Digital Storytelling Mediatized Stories Self Representations In New Media Digital Formations:

Digital Storytelling, Mediatized Stories Knut Lundby, 2008 Recent years have seen amateur personal stories focusing on me flourish on social networking sites and in digital storytelling workshops The resulting digital stories could be called mediatized stories This book deals with these self representational stories aiming to understand the transformations in the age old practice of storytelling that have become possible with the new digital media Its approach is interdisciplinary exploring how the mediation or mediatization processes of digital storytelling can be grasped and offering a sociological perspective of media studies and a socio cultural take of the educational sciences Aesthetic and literary perspectives on narration as well as questioning from an informatics perspective are also included Media, Organizations and Identity Lilie Chouliaraki, 2009-12-09 The mass media press and television have always been central in the formation of corporate identity and the promotion of business image and reputation This volume provides a new perspective into the interrelationships between media and organizations across three dimensions Media as Business Media in business and Business in the media Mediatized Worlds A. Hepp, F. Krotz, 2014-03-06 How does the media influence our everyday lives In which ways do our social worlds change when they interact with media And what are the consequences for theorizing media and communication Starting with questions like these Mediatized Worlds discusses the transformation of our lives by their increasing mediatization The chapters cover topics such as rethinking mediatization mediatized communities the mediatization of private lives and of organizational contexts and the future perspective for mediatization research The empirical studies offer new access to questions of mediatization an access that grounds mediatization in life world and social world perspectives Critical Perspectives on Technology and Education Scott Bulfin, Nicola F. Johnson, Chris Bigum, 2015-02-11 This book offers critical readings of issues in education and technology and demonstrates how researchers can use critical perspectives from sociology digital media cultural studies and other fields to broaden the ed tech research imagination open up new topics ask new questions develop theory and articulate an agenda for informed action Migrant Feelings, Migrant Knowledge Robert Irwin, 2022-11-08 The digital storytelling project Humanizing Deportation invites migrants to present their own stories in the world s largest and most diverse archive of its kind Since 2017 more than 300 community storytellers have created their own audiovisual testimonial narratives sharing their personal experiences of migration and repatriation With Migrant Feelings Migrant Knowledge the project s coordinator Robert Irwin and other team members introduce the project s innovative participatory methodology drawing out key issues regarding the human consequences of contemporary migration control regimes as well as insights from migrants whose world making endeavors may challenge what we think we know about migration In recent decades migrants in North America have been treated with unprecedented harshness Migrant Feelings Migrant Knowledge outlines this recent history revealing stories both of grave injustice and of seemingly unsurmountable obstacles overcome As Irwin writes The greatest source of expertise on the human consequences of contemporary migration control are the migrants who have experienced them and their voices in this searing collection jump off the page and into our hearts and minds Cybersounds Michael D. Ayers, 2006 Textbook

Digital Religion, Social Media, and Culture Pauline Hope Cheong, 2012 This anthology the first of its kind in eight years collects some of the best and most current research and reflection on the complex interactions between religion and computer mediated communication CMC The contributions cohere around the central question how will core religious understandings of identity community and authority shape and be re shaped by the communicative possibilities of Web 2 0 The authors gathered here address these questions in three distinct ways through contemporary empirical research on how diverse traditions across the globe seek to take up the technologies and affordances of contemporary CMC through investigations that place these contemporary developments in larger historical and theological contexts and through careful reflection on the theoretical dimensions of research on religion and CMC In their introductory and concluding essays the editors uncover and articulate the larger intersections and patterns suggested by individual chapters including trajectories for future research The Future of Literacy Studies M. Baynham, M. Prinsloo, 2015-12-29 This book brings together
