T. Van Luit,Tehilah Van Luit,2009 This inventory provides a survey of the extant Yiddish sources in Dutch archives and collections outside of Amsterdam Until now an overview and quantitative summary of the available Yiddish sources in The Netherlands was lacking The compilation represents only a modest beginning for the amount of material that has survived is enormous An inventory relating to the Jewish community of Amsterdam requires a separate volume The present inventory aims to stimulate new research projects on the history of Ashkenazi Jewry in the Netherlands and to facilitate the research of the west Yiddish speech variant that was spoken by the Ashkenazi Jews in The Netherlands Repertorium der verhandelingen en bijdragen betreffende de geschiedenis des vaderlands, in tijdschriften en mengelwerken tot op 1920 verschenen H. J. A. Ruys,2024-08-19 Christian Democracy in Europe Since 1945 Michael Gehler,Wolfram Kaiser,2004-08-02 For the first time this book reveals the actual roles of the Christian Democratic CD parties in postwar Europe from a pan European perspective It shows how Christian Democratic parties became the dominant political force in postwar Western Europe and how the European People's Party is currently the largest group in the European Parliament CD parties and political leaders like Adenauer Schuman and De Gasperi played a particularly important role in the evolution of the core Europe of the EEC EC after 1945 Key chapters address the same questions about the parties membership and social organization their economic and social policies and their European and international policies during the Cold War The book also includes two survey chapters setting out the international political context for CD parties and comparing their postwar development and two chapters on their transnational party cooperation after 1945 This is the companion volume to Political Catholicism in Europe 1918-1945

Neutral Europe Between War and Revolution, 1917-23 Hans A. Schmitt, 1988 The First Modern Economy Jan de Vries, Ad van der Woude, 1997-05-28 The First Modern Economy provides a comprehensive economic history of the Netherlands during its rise to European economic leadership the Golden Age and subsequent decline 1500-1815 The authors argue that it was the first modern economy and defend their position with detailed analyses of its major economic sectors as well as investigations of social structure and macro economic performance Dutch economic history is placed in its European and world context and inter continental and colonial trade are discussed fully Special emphasis is placed on the environmental context of economic growth and later decline as well as on demographic developments The authors also argue that the Dutch model of development and stagnation is applicable to currently maturing economies , Lords and Towns in Medieval Europe Howard B. Clarke, Annagret Simms, 2017-07-14 This volume is based on possibly the biggest single Europe wide project in urban history In 1955 the International Commission for the History of Towns established the European historic towns atlas project in accordance with a common scheme in order to encourage comparative urban studies Although advances in urban archaeology since the 1960s have highlighted the problematic relationship between the oldest extant town plan and the actual origins of a town the large scale cadastral maps as they have been made available by the European historic towns atlas project are still necessary if we want to understand the evolution of the physical form of our towns By 2014 the project consisted of over 500 individual publications from over 18 different countries across Europe Each atlas comprises at least a core map at the scale of 1:2500 analytical maps and an explanatory text The time has come to use this enormous database that has been compiled over the last 40 years This volume itself based on a conference related to this topic that was held in the Royal Irish Academy in Dublin in 2006 takes up this challenge The focus of the volume is on the question of how seigneurial power influenced the creation of towns in medieval Europe and of how this process in turn influenced urban form Part I of the volume addresses two major issues the history of the use of town plans in urban research and the methodological challenges of comparative urban history Parts II and III constitute the core of the book focusing on the dynamic relationship between lordship and town planning in the core area of medieval Europe and on the periphery In Part IV the symbolic meaning of town plans for medieval people is discussed Part V consists of critical contributions by an archaeologist an art historian and an historical geographer By presenting case studies by leading researchers from different European countries this volume combines findings that were hitherto not available in English A comparison of the English and German bibliographies attached to this volume reveals some interesting insights as to how the focus of research shifted over time The book also shows how work on urban topography integrates the approaches of the historian archaeologist and historical geographer The narrative of medieval urbanization becomes enriched and the volume is a genuine contribution to European studies
