher education lifelong learning and comparative education as well as policy makers educational managers and administrators The contributions reveal a remarkable transformation in the student body and in the way learners pursue their studies highlighting the international impact of increasing marketisation and differentiation on the nature of the higher education accessible to potential lifelong learners      Universities As If Students Mattered John Scanzoni,2005-06-16 Universities As If Students Mattered is centered around the goal of coaching college students to become active self directed learners whose obligation to serve society is integral to their active learning At the same time the innovations in this book would focus the attention energy and considerable talents of professors graduate students and post docs on some potential ways and means of addressing urgent social issues contributing to a more thorough and comprehensive understanding of the social world      Private Higher Education in Post-Communist Europe S. Slantcheva,D. Levy,2007-04-16 An exploration of international privatization of higher education in post communist Europe from two top scholars in the field Levy and Slantcheva trace the ramifications of globalization in Central and Eastern Europe as well as in the former Soviet republics      Higher Education, Research, and Knowledge in the Asia-Pacific Region V.
