Founding Fictions of the Dutch

Caribbean, 2007 Cola Debrot's My Black Sister and Boeli van Leeuwen's A Stranger on Earth are two pivotal works from the early period of postcolonial Dutch language fiction from the Dutch Caribbean. Each portrays different aspects of the predicament of postcolonial identity, gender, race, and politics in the vein best known as tropic existentialism. Founding Fictions of the Dutch Caribbean is suitable for courses on Caribbean literature and postcolonial literature and will be of great interest to readers of fiction in general.

Caribbean Writers / Les auteurs Caribéens, 2023-12-21 Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies, historiography, the social sciences, and cultural anthropology. Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature, including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn-out clichés of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities. The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities. Based on Western, these days usually Japanese, technology, it is a vigorously African institution. It is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available. It creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news, storytelling, and political debate. Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa, to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates, to overcoming notions of absolute cultural, ethnic, or religious alterity, and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world. Matatu will be published as a journal as of 2016. All back volumes are still available in print.

A Short History of the Netherlands Antilles and Surinam
 Cornelis C. Goslinga, 2012-12-06 To English-speaking historians, the author of this book, a Dutchman who for many years now finds his base at the University of Florida, became well known when his The Dutch in the Caribbean and on the Wild Coast 1581-1680 was published in 1972. At that time, Professor Goslinga, who prior to his academic career in the United States lived for an extended period in Curaçao, Netherlands Antilles, had already acquired a solid reputation among Dutch Caribbeanists by his manifold publications on social, political, and maritime aspects of Dutch West Indian history. By his training, interests, and present position, Dr. Goslinga would seem to me to be singularly well equipped to write a comprehensive history geared to an English-speaking university public of what was once known as the Netherlands West Indies. The present book is the product of this professional equipment and of his long teaching experience. It should go a long way in filling the old and wide gap in historical information on this part of the former Dutch empire, and I hope an equally wide but younger audience will appreciate it.

An Intellectual History of the Caribbean S. Torres-Saillant, 2006-01-08 This is the first intellectual history of the Caribbean written by a top Caribbean studies scholar. The book examines both the work of natives of the region as well as texts interpretive of the region produced by Western authors. Stressing the experimental and cultural particularity of the Caribbean, the study considers major questions in the field.
