De Russen En De Vrede:

Russen en Nederlanders zeggen hetzelfde 1,000 woordenboek met uitleg Angelika Regossi, 2023-01-31 Angelika Regossi was born in 1964 in Transcarpathia the westernmost point of Ukraine She began writing at an early age amid difficulties with communist authorities who persecuted her grandfather in labour camp in Siberia With no communists in her family she had little chance to discover herself in the autocratic USSR Therefore in autumn 1989 she moved to neighbouring Hungary where communism just collapsed After finishing her reporter's job for BBC in 2015 Regossi moved to the Netherlands She also worked as a freelance reporter for RFI Radio France International DW Deutsche Welle and as a TV producer for Belgium VRT German Spiegel Dutch NOS USA the Voice of America and others Angelika Regossi is an author of the book Russian Colonial Food Cooking and Politics Although communicating in foreign language requires a lot of knowledge a handful of thousand words may be useful when it comes to understand each other better Here is thousand words that the Dutch and Russians speak the same way or so close that the word can be immediately recognized You will easily memorize them enriching your Russian or Dutch vocabulary by a thousand words at once in just a couple of hours When Regossi first came to the Netherlands or Holland as it is used to be colloquially called she was struck by the fact that she understood a lot of the words that the Dutch say in Russian But it turned out to be another way around it is Russians speak Dutch for more than three centuries Regossi started working on these thousand words dictionary at the end of February 2022 when Russian President Vladimir Putin unleashed a brutal war in Ukraine to seize territories and make Russia even bigger Almost the whole world turned its back on Russia and the Russian language became out of fashion But after the darkness the sun comes up after the war the peace comes and time to rebuild the bridges So the same will be with Russia after Putin and the war Discover these thousand words that will help you to communicate with each other

The Classic Myths in English Literature and in Art Based Originally on Bulfinch's Age of Fable Thomas Bulfinch, Charles Mills Gayley, Purpose of the Study Interwoven with the fabric of our English literature of our epics dramas lyrics and novels of our essays and orations like a golden warp where the woof is only too often of silver are the myths of certain ancient nations It is the purpose of this work to relate some of these myths and to illustrate the uses to which they have been put in English literature and incidentally in art The Fable and the Myth Careful discrimination must be made between the fable and the myth A fable is a story like that of King Log or the Fox and the Grapes in which characters and plot neither pretending to reality nor demanding credence are fabricated confessedly as the vehicle of moral or didactic instruction Dr Johnson narrows still further the scope of the fable It seems to be in its genuine state a narrative in which beings irrational and sometimes inanimate are for the purpose of moral instruction feigned to act and speak with human interests and passions Myths on the other hand are stories of anonymous origin prevalent among primitive peoples and by them accepted as true concerning supernatural beings and events or natural beings and events influenced by supernatural agencies Fables are made by individuals they may be told in any stage of a nation s history by a Jotham when the Israelites were still under the Judges 1200 years before Christ or by Christ himself in the days of the most critical Jewish scholarship by a Menenius when Rome was still involved in petty squabbles of plebeians and patricians or by Ph drus and Horace in the Augustan age of Roman imperialism and Roman letters by an sop well nigh fabulous to fabled fellow slaves and Athenian tyrants or by La Fontaine to the Grand Monarch and the most highly civilized race of seventeenth century Europe Fables are vessels made to order into which a lesson may be poured Myths are born not made They are born in the infancy of a people They owe their features not to any one historic individual but to the imaginative efforts of generations of story tellers The myth of Pandora the first woman endowed by the immortals with heavenly graces and of Prometheus who stole fire from heaven for the use of man the myth of the earthborn giants that in the beginning contested with the gods the sovereignty of the universe of the moon goddess who with her buskined nymphs pursues the chase across the azure of the heavens or descending to earth cherishes the youth Endymion these myths germinating in some quaint and childish interpretation of natural events or in some fireside fancy have put forth unconsciously under the nurture of the simple folk that conceived and tended them luxuriant branches and leaves of narrative and blossoms of poetic comeliness and form The myths that we shall relate present wonderful accounts of the creation histories of numerous divine beings adventures of heroes in which magical and ghostly agencies play a part and where animals and inanimate nature don the attributes of men and gods Many of these myths treat of divinities once worshiped by the Greeks and the Romans and by our Norse and German forefathers in the dark ages Myths more or less like these may be found in the literatures of nearly all nations many are in the memories and mouths of savage races at this time existent But the stories here narrated are no longer believed by any one The so called divinities of Olympus and of Asgard have not a single worshiper among men They dwell only in the realm of memory and imagination they are enthroned in the palace of art

Storrick,2020-09-28 It is difficult to present a great battle with sufficient detail to please both the student of tactics and the average reader If the visitor is not satisfied with the brief outline here presented he is recommended to read further in the books listed and especially to employ a guide without whose trained and supervised services the best manual is inadequate The reader in search of romance is recommended to the successive Incidents of the Battle as herein presented According to official records the Gettysburg campaign of 1863 began on June 3rd and ended on August 1st No effort will be made to describe the movements counter movements and fifty minor engagements that occurred before the armies crossed the Mason and Dixon s line and finally concentrated at Gettysburg where they engaged in battle on July 1st 2nd and 3rd It is necessary however that the visitor should understand the approach to the field On June 3rd the Union Army called the Army of the Potomac lay at Falmouth Va on the north side of the Rappahannock River Major General Joseph Hooker in command The Confederate Army called the Army of Northern Virginia occupied the south bank with headquarters at Fredericksburg General Robert E Lee in command Both armies were resting after the major engagement at Chancellorsville in which the Confederates were victorious The Army of the Potomac was made up of seven infantry and one cavalry corps It numbered at the time of the battle approximately 84 000 The Army of Northern Virginia was made up of three infantry corps and one division of cavalry It numbered at the time of the battle about 75 000 Following the text is a roster of officers which should be consulted both for an understanding of the battle and because of the obligation to honor brave men During the month of May General Lee visited Richmond to discuss with the Confederate government various plans involving political and military considerations Up to this time the South had won the major victories but her resources both in men and sinews of war were diminishing and a prolonged conflict would be disastrous It was decided that the army should invade the North via the Shenandoah and Cumberland valleys with Harrisburg as an objective This route not only afforded a continuous highway but put the army in a position to threaten Baltimore Philadelphia and Washington from the north The Blue Ridge Mountains to the east would screen the advance and the rich agricultural section would furnish supplies of food and forage The time was propitious General Lee s army was in the prime of condition The North was discouraged by losses distrustful of Lincoln weary of war The South believed that one great victory would assure her the friendliness of the leading powers of Europe Her independence once acknowledged she could import the materials of war and the necessities of life which she lacked It was thought certain that at the prospect of invasion

the North would withdraw troops from the siege of Vicksburg then being conducted by General Grant With high hopes the march was begun On June 3rd Lee put his army in motion northward with Ewell s Corps preceded by Jenkins and Imboden s Cavalry in the advance followed by Longstreet and lastly by Hill Longstreet moved on the east side of the Blue Ridge in order to lead Hooker to believe that Washington would be threatened On reaching Snicker s Gap he crossed the Ridge into the Shenandoah Valley and followed Hill who was now in advance The great army was strung out from Fredericksburg Va on the south to Martinsburg W Va on the north with the cavalry division under Stuart guarding the gaps along the Blue Ridge Since 1863 the population of Gettysburg has increased from 2 000 to 5 500 After driving out Union forces stationed at Winchester under Milroy Lee s Army crossed the Potomac at Williamsport and Shepherdstown on June 23rd 24th and 25th and advanced northward unopposed through the Cumberland Valley toward Harrisburg
