Digital Preservation for Libraries, Archives and Museums, 2018 The Preservation Management Handbook Ross Harvey, Martha R. Mahard, 2014-04-10 Cultural heritage professionals museum curators museum professionals archivists and librarians work with their specialized knowledge to prioritize the needs of their collections Preservation managers draw on experts in climate control fire safety pest management and more in developing the large overview of a collection and its needs And all the special materials within the collections have their experts too Here in one volume is a wide range of topic specific expertise that comprises both an enduring text for preservation students as well as an essential one stop reference for cultural heritage professionals particularly those in small to medium sized organizations where resources are limited and professional help is not always at hand The editors introduce the reader to the essential tools and principles of a preservation management program in the twenty first century addressing the realities of diverse collections and materials and embracing the challenges of working with both analog and digital collections The sections on planning and managing a preservation program contain the basic starting point for any kind of collection regardless of size and content Written with the small collection in mind the principles are nevertheless scalable and widely applicable

Digital Curation Projects Made Easy Carmen Cowick, 2018-08-10 Digital Curation Projects Made Easy A Step By Step Guide for Libraries Archives and Museums outlines simple steps for accomplishing practical digitization and digital preservation projects for those with little experience time and or resources Following a general introduction instructions for completing these commonplace digital curation projects are covered Photograph collections Newspaper collection Rare books Art Collections Oral Histories Digital curation does not need to be reserved for big budgets or world famous collections In fact a large part of digitization and digital preservation consists of practical projects that are done every day without much fanfare in libraries and archives around the world

Libraries, Archives and Museums as Democratic Spaces in a Digital Age Ragnar Audunson, Herbjørn Andresen, Cicilie Fagerlid, Erik Henningsen, Hans-Christoph Hobohm, Henrik Jochumsen, Håkon Larsen, Tonje Vold, 2020-09-07 Libraries archives and museums have traditionally been a part of the public sphere s infrastructure They have been so by providing public access to culture and knowledge by being agents for enlightenment and by being public meeting places in their communities Digitization and globalization poses new challenges in relation to upholding a sustainable public sphere Can libraries archives and museums contribute in meeting these challenges

Digital Preservation in Libraries , 2004 Digital Preservation and Libraries , 2004 Preservation Management for Libraries, Archives and Museums G. E. Gorman, Sydney J. Shep, 2006 Memory institutions such as libraries archives galleries and museums all share pressing concerns about preserving heritage whether in the form of material and documentary cultural artefacts in collections or in the form of new digitally born material Recent incidents of natural disaster and cultural genocide together with the global turn to digitization have forced librarians archivists and curators to rethink and restructure their primary modes of operation Preservation management now sits at the top of the agenda for heritage institutions around the world as collection development policies and practices are negotiated between libraries museums archives funding agencies and governments Historically separate cultural institutions are now converging to share limited resources develop compatible ideologies and co ordinate distributed collections This forward looking collection charts the diversity of preservation management in the contemporary information landscape and offers guidance on preservation methods for the sustainability of collections from a range of international experts The authors are connected to a wide international network of professional associations and NGOs and have been selected not only for their specific expertise but for the contribution they are making to the future of preservation management The chapters cover managing the documentary heritage issues for the present and future preservation policy and planning intangible heritage museums and preservation surrogacy and the artefact moving with the times in search of permanence a valuation model for paper conservation research preservation of audiovisual media traditional to interactive formats challenges of managing the digitally born artefact preserving cultural heritage in times of conflict access and the social contract in memory institutions redefining the collection in the 21st century Readership There is urgent need for heritage management initiatives and robust disaster planning that will safeguard our cultural heritage and recognize the right of the end user to ownership of it This is an informed and essential guide to managing collection and preservation strategies for anyone working in the library archive museum or broader cultural heritage sectors Libraries, Archives, and Museums Today Peter Botticelli, Martha R. Mahard, Michèle V. Cloonan, 2019-02-08 This book offers insights into changes brought about by the enormous growth of the internet There are new ways to share cultural heritage materials through online finding aids exhibits and other initiatives What has been accomplished across libraries archives and museums The authors consider that question by using case studies to explore activities in 14 libraries archives museums and other heritage organizations They consider what we can learn from current collaborations within and across libraries archives and museums and why some collaborations are successful while others cannot be sustained Their findings are based on observations and interviews at institutions and organizations in the United States Australia and the U K These organizations have worked to make their collections accessible Some have simply digitized their collections while others have enhanced their collection management systems Others have incorporated digital asset management systems to organize and retrieve media and to manage digital rights and permissions Most of these institutions and organizations have succeeded through strategic partnerships strategic planning and insightful leadership However the book also contains examples of institutions that have undergone transitions one of the museums closed and another closed its library Taken together the fourteen institutions shed light on professional practices today Economic Considerations for Libraries, Archives and Museums Lorraine A. Stuart, Thomas F.R. Clareson, Joyce Ray, 2021-11-11 Economic Considerations for Libraries Archives and Museums provides insight into the economics of collaboration across Libraries Archives and Museums LAMs and cultural heritage funding Drawing together a series of global reflections on the past present and future of cross sector approaches to preserving and promoting cultural heritage this volume examines the economic prospects of LAMs from a variety of facets Divided into five sections the book covers the five most important areas in the development and sustainability of collaborative LAM projects the digital environment collaborative models education funding issues and alternate sources of funding Responding directly to the issue of a lack of adequate funding for maintaining and providing access to cultural heritage resources globally the book argues that cultural heritage institutions must seek creative methods for funding and collaboration at all levels to achieve shared goals Economic Considerations for Libraries Archives and Museums will be of interest to all those engaged in the study of library and information science archival studies museum studies and digital preservation Administrators and practitioners will also find much to interest them within the pages of the book The Preservation Management Handbook Douglas Ross Harvey, Martha R.
