De Vereenigde Oostindische Compagnie:

Arsip-arsip Verenigde Oostindische Compagnie (VOC) Dan Lembaga-lembaga Pemerintahan Kota Batavia (Jakarta) D. Diederick J. Kortlang, 2007 The co operation between the Netherlands Nationaal Archief and the Arsip Nasional Republik Indonesia has resulted in this catalogue of fifteen archives of VOC Verenigde Oostindische Compagnie institutions in Jakarta The VOC records are included in UNESCO's Memory of the World Register The Archives of the Dutch East India Company (VOC) and the Local Institutions in Batavia (Jakarta) Louisa Balk, Frans Van Dijk, Diederick Kortlang, Femme Gaastra, Hendrik Niemeijer, Pieter Koenders, 2007-10-31 The VOC Verenigde Oostindische Compagnie the Dutch East India Company was the largest of the early modern European trading companies operating in Asia Its operations produced not only warehouses packed with spices coffee tea textiles porcelain and silk but also shiploads of documents Data on political economic cultural religious and social conditions spread over an enormous area circulated between the VOC establishments the administrative centre of the trade in Batavia now the city of Jakarta and the Board of Directors in the Netherlands The co operation between the National Archives of Indonesia and the Netherlands resulted in this extensive catalogue of fifteen archives of VOC institutions in Jakarta The VOC records are included in UNESCO's Memory of the World Register In the Shadow of the Company: The Dutch East India Company and its Servants in the Period of its Decline (1740-1796) Chris Nierstrasz, 2012-08-27 Is there any truth in the story that the morality of the servants of the Dutch East India Company in the eighteenth century was so rotten that one should believe the Dutch maxim Vergaan Onder Corruptie in translation something like Succumbed to Corruption and use this as an explanation for a very complex phenomenon Chris Nierstrasz introduces us in his In the Shadow of the Company to the realities of the decision makers and of the servants in the field Responding to the changing realities in Asia the Company could only try to use the mercantile potential of its higher echelons to postpone its downfall In a situation in which the directors were not able to increase investment from Holland the servants in Asia were forced to take up the challenge Genesis and Nemesis of the First Dutch Colonial Empire in Asia and South Africa, 1596-1811 Gerrit Knaap, 2022-12-28 Based upon a sweeping command of Dutch East India Company VOC primary sources Knaap's manuscript offers a thought provoking thematic examination and chronological survey of the Dutch Republic's overseas and colonial expansion in Asia and South Africa mainly through the VOC and its successors the Batavian Republic the Kingdom of Holland and Franco Dutch Java over a period of more than two centuries 1596 1811 It elucidates and deals with several conceptual and theoretical issues that are intrinsically important and germane to a polity's definition of and how it chooses to execute the process of expansion overseas in the early modern period One of this work's major arguments and contributions is its advocacy that the Dutch VOC's expansion in Asia was an imperial project and must be seen as an act of empire or at the very minimum the attempt to construct one via the innovative utilization of a highly organized and dynamic commercial institution with significant political and diplomatic power and naval and military

Information and Power in History Ida Nijenhuis,Marijke van Faassen,Ronald Sluiter,Joris Gijsenbergh,Wim de Jong,2020-01-29 The relationship between information and power is a relevant subject for all times Today s perceived information revolution has caused information to become a separate object of study during the last two decades for several disciplines As the contemporary perspective is dominant information history as a discipline of its own has not yet crystallized In bringing together studies around a new research agenda on the relationship between information and power across time and space presenting various governance regimes media materials and modes of communication this book forces us to rethink the prospects and challenges for such a new discipline Colonial Empires Compared Bob Moore,Henk van

Nierop,2017-03-02 During the seventeenth century the Dutch and English emerged as the world s leading trading nations building their prosperity largely upon their maritime successes During this period both nations strongly contested for maritime supremacy and colonial dominance yet by the nineteenth century it was Britain who had undoubtedly come out on top of this struggle with a navy that dominated the seas and an empire of unparalleled size This volume examines the colonial development of these two nations at a crucial period in which the foundations for the modern nineteenth and twentieth century imperial state were laid The volume consists of ten essays five by British and five by Dutch scholars based on papers originally delivered to the Fourteenth Anglo Dutch Historical Conference 2000 The essays are arranged into five themes which take a strongly comparative approach to explore the development of the British and Dutch colonial empires in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries These themes examine the nature of Anglo Dutch relations the culture of imperialism and perceptions of the overseas world the role of sea power in imperial expansion the economics of colonial expansion and the extension of the metropolitan state to the colonies Taken together these essays form an important collection which will greatly add to the understanding of the British and Dutch colonial empires and their relative successes and failures Pieter de Graeff \(1638-1707\) and his treffelyke bibliotheek Chiara Piccoli,2025-04-17 On 9 July 1709 over 2 300 books were sold at a public auction at the shop of the publishing family Boom in Amsterdam They comprised the beautiful library treffelyke bibliotheek of the patrician Pieter de Graeff 1638 1707 member of a prominent regent family This monograph draws on unpublished archival sources and De Graeff s book auction catalogue to explore his library and its significance While tracing the microhistories of De Graeff s relatives against the backdrop of the Dutch Republic s unfolding history this research reveals his book collection as a microcosmos of knowledge accumulated through generations De Graeff s boeken kamer the library room in his Amsterdam residence is also investigated and visualized through computer graphics resulting in an online interactive and annotated 3D model VOC John Landwehr,2024-06-03 At the height of its power and influence in the seventeenth and eighteenth century the VOC acronym for the United Netherland East India Company was the greatest commercial concern in the world The scope of its activities extended from the Cape of Good Hope to Japan In some aspects the Baltic trade and the North Sea fisheries were of more fundamental relevance for the economy of the Lowlands But it was the more spectacular East Indian trade which aroused the admiration and the envy of foreigners sometimes to the point of war In this bibliography several topics are covered Not only technical matters such as the legal status of the VOC its management directors and shareholders but also subjects as voyages battles ship building navigation geography natural history ethnography mission work ministration and many others With 1674 entries fully described and fully indexed Dutch East India Company Shipbuilding Wendy van Duivenvoorde,2015-04-01 Eight months into its maiden voyage to the Indies the Dutch East India Company s Batavia sank on June 4 1629 on Morning Reef in the Houtman Abrolhos off the western coast of Australia Wendy van Duivenvoorde s five year study was aimed at reconstructing the hull of Batavia the only excavated remains of an early seventeenth century Indiaman to have been raised and conserved in a way that permits detailed examination using data retrieved from the archaeological remains interpreted in the light of company archives ship journals and Dutch texts on shipbuilding of this period Over two hundred tables charts drawings and photographs are included Encounters on the Opposite Coast: The Dutch East India Company and the Nayaka State of Madurai in the Seventeenth Century Markus Vink,2015-10-14 In Encounters of the Opposite Coast Markus Vink provides a narrative of the first half century of cross cultural interaction between the Dutch East India Company VOC one of the great northern European chartered companies and Madurai one of the great southern Nayakas and successor states of the Vijayanagara empire in southeast India c 1645 1690 A shared interest in trade and at times converging political objectives formed the unstable foundations for a complex relationship fraught with tensions a mixture of conflict and coexistence typical of the age of contained conflict Drawing extensively on archival materials Markus Vink covers a topic neglected by both Company historians and their Indian counterparts and sheds important light on a black hole in South Indian history

Dutch Reformed Orthodoxy and Islam Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva, 2025-03-10 However turbulent and virulent Christian Muslim Relations may have been throughout the centuries it does not mean that each side did not take the time to evaluate and appreciate each other's theological dogmas Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva shows that although Christians were subjected to constant attacks and invasions by the Turks for multiple centuries they eventually Early Modern Period sought to refine their thinking about Islam and evaluate its theological tenets in a semi dispassionate form and to provide a large scale reply In the Medieval period in depth analysis of Islam from a purely theological philosophical point of view were rare Most publications frequently resorted to the use of offensive and inaccurate language which at times fomented a disagreement between the parties based not on real theological differences besides the obvious political differences but on imagined ones This volume shows that Post Reformation Reformed Orthodox theologians especially those from the Dutch Republic after having access to a long legacy of Christian Muslim written publications collected by Dutch Universities were able to build much more refined arguments and indeed present well informed apologetical theological and historical arguments against Islam The author also shows that the intense commerce between Christian and Islamic nations and the contemporary flourishing of orientalist studies in the Dutch Universities contributed to the formation of an intellectual arena that was willing to overlook past animosities and focus on the theological differences addressing them as such Delft en de Oostindische Compagnie H.L.
