Teaching EFL Online Andrew R. Webster, 2012 This work explores the role of the e moderator taking account of the skills required and the processes involved in creating and teaching an online English as a Foreign Language EFL course It also details those theories which are applicable to online learning and how they are represented through various models thus creating a framework to assist the e moderation process In particular Salmon s five stage model 2004 is analysed to assess its effectiveness in helping to prepare a new e moderator to teach in an online environment Qualitative self study research is conducted involving an analysis of the e moderator s reflective journal This method can be particularly insightful uncovering the e moderator s beliefs perceptions and challenges encountered throughout the process Thus in depth data is collected and used in evaluating an approach to e moderation It reveals how Salmon s five stage model and others can be considerably helpful although not sufficient in themselves for successful online teaching and learning In this regard a critical appraisal and detailed analysis of Salmon s model relating to this research is conducted to assess the skills required to become a successful e moderator This research reveals not only the complexities problems responsibilities and challenges encountered but also the tremendous rewards that can be reaped from the e moderation process Such research can encouragingly provide other practitioners with a valuable insight into the process and leads to recommendations for further research In conclusion it is apparent that systematic frameworks such as Salmon s five stage model can be extremely useful for effective scaffolding but on their own they are not sufficient to produce a successful e moderation process It is suggested therefore that additional support and continual encouragement should be provided to motivate and engage students in both synchronous and asynchronous interactions Moreover consideration

The Top Books of the Year Digital Habitats Stewarding Technology For Communities The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Digital Habitats Stewarding Technology For Communities : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Digital Habitats Stewarding Technology For Communities : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
