Dead Children Playing A Picture :

Dead Children Playing Stanley Donwood, 2007 A stunning compilation of the iconic artwork of Radiohead that has defined the singular aesthetic of one of the world's most innovative and popular contemporary bands Radiohead

Radiohead , Dead Children Playing Stanley Donwood, K. Tchack, 2006 Containing various paintings produced by the consistently paranoid Stanley Donwood and the persistently enigmatic Dr Tchack between about 1999 and about 2005 this picture book also holds between its covers page the after page of sketchbook pages as well as other images found on defunct digital recording media

The Old Masters and Their Pictures Sarah Tytler, 1905 Morals and the Media Nick Russell, 1994 Confronted daily with decisions on how to present their stories what to write and what not to write journalists and the media are frequently accused of sensationalizing of choosing to report the bad news and of misquoting those they interview In this substantially updated edition of Morals and the Media Nick Russell addresses many of the concerns the public has about the media as he examines why the media behave the way they do He also discusses how values have been developed and applied and suggests value systems that can be used to judge special situations

Childhood in a Global Perspective Karen Wells, 2015-02-02 The second edition of this compelling and popular book offers a unique global perspective on children's lives throughout the world It shows how the notion of childhood is being radically re-shaped in part as a consequence of globalization Taking an engaging historical and comparative approach the book explores social issues such as how children are constituted as raced classed and gendered subjects how children's involvement in war is connected to the globalization of capitalism and organized crime and how school and work operate as sites for the governing of childhood The book discusses wide ranging topics including children's rights the family children and war child labour and young people's activism around the globe In addition to updated literature throughout the revised edition includes new chapters on migration and trafficking and the role of play The book will continue to be of great value to students and scholars in the fields of sociology geography social policy and development studies It will also be a valuable companion to practitioners of international development and social work as well as to anyone interested in childhood in the contemporary world

Children in American Poetry Bert Roller, 1929 Death Makes the News Jessica M. Fishman, 2017-11-21 Acknowledgments Introduction Death concealed the picture problem Cold bodies are hot stuff Alternative images The industry's ample access Intentionally ambiguous images Layers of resistance Word versus image Death revealed exceptions to the rule Pictures in the popular and patrician press Nationality and the newsworthy image Innocence and the newsworthy victim Mass tragedy and the biggest disasters The fantastic feats of some photos Victims seeking visibility In the end

Appendix defining a postmortem picture Notes Index About the author Imagining Childhood Erika Langmuir, 2006-01-01 The images of children that abound in Western art do not simply mirror reality they are imaginative constructs representing childhood as a special stage of human life or emblematic of the human condition itself In a compelling book ranging widely across time national boundaries and genres from ancient Egyptian amulets to Picasso's Guernica Erika Langmuir demonstrates that no historic period has a monopoly on the discovery of childhood Famous pictures by great artists as well as barely known anonymous artefacts illustrate not only Western society's perennially ambivalent attitudes to children but also the many and varied functions that works of art have played throughout its history

Care Ethics and the Refugee Crisis Marcia Morgan, 2020-01-27 This book advocates for the philosophical import of care in re-evaluating problems of humanitarianism in the context of the ongoing international refugee and forced migration situation In doing so it rethinks the human capacity to care about the suffering of distant others At a time when emotional resources are running low there is a need to recast what it means to care with the aim of generating a productive movement against the rise of value fundamentalism globally embraced in mantras of good and evil and us and them and to confront xenophobia and oppressive politics The author draws upon a wide array of rich traditions including historical and contemporary writings on self care and care of the other to re-examine the intersection of care ethics and justice She also rethinks the relationship between care and contestation here analyzed in the aesthetic ethical political and religious domains of human experience From within the context of this contingent historical repetition of political oppression the book constructs a reminder not only of what it feels like to care but how and why we should act upon our care Care Ethics and the Refugee Crisis is an important contribution to the growing literatures on care ethics and immigration forced migration in philosophy It will also appeal to scholars and advanced students working in other disciplines such as political science refugee and migration studies and social anthropology

The History of Our Lord as Exemplified in Works of Art Mrs. Jameson (Anna), 1890 The History of our Lord Jameson, Eastlake, 2023-03-07 Reprint of the original first published in 1872

Image and Concept Olga Freidenberg, 2006-03-07 First published in 1997 Image and Concept Mythopoetic Roots of Literature here finally available in English is devoted to the origins of Greek tragedy In it Freidenberg develops the notion that it was the very transition from thinking based on mythological images to the kind of thinking that makes use of formal logical concepts that resulted in the appearance of literature With the transition from mythological thinking to conceptual thought the content of mythological images became the texture of the new concepts The inherited mythological forms now were reinterpreted conceptually causalized ethicized generalized abstracted This reinterpretation in turn brought about poetic figurality Folkloric material began to be differentiated from the mythological images of the past into various disciplines such as religion philosophy ethics literature and art Yet differentiated and reinterpreted as it was the folkloric material remained formally preserved in poetic image structure and plot

Children Remembered Robert Woods, 2006-09-01 Children Remembered discusses the relationship between parents and children in the past It focuses on the ways in which adults responded to the untimely deaths of children whether and how they expressed their grief The study engages with the hypothesis of parental indifference associated with the French cultural historian Philippe Ariès by analysing the changing risk of mortality since the sixteenth century and assessing its consequences It uses paintings and poems to describe feelings and emotions in ways that are not only highly original but also challenge traditional disciplinary conventions The circumstances of infant and child mortality are considered for France and England while example portraits and poems are selected from England and America While the work is firmly grounded in demography it is especially concerned with current debates in social and cultural history with the history of childhood the way pictorial images can be read and the use as historical evidence to which literature may be put This is a wide ranging and ambitious multi disciplinary study that will add significantly to our understanding of demographic structures the ways in which they have conditioned attitudes and behaviour in the past
