Rumours of Our Being Udayan M Kishore, 2023-12-11 JAY 23 DESPERATELY WANTS TO TALK TO SOMEONE BECAUSE HE IS ABOUT TO COMMIT SUICIDE BUT ALL HE CAN GET ON THE PHONE IS A CALL GIRL When I imagined the crowd I wondered how insignificant I was Not just among all those people in the metro but in the entire city and then on this entire earth And then I imagined myself in the entire universe I realised I was just a grain of sand on earth Or even that is an overstatement That was depressing Really depressing Then I thought about me not me in the world but just me I tried to feel and realise every part of my body I'd move a finger or a toe and then stop it I would stop breathing and then resume I touched my nose and felt its shape I opened my eyes and immediately closed them I tried to feel my heartbeat I was trying to feel how much control I had over my body From there I started thinking about me the one who was ordering the fingers toes hands or feet to move or stop The one trying to feel the heartbeat Whatever you call that a soul or consciousness or whatever the hell that was me That and only that was me Water-resources Investigations Report Donna Belval Ebner, J. 2008 identifies the operational and tactical capabilities displayed by the terrorists and evaluates the response of the Indian security forces with the goal of helping counterterrorism authorities in India and elsewhere to prepare for or counter future terrorist attacks on urban centers Policy Choices in Internal Conflicts V R Raghavan, 2013-06-01 In the course of the research project Internal Conflicts and Transnational Consequences the CSA has published eleven volumes These books cover three internal conflicts in India and those in Nepal Myanmar and Sri Lanka Each of the conflict was studied in detail with the help of experts from different disciplines and different countries This is the final volume of the Project which consolidates the studies done earlier aims at crystallising some useful lessons for the countries studied and also others who continue to have long running internal conflicts The constraints in trying to resolve the conflicts by the states and addressing the nuances of the consequences are quite complex This volume attempts to analyse these issues and helps in identifying positive and negative outcomes of the way different governing systems have addressed the conflicts The study highlights the importance of not only understanding the major internal conflicts but also anticipating and identifying the problems and difficulties that arise from the consequences and throws up useful policy pointers Maritime Counter-terrorism Swati Parashar, 2008 Even Before The 9 11 Terrorist Strikes In The Usa Intelligence And Counter Terrorism Agencies Of The World Had Been Concerned Over The Likelihood Of Acts Of Maritime Terrorism Directed At International Trade And Particularly Energy Supplies Instances Of Sea Piracy In The Malacca Straits And Arabian Sea In The Recent Past Have Added To The International Community S Concern Over Maritime Security And Have Posed A New Challenge To Security Agencies Across The World This Concern And The Quest For New And Effective Approaches To Intelligence Gathering And Security Policies Have Led To A Lot Of Debate Research And Conferences Maritime Counter-Terrorism: A Pan-Asian Perspective Parashar, Swati (ed), 2007 The quest for new approaches to intelligence gathering and security policies regarding acts of maritime terrorism have led to a lot of debate and research and Maritime Counter Terrorism A Pan Asian Perspective is the first book on this theme It is an edited compilation of papers presented at a two day workshop on maritime counter terrorism organised by the Observer Research Foundation and has contributions from leading experts from the Asia Pacific South Asia and Southeast Asia Crime-Terror Nexus in South Asia Ryan Clarke, 2011-04-12 This book examines the crime terror nexus in South Asia focusing in particular on the activities of non state actors that operate out of Pakistan and challenges the conventional wisdom that the Pakistan Taleban TTP and Al Qaeda are Pakistan s most serious security threats Much research has focused on the policies of India and Pakistan towards Kashmir But surprisingly little attention has been paid to several notable Pakistan based non state actors who are increasingly operating on their own and who have the potential to greatly inhibit if not derail the peace process there These groups blur the line between terrorism and organized crime with serious implications for policy in the region India and Pakistan can engage in confidence building measures but if criminal actors such as Lashkar i Taiba LeT and D Company cannot effectively be controlled a lack of trust between both sides will remain

Although the role of regular military forces is not to be discounted many of the non state actors in Indian Held Kashmir such as LeT are not confined by the same restraints as state forces thus allowing them engage in more violent actions without fear of reprisal In order for lawmakers security personnel and others to develop sound comprehensive policies these forces and their potential to undermine political initiatives must be fully appreciated This book explores the dynamics of the relationship between Pakistan D Company and LeT and how it affects strategic thought decision making and security interests in the region and explains the triangular relationships between states terrorist groups and organized criminal syndicates in general and in India and Pakistan in particular This book will of much interest to students of South Asian politics terrorism organised crime war and conflict studies and Security Studies in general United States, 2000 ,2002 Magnitude and Frequency of Floods in Alaska and Conterminous Basins of Canada Stanley H.
