Central Africa the great majority of indigenous Batwa and Baka have not had access even to primary education In South Asia Dalit girls are prevented from pursuing their education not just because of poverty but through discrimination and sexual violence In many countries in Europe Roma children continue to be placed in segregated classes or in special schools for those with learning disabilities just because of their ethnicity In Latin America millions of indigenous and African descendant children instead of being in school work in fields and plantations in the mines or at home In a unique collaboration with UNICEF Minority Rights Group International reports on what minority and indigenous children around the world face in their struggle to learn State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2009 profiles the programmes that are being developed to help them from better bilingual education to meeting the needs of nomadic populations giving examples of what works and why It describes efforts to overcome exclusion so that education is available accessible acceptable and adaptable for minorities and indigenous peoples and shows how far there is still to go It includes An analysis of available statistics that show that minorities and indigenous peoples are the most likely to suffer discrimination and exclusion in education worldwide First hand accounts of the difficulties and challenges facing minority and indigenous children in every major world region Coverage of the key issues for promoting the right to education including overcoming the double discrimination faced by minority and indigenous girls the need to collect data by ethnicity and the importance of bilingual or plurilingual education A unique statistical analysis and ranking of Peoples under Threat 2009 State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples is an invaluable reference for policy makers academics journalists and everyone who is interested in the conditions facing minorities and indigenous peoples around the world     Forbidden Friends Anne-Marie

Conway,2013-05-01 When Lizzie and Bee meet on holiday it feels as if they were always meant to be friends Escaping their parents and exploring everything seems perfect in the hot summer sun As the two girls grow closer strange questions rise to the surface Is Lizzie an only child Why has Bee's dad disappeared And why as the holiday comes to an end are the two girls forbidden from seeing each other again Could one dark secret from the past hold the answer Could one fateful night keep Lizzie and Bee apart for ever From the author of Butterfly Summer comes the unforgettable story of a new friendship a terrible tragedy and long buried lie     A Surgeon in the Village Tony Bartelme,2017-03-28 A lyrical inspirational story of doctors who changed the health care of an African nation Tom Brokaw author of The Greatest Generation Dr Dilan Ellegala arrives in Tanzania shocked to find the entire country has just three brain surgeons for its population of forty two million Haydom Lutheran Hospital lacks even the most basic surgical tools not even a saw to open a patient's skull Here people with head injuries or brain tumors heal on their own or die When confronted with a villager suffering from a severe head trauma Dilan buys a tree saw from a farmer sterilizes it and then uses it to save the man's life Yet Dilan realizes that there are far too many neurosurgery patients for one person to save and of course he will soon be leaving Tanzania He needs to teach someone his skills He identifies a potential student in Emmanuel Mayegga a stubborn assistant medical officer who grew up in a mud hut Though Mayegga has no medical degree Dilan sees that Mayegga has the dexterity intelligence and determination to do brain surgery Over six months he teaches Mayegga how to remove tumors and treat hydrocephalus And then perhaps more important Dilan teaches Mayegga how to pass on his newfound skills Mayegga teaches a second Tanzanian who teaches a third It s a case of teach a man to fish meets brain surgery As he guides these Tanzanians to do things they never thought possible Dilan challenges the Western medical establishment to do more than send vacationing doctors on short term medical missions He discovers solutions that could transform health care for two billion people across the world A Surgeon in the Village is the incredible and riveting account of one man s push to train forward to change our approach to aid and medical training before more lives are needlessly lost His story is a testament to the transformational power of teaching and the ever present potential for change As many as seventeen million people die every year because of a shortage of surgeons more than die from AIDS malaria and tuberculosis combined Dilan Ellegala and other visionaries are boldly proposing ways of saving lives
