architectural work and the ideas about living sustainably embodied in his ten commandments Design Discourse Victor Margolin, 1989-09-15 The editor has gathered together a body of writing in the emerging field of design studies The contributors argue in different ways for a rethinking of design in the light of its cultural significance and its powerful position in today s society The collection begins with a discussion of the various expressions of opposition to the modernists purist approach toward design Drawing on postmodernist theory and other critical strategies the writers examine the relations among design technology and social organization to show how design has become a complex and multidisciplinary activity The second section provides examples of new methods of interpreting and analysing design ranging from rhetoric and semiotics to phenomenology demonstrating how meaning is created visually A final section related to design history shifts its emphasis to ideological frameworks such as capitalism and patriarchy that establish boundaries for the production and use of design

The Philosophy of Design Glenn Parsons, 2015-11-18 The Philosophy of Design is an introduction to the fundamental philosophical issues raised by the contemporary practice of design The first book to systematically examine design from the perspective of contemporary philosophy it offers a broad perspective ranging across key philosophical areas such as aesthetics epistemology metaphysics and ethics The first part of the book explores central issues about the nature of design and its products and the rationality of design methods A central theme is that Modernist ideas such as those offered by Loos and Gropius provide important responses to these philosophical issues In the second part of the book these Modernist ideas serve as touchstones in the exploration of key issues for design including the place of aesthetics in design designs relation to personal expression the meaning of function and designs relation to consumerism The social responsibility of designers and the impact of design practice on ethical reasoning are also discussed. Written in an accessible style, The Philosophy of Design presents a new perspective on design and a provocative reassessment of the Modernist legacy. It will engage students and designers with current philosophical debates, helping them to bring into clearer focus the meaning of contemporary design and its unique challenges and possibilities.

Towards Good Lighting for the Stage Marcus Doshi, 2022-12-27

Towards Good Lighting for the Stage: Aesthetic Theory for Theatrical Lighting Design explores the theoretical underpinnings of effective lighting design from conceptualization to live performance. Through an investigation of the author's own aesthetic point of view grounded in a broad investigation of art and design that blends pop culture and fine art theory and practice, this book documents the author's thinking on the design process to fill the unexplored gap between an aesthetic philosophy and its expression in composition. Redefinitions of the artist, artwork, and spectator link beauty and artistic efficacy to arrive at a set of principles for assessment that demand that contemporary lighting design surpass utilitarian visibility to become a vital part of the total artwork that is a theatrical production. Inspired by the movements of the broader art and design worlds of the mid 19th century through present day, citing influences as diverse as Jennifer Tipton, Lois Tyson, Dieter Rams, and Dave Hickey, this book charts a course from the artistic team's dramaturgical work to a solo studio concept to the tech table. Engaging and wide-ranging, Towards Good Lighting for the Stage synthesizes years of cross-disciplinary research and case studies of the author's own work into provocative reading for practitioners of lighting design, advanced students and academics, as well as those interested in connecting theatrical practice, aesthetic theory, and visual art.

Research Handbook on Design Law Henning Hartwig, 2021-05-28

Written by expert scholars and practitioners, this unique Research Handbook presents the state of the art in research on and the practice of international design law. Combining cutting-edge research with a practical approach, it examines key trends and covers key cases, regional and national laws, as well as concepts of international design protection. In particular, the U.S. framework is compared with the regime of the EU, and issues relating to the Hague Agreement are also covered.

Legacy Lukas Feireiss, 2018

Generational dialogues between 40 world-renowned creatives exploring how the creative legacy of previous generations is being reinterpreted over time.

Description: What is this phenomenon we call legacy? This intangible inheritance that we eventually leave for our posterity. Is it the creative and intellectual heritage that one generation passes on to the next? Conceived by Lukas Feireiss, the book at hand tries to probe this open question by engaging in critical dialogue different generations of creatives, connectors, and thinkers alike. In some cases between inherent legacy of parent and child; in many cases between mentor and students or simply between friends. The more than 40 illustrious contributors to this dialogue derive from an array of fields of knowledge and experience. Their stories often provide very personal insights into their work and life. They also reveal a broader perspective on the overall realms of art, design, architecture, music, literature, photography, and curation in the 20th and 21st century. With contributions by Olafur Eliasson and Einar Thorsteinn, Lukas Feireiss, and Ai Weiwei.

Charlie and Rem Koolhaas Francesca Gavin and Kerry James Marshall Sophie Lovell and Dieter Rams Hans Ulrich Obrist and Yona Friedman Shumon Basar and Ken Adam Carson Chan and Phyllis Lambert Rachel and Daniel Libeskind Andres Ramirez and Denise Scott Brown Aric Chen and Arata Isozaki Ahmir Questlove Thompson and George Clinton and many more The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV Alex Bevan, 2019-02-07 The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV explores the aesthetic politics of nostalgia for 1950s and 60s America on contemporary television Specifically it looks at how nostalgic TV production design shapes and is shaped by larger historical discourses on gender and technological change and America's perceived decline as a global power Alex Bevan argues that the aesthetics of nostalgic TV tell stories of their own about historical decline and progress and the place of the baby boomer television suburb in American national memory She contests theories on nostalgia that see it as stagnating regressive or a reversion to outdated gender and racial politics and the technophobic longing for a bygone era and instead argues nostalgia is an important form of historical memory and vehicle for negotiating periods of historical transition The book addresses how and why the shows construct the boomer era as a placeholder for gender racial technological and declensionist discourses of the present The book uses Mad Men AMC 2007 2015 Ugly Betty ABC 2006 2010 Desperate Housewives ABC 2004 2012 and film remakes of 1950s and 60s family sitcoms as primary case studies

Hello World Alice Rawsthorn, 2014-02-06 Our gadgets appliances and cars are sleeker and more elegant than they've ever been in our free time we trawl the internet for pictures of flawless minimalist interiors and even the great industrialist of our time Steve Jobs is admired more for his visual savvy than his technological inventiveness And yet with Instagram and Pinterest at our fingers and great design more available and more affordable than ever we've had no guidebook to this ever fascinating field Though it's an inescapable part of our lives there has been no single book that could in one fell swoop tell us everything we need to know about design Enter Hello World The design critic for the International Herald Tribune Alice Rawsthorn has spent many years reckoning with the history of design and with its place in contemporary life and Hello World is the extraordinary summation of her research and reporting Rawsthorn takes us on a trip through design that ranges across continents and centuries and wherever she goes she discovers inspiring thrilling examples of resourcefulness inventiveness and sheer vision From the macabre symbol with which eighteenth century pirates terrorized their victims into surrender to one woman's quest for the best prosthetic legs to the evolution of the World Cup soccer ball Hello World describes how warlords scientists farmers hackers activists and professional designers have used the complex often elusive process of design to different ends throughout history Hailed as a rapid fire and illuminating ode to contemporary design Telegraph and an extremely readable tour of the subject Financial Times Hello World is a major work that radically broadens our understanding of what design can mean and explains how we can use it to make sense of our ever changing universe

Manifestos for the Future of Critical Disability Studies Katie Ellis, Rosemarie Garland-Thomson, Mike Kent, Rachel Robertson, 2018-10-03 This collection identifies the key tensions and conflicts being debated within the field of critical disability studies and provides both an outline of the field in its current form and offers manifestos for its future direction. Traversing a number of disciplines from science and technology studies to maternal studies, the collection offers a transdisciplinary vision for the future of critical disability studies. Some common thematic concerns emerge across the book, such as digital futures, the usefulness of anger, creativity, family as disability allies, intersectionality, ethics, eugenics, accessibility, and interdisciplinarity. However, the contributors who write as either disabled people or allies do not proceed from a singular approach to disability, often reflecting different or even opposing positions on these issues. Containing contributions from established and new voices in disability studies, outlining their own manifesto for the future of the field, this book will be of interest to all scholars and students working within the fields of disability studies, cultural studies, sociology, law, history, and education. The concerns introduced here are further explored in its sister volume, Interdisciplinary approaches to disability looking towards the future.
