Differentiating Instruction Collaborative Planning And Teaching For Universally Designed Learning:

Differentiating Instruction Jacqueline S. Thousand, Richard A. Villa, Ann I. Nevin, 2007-03-21 In Differentiating Instruction Jacqueline S. Thousand, Richard A. Villa, and Ann I. Nevin demonstrate how to use co planning, co teaching, and collaboration to differentiate instruction more effectively. This new resource, which follows the authors' bestseller A Guide to Co Teaching, showcases examples of good practice using differentiated instruction through retrofit and universal design.

Differentiating Instruction Jacqueline S. Thousand, Richard A. Villa, Ann I. Nevin, 2014-11-14 The ultimate guide to leaving no child behind, newly updated. Now in its second edition, this best-selling book is your one-stop resource for differentiated instruction. Whether you're new to the concept or just looking to improve your approach, you'll find tools to meet the needs of all your students in a way that works for you. You'll discover how innovative approaches such as Universal Design for Learning (UDL) and retrofitting can help you adapt general education curriculum to fit diverse learning styles. Featuring case studies at the elementary, middle, and high school levels, this new edition offers more easy-to-use strategies to differentiate instruction in mixed-ability classrooms. A new chapter on collaborative planning and evaluation, plus a discussion of co-teaching and differentiation. Updated lesson plans tied to the Common Core. A greater emphasis on cultural proficiency, ELLs, and gifted students. New technology references and resources. A strengthened link to RTI. Every student is different, and every classroom is different too. With multiple options to differentiate instruction at any point along the way, this essential guide will help you create the path to success for every student. Thousand, Villa, and Nevin take three very big ideas in education: Universal Design, Collaboration, and Differentiated Instruction, and combine them in a novel and engaging way. And they practice what they preach: the information and examples speak to someone just beginning to differentiate instruction as well as the expert who wants to further refine his or her craft. Douglas Fisher, Professor, San Diego State University. The extensive emphasis on technology, case studies, and lesson plans throughout the book provide a rich resource to the readers of this exciting text. Administrators, university instructors, and staff developers will find this a valuable tool to support their students and colleagues on their differentiation journey. Mary Falvey, Retired Dean and Professor Emerita, California State University, Los Angeles.
