media Indeed it belies the conviction that television is inevitably anti intellectual and the quintessential archenemy of the book Chaplin argues that the history of the televising of philosophy is crucial to understanding the struggle over French national identity in the postwar period Linking this history to decolonization modernization and globalization Turning On the Mind claims that we can understand neither the markedly public role that philosophy came to play in French society during the late twentieth century nor the renewed interest in ethics and political philosophy in the early twenty first unless we acknowledge the work of television Throughout Chaplin insists that we jettison presumptions about the anti intellectual nature of the visual field engages critical questions about the survival of national cultures in a globalizing world and encourages us to rethink philosophy itself ultimately asserting that the content of the discipline is indivisible from the new media forms in which it has found expression

The Grand Finale Anton Wessels,2020-07-13 We often hear that we are living in apocalyptic times Wars like those in the Middle East are just more signs that the end is near That however is a misunderstanding of the message of the Bible and the Qur an The basic meaning of apocalypse is disclosure revelation bringing to light what is happening now and what has happened throughout all of history The apocalypse is not about making predictions about the future but about determining who bears responsibility for injustice in the world In that sense all times including ours are apocalyptic though in a different way than what is usually thought Since the devastating Greek conquest of the world by Alexander the Great there have been apocalyptic insights and revelatory readings of the whole Hebrew Bible The same is true of the New Testament with Rome as the world power then The same apocalyptic message is confirmed by the Qur an when the Byzantines and the Persians fought for mastery of the world The apocalyptic message is that God will put an end to the unjust dominion of violence money and lies God s kingdom will certainly arrive but not through violence after all there is no violence in God Diognetus Belgisch tijdschrift voor filologie en geschiedenis Société pour le progrès des études philologiques et historiques (Bruxelles),1982
