Richard Hyland, 2009-06-05 Gifts: A Study in Comparative Law is the first broad-based study of the law governing the giving and revocation of gifts ever attempted. Gift giving is everywhere governed by social and customary norms before it encounters the law, and the giving of gifts takes place largely outside of the marketplace. As a result of these two characteristics, the law of gifts provides an optimal lens through which to examine how different legal systems engage with social practice. The law of gifts is well developed both in the civil and the common laws. Richard Hyland's study provides an excellent view of the ways in which different civil and common law jurisdictions confront common issues. The legal systems discussed include principally in the common law those of Great Britain, the United States and India, and in the civil law the private law systems of Belgium and France, Germany, Italy and Spain. Professor Hyland also serves a critique of the dominant method in the field, which is a form of functionalism based on what is called the praesumptio similitudinis, namely the axiom that once legal doctrine is stripped away, developed legal systems tend to reach similar practical results. His study demonstrates to the contrary that legal systems actually differ not only in their approach and conceptual structure but just as much in the results. Essays on Some of the Difficulties in the Writings of St. Paul and in Other Parts of the New Testament Richard Whately, 1833 Essays (second Series) on Some of the Difficulties in the Writings of the Apostle Paul, and in Other Parts of the New Testament Richard Whately, 1837 'The Gift' in Nietzsche's Zarathustra Emilio Carlo Corriero, 2021-07-29 Tracing the notion of the gift in Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra, Emilio Corriero provides a new interpretation of this essential text alongside the gift's evolution as a key concept in the history of western philosophy and Christianity. The last phase of Nietzsche's thought, including his writings on the death of God, The Will to Power, the Overman and eternal recurrence, are analysed anew in Corriero's reading of Thus Spoke Zarathustra. From Nietzsche's Prologue in which Zarathustra presents the idea of the Overman as a gift of love and wisdom up to the fourth and final book in which the theme of hospitality and sacrifice are inextricably linked to the concept of donation, highlighting the novelty and exceptionality of Zarathustra's gift. Building on these ideas, this book reveals how the gift of Zarathustra put forward by Nietzsche rethinks the
