Fokkema, 1997-02-20 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism Literary History, Modernism, and Postmodernism Douwe W. Fokkema, 1984-01-01 In these lectures delivered at Harvard University in March 1983 the differences between Modernism and Postmodernism are discussed in semiotic terms based on a contrastive analysis of semantic and syntactical compositional features They present the major results of research into the literary conventions of Modernism Gide Larbaud V Woolf du Perron Th Mann and the innovations of Postmodernism Borges Fuentes Barthelme Calvino Hermans The investigation of innovation in literary history is based on a concept of literary evolution launched by the

Approaching Postmodernism Douwe W. Fokkema, Hans Bertens, 1986-01-01 Most of the essays collected in this volume deal with theoretical issues that dominate the international debate on Postmodernism issues such as the shifting nature of the concept the problem of periodization and the problem of historicity Other essays offer readings of Postmodernist texts and relate practical criticism to a theoretical framework Hans Bertens Utrecht sketches the historical development of the concept Postmodernism in American criticism distinguishing between the various definitions that have been proposed over the last twenty five years in an attempt to bring some order to the field and to facilitate future discussion Brian McHale Tel Aviv and Douwe Fokkema Utrecht offer models for the description of Postmodernist texts Richard Todd Amsterdam argues convincingly that Postmodernism is much more of a presence in contemporary British fiction than has so far been assumed and Herta Schmid Munich presents a similar argument with respect to Russian avant garde theater Elrud Ibsch Amsterdam presents a contrastive analysis of Thomas Bernhard and Robert Musil Ulla Musarra Nijmegen writes on Italo Calvino The relation between Existentialism and Postmodernism is examined by Gerhard Hoffman W rzburg Theo D haen Utrecht finds important parallels between Postmodernism in literature and in the visual arts Matei Calinescu Bloomington Ind relates literary Postmodernism to a far more general cultural shift rejecting however Foucault s notion of an epistemic break and arguing for both continuity and discontinuity Finally Helmut Lethen Utrecht and Susan Suleiman Harvard sharply question the concept of Postmodernism Suleiman argues that the supposed Postmodernist reaction against Modernism may well be a critical myth or if it isn t a reaction limited to the American literary situation
