Dimensions Difference Bodies Continental Philosophy:

Continental Philosophy and Modern Theology David Brown, 2012-01-18      The Bloomsbury Companion to Continental Philosophy John Ó Maoilearca, Beth Lord, 2013-02-14 Originally published as the Continuum Companion to Continental Philosophy this book offers the definitive guide to contemporary Continental thought It covers all the most pressing and important themes and categories in the field areas that have continued to attract interest historically as well as topics that have emerged more recently as active areas of research Twelve specially commissioned essays from an international team of experts reveal where important work continues to be done in the field and valuably how the various topics intersect Featuring a series of indispensable research tools including an A to Z of key terms and concepts a chronology and a guide to practical research in the field this is the essential reference tool for anyone working in and studying Continental Philosophy      The Bodily Dimension in Thinking Daniela Vallega-Neu, 2012-02-01 Daniela Vallega Neu questions the ontological meaning of body and thinking by carefully taking into account how we come to experience thought bodily She engages six prominent figures of the Western philosophical tradition Plato Nietzsche Scheler Merleau Ponty Heidegger and Foucault and considers how they understand thinking to occur in relation to the body as well as how their thinking is itself bodily Through a deconstructive and performative reading she explores how their thinking reveals a bodily dimension that is prior to what classical metaphysics comes to conceive as mind body duality Thus Vallega Neu uncovers the bodily dimension that sustains their thought and their work As she contends the trace of the body in our thought not only exposes the strangers we are to ourselves but may also lead to a new understanding of how we come to be who we are in relation to the world we live in      A Dictionary of Continental Philosophy John Protevi, 2006-01-01 A comprehensive reference work of notoriously difficult concepts and themes in continental philosophy With over 450 definitions and articles by an international team of specialists this comprehensive dictionary covers the thinkers topics and technical terms associated with the many intersecting fields known as continental philosophy Special care has been taken to explain complex ideas methods and figures Entries strive for clarity and concision offering helpful definitions and sober reliable accounts of key concepts Professionals students and general readers alike will find the dictionary an invaluable reference tool and a treasured addition to the library shelf Key features include in depth entries on major figures and topics over 190 shorter articles on other figures and topics over 250 items on technical terms used by continental thinkers from abjection Kristeva to worldhood Heidegger coverage of related subjects that use continental terms and methods extensive cross referencing allowing readers to relate and pursue ideas in depth      Post-Continental Philosophy John Mullarkey, 2006-01-01 Post Continental Philosophy outlines the shift in Continental thought over the last 20 years through the work of four central figures Gilles Deleuze Alain Badiou Michel Henry and François Laruelle Though they follow seemingly different methodologies and agendas each insists on the need for a return to the category of immanence if philosophy is to have any future at all Rejecting both the German phenomenological tradition of transcendence of the Ego Being Consciousness Alterity or Flesh as well as the French Structuralist valorisation of Language they instead take the immanent categories of biology Deleuze mathematics Badiou affectivity Henry and axiomatic science Laruelle as focal points for a renewal of thought Consequently Continental philosophy is taken in a new direction that engages science and nature with a refreshingly critical and non reductive approach to life set theory embodiment and knowledge However each of these new philosophies of immanence still regards what the other is doing as transcendent representation raising the question of what this return to immanence really means John Mullarkey s analysis provides a startling answer By teasing out their internal differences he discovers that the only thing that can be said of immanence without falling back into transcendent representation seems not to be a saying at all but a showing a depiction through lines Because each of these philosophies also places a special value on the diagram the common ground of immanence is that occupied by the philosophical diagram rather than the word The heavily illustrated final chapter of the book literally outlines how a mode of philosophical discourse might proceed when using diagrams to think immanence

Actological Readings in Continental Philosophy Malcolm Torry,2023-01-12 Actological Readings in Continental Philosophy is what it says it is The book asks how we might understand the writings of a number of continental philosophers actologically that is with reality understood as action in changing patterns rather than as beings that change It also asks how the different continental philosophies might enable us to develop an actology an understanding of reality as action in changing patterns The philosophers whom we study are Immanuel Kant Friedrich Nietzsche Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas Gilles Deleuze Hans Georg Gadamer Maurice Merleau Ponty Gaston Bachelard Michel Foucault and Michel Serres A whole new way of understanding reality casts new light on their philosophies and raises and answers some significant new questions

The Aesthetic Subject in Contemporary Continental Philosophy and Literature Robert Hughes, 2024-08-01 Art makes its mark upon our flesh It ravishes our eyes invades our ears and stirs our viscera it commandeers our powers of attention and unsettles our body with its strangenesses The event of art is thus an encounter both with a sensuous object and with ourselves exposing us as subjects strangely susceptible to being moved The twenty first century European thinkers elucidated here describe a theory of the aesthetic subject Irigaray articulates the basic outlines of a subject ill at ease with itself Badiou Nancy and Perniola theorize art as an event of deformation that befalls an aesthetic subject fundamentally invested in form Rancière and Sloterdijk explore the figuration of the body and its limits in contexts closer to everyday experience and our life within modern history and politics This study brings together feminist psychoanalytic and phenomenological inheritances to describe the operations of the real in art and aesthetic life
