Middeleeuwen in de Nederlanden, 1948 A History of Science in the Netherlands Klaas van Berkel, Albert van Helden, L.C. Palm, 2023-07-03 In the 400 years of its modern history the Netherlands has produced a distinguished array of eminent mathematicians scientists and medical researchers including many Nobel prize winners and other internationally recognised figures from Stevin Snel and Huygens in the 17th century to Lorentz Kammerlingh Onnes Buys Ballot De Vries de Sitter and Oort in the 19th and 20th centuries Yet it has often been noted that the history of science in the Netherlands is underrepresented in the international literature The handbook A History of Science in The Netherlands aims to correct this situation by providing a chronological and thematic survey of the field from the 16th century to the present essays on selected aspects of science in the Netherlands and reference biographies of about 65 important Dutch scientists Written by more than 10 experts from Europe and North America the handbook is the standard English language reference work for the field Philosophy and Theology in the Long Middle Ages Kent Emery, Russell Friedman, Andreas Speer, 2011-03-05

This book is a gift to Stephen Brown in honor of his 75th birthday The 35 contributions to this Festschrift are disposed in five parts Metaphysics and Natural Philosophy Epistemology and Ethics Philosophy and Theology Theological Questions Text and Context These five headings articulate Stephen Brown's underlying conception and understanding of medieval philosophy and theology which the editors share The main theoretical and practical issues of the long medieval intellectual tradition are rooted in an epistemology and a metaphysics which must be understood not as separated from theology but as being in a fruitful exchange with theological conceptions and questions further in order to understand the longue durée of this tradition of philosophical and theological discourse scholars must engage the textual traditions that conveyed it Contributors are Jan A Aertsen Carlos Bazan Oliva Blanchette Olivier Boulnois Anthony Celano William J Courtenay Anne A Davenport Alain de Libera Thomas Dewender John P Doyle Stephen D Dumont Kent Emery Jr Juan Carlos Flores Christopher D Schabel Fritz S Pedersen Russell L Friedman Andr Goddu Wouter Goris Michael Gorman Simo Knuuttila Theo Kobusch Paul Joseph LaChance Matthew Lamb Matthew Levering R James Long Steven P Marrone Lauge Nielsen Timothy Noone Thomas M Osborne Klaus Rodler Risto Saarinen John T Slotemaker Jean C Ieyrette Jean Luc Solere Andreas Speer Carlos Steel Eileen Sweeney Jeremy Wilkins John F Wippel

Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt Boudewijn Bakker, 2017-07-05 Offering a corrective to the common scholarly characterization of seventeenth century Dutch landscape painting as modern realistic and secularized Boudewijn Bakker here explores the long history and purpose of landscape in Netherlandish painting In Bakker s view early Netherlandish as well as seventeenth century Dutch painting can be understood only in the context of the intellectual climate of the day Concentrating on landscape painting as the careful depiction of the visible world Bakker s analysis takes in the thought of figures seldom consulted by traditional art historians such as the fifteenth century philosopher Dionysius the Carthusian the sixteenth century religious reformer John Calvin the geographer Abraham Ortelius and the seventeenth century poet Constantijn Huygens Probing their conception of nature as the first Book of God and art as its representation Bakker identifies a world view that has its roots in the traditional Christian perceptions of God and creation Landscape and Religion from Van Eyck to Rembrandt imposes a new layer of interpretation on the richly varied landscapes of the great masters In so doing it adds a new dimension to the insights offered by modern art historical research Further Bakker s explorations of early modern art and literature provide essential background for any student of European intellectual history
