Goodbye Tarzan (RLE Feminist Theory) Helen Franks,2012-11-12 What do men feel about the women s movement How has it changed them if at all To try and answer these questions Helen Franks talked to many men and drew upon research in Britain the US and Australia She interviewed men from all social groups business executives writers factory workers shopkeepers and all ages from fifteen to fifty nine They included divorced men husbands gay men and some who had swapped roles with the women in their lives She found some surprising results All men whatever their attitude to women seem to be affected not to say threatened by feminism In these pages she documents the thoughts often confused of very different kinds of men on sharing housework women as colleagues sexual behaviour pornography gayness friendship with other men fatherhood and marriage Helen Franks is a sympathetic listener A committed feminist she pulls no punches in her criticisms of traditional male attitudes But she believes that the problems men find in responding constructively to feminism are considerable After all men have no broad based men s movement to sustain them And she argues that patriarchal society oppresses men just as though in a different way it does women The feminist classics of the 1960s and 1970s changed women s lives by revealing a world of shared experiences and unfulfilled potential The time has come to do the same for men A Handful of Hard Men Hannes Wessels,2015-10-19 A biography of a Special Forces soldier who battled the forces of Mugabe and Nkomo earning a reputation as a military maestro During the West s great transition into the post colonial age the country of Rhodesia refused to succumb quietly and throughout the 1970s fought back almost alone against Communist supported elements that it did not believe would deliver proper governance During this long war many heroes emerged but none more skillful and courageous than Capt Darrell Watt of the Rhodesian SAS who placed himself at the tip of the spear in the deadly battle to resist the forces of Robert Mugabe and Joshua Nkomo It is difficult to find another soldier s story to equal Watt s in terms of time spent on the field of battle and challenges faced Even by the lofty standards of the SAS and Special Forces one has to look far to find anyone who can match his record of resilience and valor in the face of such daunting odds and with resources so paltry A bush lore genius blessed with uncanny instincts and an unbridled determination he had no peers as a combat tracker and there was plenty of competition The Rhodesian theater was a fluid and volatile one in which he performed in almost every imaginable fighting role as an airborne shock trooper leading camp attacks long range reconnaissance operator covert urban operator sniper saboteur seek and strike expert and in the final stages as a key figure in mobilizing an allied army in neighboring Mozambique After twelve years in the cauldron of war his cause slipped from beneath him however and Rhodesia gave way to Zimbabwe When the guns went quiet Watt had won all his battles but lost the war In this fascinating biography we learn that in his later years he turned to saving wildlife on a continent where animals are in continued danger devoting himself to both the fauna and African people he has cared so deeply about

Transpersonal Psychology in Psychoanalytic Perspective Michael Washburn, 1994-01-01 In this book Michael Washburn provides a psychoanalytic foundation for transpersonal psychology Using psychoanalytic theory Washburn explains how ego development both prepares for and creates obstacles to ego transcendence Spiritual development he proposes can be properly understood only in terms of the ego development that precedes it For example many difficulties encountered in spiritual development can be traced to repressive underpinnings of ego development and significant gender differences in spiritual development can be traced to corresponding gender differences that emerge during ego development Washburn draws on a wide range of psychoanalytic perspectives in discussing ego development and uses both Eastern and Western sources in discussing spiritual development In rethinking transpersonal psychology in psychoanalytic terms he explains how essential elements of Jungian thought can be grounded in psychoanalytic theory How to Pick a Lover Wesley

Stewart, Virginia

Valian, 2018-07-17 How colleges and universities can live up to their ideals of diversity and why inclusivity and excellence go hand in hand Most colleges and universities embrace the ideals of diversity and inclusion but many fall short especially in the hiring retention and advancement of faculty who would more fully represent our diverse world in particular women and people of color In this book Abigail Stewart and Virginia Valian argue that diversity and excellence go hand in hand and provide guidance for achieving both Stewart and Valian themselves senior academics support their argument with comprehensive data from a range of disciplines They show why merit is often overlooked they offer statistics and examples of individual experiences of exclusion such as being left out of crucial meetings and they outline institutional practices that keep exclusion invisible including reliance on proxies for excellence such as prestige that disadvantage outstanding candidates who are not members of the white male majority Perhaps most important Stewart and Valian provide practical advice for overcoming obstacles to inclusion This advice is based on their experiences at their own universities their consultations with faculty and administrators at many other institutions and data on institutional change Stewart and Valian offer recommendations for changing structures and practices so that people become successful in ways that benefit everyone They
