Resurrecting the Past Sarah Griswold, 2025-09-15 In Resurrecting the Past Sarah Griswold shows how the Levant became a crucial front in a post 1918 fight over the French past a contingent and contradictory but always hard charging struggle over a forgotten heritage mandate Many scholars clergy pundits politicians and investors perceived the moment Allied forces entered Jerusalem in December 1917 to be a once in a lifetime opportunity to expand French influence evoking the vision of a new colony in the territory a French Levant But what transpired for the French state in the Levant after World War I and why does that ill conceived venture still matter today Resurrecting the Past investigates how heritage politics led to a new form of empire a French mandate for Syria and Lebanon and with it a tide of regional and international critique Against such opposition the heritage mandate leaned heavily on spectacle and science generating a sprawling set of sites and objects Ottoman mansions crusader castles Umayyad mosques Roman arches buried synagogues and Sumerian ziggurats As Griswold traces how French heritage efforts cycled through multiple ideal pasts in the Levant from 1918 to 1946 she reveals how each one though grounded in realities also complicated those constructs and the work of French heritage makers Resurrecting the Past offers a parable of how efforts in heritage politics aimed to construct a union of ideologies and objects deemed the best past for France s uncertain future but struggled as much as they succeeded Eventually those same heritage politics ironically helped officials justify the end of the French Levant

English Speech from an Historical Point of View N. Bøgholm, 2025-03-03 First published in 1939 English Speech from an Historical Point of View presents the history of the English language under three major components Old English Middle English and Modern English Each of these divisions with the partial exception of Modern English treats English with regard to phonology morphology and syntax The author argues that it has not always been found practical to stick exclusively to the 3 periods in dealing with some phenomenon which may have had its full development within one particular period while it had its origin or faded away in another Particular regard has been had to Shakespearean English Otherwise a selection has been made of Middle English and Old English texts which are most representative This is an important historical work for students of English language

Rzóska,2012-12-06 Scope and limitations of this book I am trying here to present the natural history of a land largely created and dominated by two great rivers the Euphrates and Tigris All rivers have two main functions quite different from lakes they transport water and eroded material sometimes over large distances The astute Greeks who penetrated here in the 4th century B C called the land Mesopotamia an apt name it is the only region in the Near East except Egypt having the benefit of large rivers Another name coined in antiquity was Fertile Crescent stretching from Egypt to present day Iraq Herodotus marvelled at the fertility of the soils the abundance of water and the magnificent cities of Mesopotamia Thus a further role of some great rivers is recognized as foci of human development The desire to collate this book arose from a similar motif as in the Nile book 1976 the intricate connection between man and rivers A Future for Archaeology Robert Layton,Stephen Shennan,Peter Stone,2016-09-16 Over the last thirty years issues of culture identity and meaning have moved out of the academic sphere to become central to politics and society at all levels from the local to the global Archaeology has been at the forefront of these moves towards a greater engagement with the non academic world often in an extremely practical and direct way for example in the disputes about the repatriation of human burials Such disputes have been central to the recognition that previously marginalized groups have rights in their own past that are important for their future The essays in this book look back at some of the most important events where a role for an archaeology concerned with the past in the present first emerged and look forward to the practical and theoretical issues now central to a socially engaged discipline and shaping its future This book is published in honor of Professor Peter Ucko who has played an unparalleled role in promoting awareness of the core issues in this volume among archaeologists Prisoners of War News ,1943 Long Drawn Out Trip Gerald Scarfe,2019-09-26 In Long Drawn Out Trip My Life Gerald Scarfe tells his life story for the first time With captivating often thrilling stories he takes us from his childhood and early days at Punch and Private Eye through his long and occasionally tumultuous career as the Sunday Times cartoonist to his film making at the BBC and much loved designs for Pink Floyd s The Wall and Disney s Hercules Along the way he has drawn Churchill from life gone on tour with The Beatles and thoroughly upset Mrs Mary Whitehouse It is a very personal wickedly funny and caustically insightful account of an artist s life at the forefront of contemporary culture and society Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,1960-08 The most trustworthy source of information
