Class Dynamics Of Agrarian Change Chinese Edition:

Class Dynamics of Agrarian Change Henry Bernstein, 2010 Henry Bernstein argues that class dynamics should be the starting point of any analysis of agrarian change. Providing an accessible introduction to agrarian political economy, he shows clearly how the argument for bringing class back in provides an alternative to inherited conceptions of the agrarian question. He also ably illustrates what is at stake in different ways of thinking about class dynamics and the effects of agrarian change in today's globalized world.

Transforming Rural China Guy M. Robinson, 2024-02-12 Over the last four decades China has witnessed dramatic economic growth transforming into an economic powerhouse with considerable consequences for its rural regions. In this timely book Guy M. Robinson adeptly navigates the principal elements, key events and significant changes of the transformation of China's countryside.

Critical Perspectives on Food Sovereignty Marc Edelman, 2017-10-02 This volume is a pioneering contribution to the study of food politics and critical agrarian studies where food sovereignty has emerged as a pivotal concept over the past few decades with a wide variety of social movements on the ground, experiments and policy innovations flying under its broad banner. Despite its large and growing popularity, the history, theoretical foundations and political program of food sovereignty have only occasionally received in-depth analysis and critical scrutiny. This collection brings together both longstanding scholars in critical agrarian studies such as Philip McMichael, Bina Agarwal, Henry Bernstein, Jan Douwe van der Ploeg and Marc Edelman as well as a dynamic roster of early and mid-career researchers. The ultimate aim is to advance this important frontier of research and organizing and put food sovereignty on stronger footing as a mobilizing frame, a policy objective and a plan of action for the human future. This volume was published as part one of the special double issue celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Journal of Peasant Studies.

Global Land Grabbing and Political Reactions 'from Below' Marc Edelman, Ruth Hall, Saturnino M. Borras Jr., Ian Scoones, Ben White, Wendy Wolford, 2017-08-15 When the 2007-2008 food and financial crises triggered a global wave of land grabbing, scholars, activists and policy practitioners assumed that this would be met with massive peasant resistance. As empirical evidence accumulated, however, it became clear that political reactions from below to land grabbing were quite varied and complex. Violent resistance, outright expulsions, everyday weapons of the weak and demands for better terms of incorporation into land deals were among the outcomes that emerged. Readers of this collection will encounter a multinational group of scholars who use the tools of social movements theory and critical agrarian studies to examine cases from Argentina, Mexico, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Colombia, Ethiopia, Madagascar, Mozambique, Uganda, Mali, Ukraine, India and Laos as well as the Rio 20 Sustainable Development Conference. Initiatives from below in response to land deals have involved local and transnational alliances and the use of legal and extra legal methods and have brought victories and defeats This book was first published as a special issue of The Journal of Peasant Studies

The US-China Rift and Its Impact on Globalisation Raffaele Sciortino,2024-02-12 Today globalisation has entered a critical phase of slowdown The asymmetrical US China relationship that has been the fundamental axis up to now has entered into crisis The financial imperialism of the dollar proves to be increasingly burdensome and destabilizing The rise of capitalist China is questioning US imperialist levy This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the looming confrontation while identifying potential points of no return in the intertwined dynamics of the world market geopolitical configurations and class relationships Neither contender can give up the game Will there be a de globalisation Is a multipolar order realistic Are we facing a Chinese hegemonic challenge or rather first signs that hint at the potential for systemic disintegration

Peasants, Capitalism, and Imperialism in an Age of Politico-Ecological Crisis Mark Tilzey,Fraser Sugden,2023-09-27 This book utilises a new theoretical approach to understand the dynamics of the peasantry and peasant resistance in relation to capitalism state class and imperialism in the global South In this companion volume to Peasants Capitalism and the Work of Eric R Wolf the authors further develop their thinking on agrarian transitions to capitalism the development of imperialism and the place of the peasantry in these dynamics with special reference to the global South in an era of politico ecological crisis Focusing on the political role of the peasantry in contested transitions to capitalism and to modes of production outside of and beyond capitalism the book contends that an understanding of these dynamics requires an analysis of class struggle and of the resources material and discursive that different classes can bring to bear on this struggle The book focuses on the rise of capitalism in the global South within the context of imperial subordination to the global North and the place of the peasantry in shaping and resisting these dynamics The book presents case studies of contested transitions to agrarian capitalism in Bolivia Ecuador Guatemala Mexico Peru and South Asia It also examines the case of transition to a post capitalist mode of production in Cuba The book concludes with an assessment of the nature of capitalism and imperialism within the context of the contemporary politico ecological crisis and the potential role of the peasantry as agent of emancipatory change towards social and environmental sustainability This book will be of great interest to students and researchers in the areas of peasant studies rural politics agrarian studies development and political ecology

Rural Development Adam Pain,Kjell Hansen,2019-06-17 Rural Development is a textbook that critically examines economic social and cultural aspects of rural development efforts both in the global north and in the global south By consistently using examples from the north and the south the book highlights similarities of processes as well as differences in contexts The authors knowledge of Afghanistan and Sweden respectively creates a core for the discussions which are complemented with a wide range of other empirical examples Rural Development is divided into nine chapters each with a thematic focus ranging from concepts and theories through rural livelihoods and natural resources to discussions on policy and processes of change The book sees rural development as a multi level multi actor and multi faceted subject area that needs multidisciplinary perspectives both to support it and to analyse it Throughout the book examples of rural development interventions are discussed using analytical concepts such as power discourse consequences and context to grasp rural development as practices that are more than what is presented in policy documents The book is written in a way that makes it accessible for undergraduates while at the same time caters for the kind of deeper reading used by master students and Ph D s Every chapter is linked to discussion questions as well as suggested further readings and useful websites

Rethinking Illicit Economies in Opium and Cocaine Eric D. U. Gutierrez, 2023-11-13 This book investigates the cross border trade in illicit drug crops in the global south It exposes an important paradox despite all the dangers and negative consequences of these criminal networks in many cases they also provide marginalised and excluded communities with important private sources of protection investment and employment This book reconstructs and compares socioeconomic contexts criminal careers and changes in farmgate prices of illicit coca and opium poppy crops in Afghanistan Myanmar Colombia and Bolivia It investigates the politics of strange bedfellows informal bankers without suits providing cross border financial services to the undocumented and the unbanked the criminals without borders and the mystery of illicit crop prices The book challenges commonly held assumptions and casts new light on how relationships of conflict and accommodation are arranged and re arranged in fluid everchanging contexts producing often paradoxical outcomes It then suggests policy reforms and alternative approaches to drug policy development aid and peacebuilding work Researchers and students across development peacebuilding illicit economies and conflict studies will find this book an important source of original research and analysis It will also be useful for politicians commentators and public officials considering what to do differently in tackling illicit drug economies

Social Innovation and Sustainability Transition Geoff Desa, Xiangping Jia, 2022-11-09 This book uses a historical and modern lens to reimagine the role that Extension could potentially play in catalyzing reciprocal co learning relationships between Land Grant Universities and their diverse local constituencies The establishment of statewide extension systems was once seen as a way to ensure that Land Grant Universities would be accessible and responsive to all of a state s residents Extension systems continue to offer a front door to a major public university in almost every county of the United States but they tend to be viewed primarily as a way to translate science or distribute information from the university to the public This books argues for the importance of Extension and shows that we are conceiving of this system too narrowly Only by retelling the stories of the Extension and getting people to see themselves as part of the story can we imagine a different future in which state universities and land grant colleges engage more authentically and equitably in two way relationships with their local constituents in catalyzing reciprocal co learning relationships between Land Grant Universities and their diverse local constituencies Chapter Palatable disruption the politics of plant milk chapter Feeding the melting pot inclusive strategies for the multi ethnic city chapter A carrot isn t a carrot isn t a carrot tracing value in alternative practices of food exchange

Tanzania's Land Rush Joanny Bélair, 2022-11-03 After the global financial crisis of 2008 a new trend in foreign direct investments FDI emerged investors rising interest in farmland in developing nations This land rush was a marker of increased land commodification and agricultural financialization but has also been associated with global narratives of agricultural modernization and development through FDI of cheap unproductive and or idle farmland Yet as this book demonstrates global investment dynamics are dictated by complex economic political socio historical dynamics in any host country Focusing on the land rush in Tanzania the contexts of six investment projects in the nation are examined and

unpacked helping to understand the ways in which political struggles over land capital and authority all feed into determining the goals and eventually the outcomes of the farmland investment game Developmentalism Graham Harrison, 2020-06-19 Why do so few countries achieve development success Achieving development requires many changes over a short period of time generating instability and risk It is a deep and integrated economy of change involving force strategic thinking and ideological conviction it emerges when successful development is seen as necessary for the survival of a political order Developmentalism engages with the moral issues that this raises Developmentalism The Normative and Transformative within Capitalism uses a historical comparative approach to understand development as a transformation which involves a deep and integrated political economy of change a shift from a state of capital ascendance to capital dominance It is only through a transformation towards capital dominance that mass poverty reduction and the construction of a commonwealth are possible However capitalist development is extremely difficult and requires a highly exacting political endeavour The politics of development is conceptualized as developmentalism a strategy and ideology in which governments exercise heavy directive power endure instability and crisis and secure a rudimentary legitimacy for their efforts This book argues that developmentalism requires a conflation of successful capitalist transformation with some form of existential insecurity of the state itself It flourishes when capitalist transformation connects to profound questions of sovereignty statehood nation building and elite survival Developmentalism shows deep contextualisation of capitalist transformation as well as the massive improvements in material life that it has generated The New Enclosures: Critical Perspectives on Corporate Land Deals Ben White, Saturnino Borrás Jr., Ruth Hall, Ian Scoones, Wendy Wolford, 2013-09-13 This collection explores the complex dynamics of corporate land deals from a broad agrarian political economy perspective with a special focus on the implications for property and labour regimes labour processes and structures of accumulation This involves looking at ways in which existing patterns of rural social differentiation in terms of class gender ethnicity and generation are being shaped by changes in land use and property relations as well as by the re organization of production and exchange as rural communities and resources are incorporated into global commodity chains It goes further than the descriptive what and who questions in order to understand the how and why of these patterns It is empirically solid and theoretically sophisticated making it a robust and boundary changing work Contributors come from various scholarly disciplines Covering nearly all regions of the world the collection will be of interest to researchers from various disciplines policymakers and activists This book was originally published as a Special Issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies Marx in the Field Alessandra Mezzadri, 2021-02-15 Marx in the Field is a unique edited collection illustrating the relevance of the Marxian method to study contemporary capitalism and the global development process Essays in the collection bring Marx to the field in three ways They illustrate how Marxian categories can be concretely deployed for field research in the global economy they analyse how these categories may be adapted during fieldwork and they discuss data collection methods supporting Marxian analysis

Crucially many of the contributions expand the scope of Marxian analysis by combining its insights with those of other intellectual traditions including radical feminisms critical realism and postcolonial studies The book defines the possibilities and challenges of fieldwork guided by Marxian analysis including those emerging from the COVID 19 pandemic The collection takes a global approach to the study of development and of contemporary capitalism While some essays focus on themes and geographical areas of long term concern for international development like informal or rural poverty and work across South Asia Southern and West Africa or South America others focus instead on actors benefitting from the development process like regional exporters larger farmers and traders or on unequal socio economic outcomes across richer and emerging economies and regions including Gulf countries North America Southern Europe or Post Soviet Central and Eastern Europe Some essays explore global processes cutting across the world economy connecting multiple regions actors and inequalities While some of the contributions focus on classic Marxian tropes in the study of contemporary capitalism like class labour and working conditions agrarian change or global commodity chains and prices others aim at demonstrating the relevance of the Marxian method beyond its traditional boundaries for instance for exploring the interplays between food nutrition and poverty the links between social reproduction gender and homework the features of migration and refugees regimes tribal chieftaincy structures or prison labour or the dynamics structuring global surrogacy Overall through the analysis of an extremely varied set of concrete settings and cases this book illustrates the extraordinary insights we can gain by bringing Marx in the field

Commodity Chains under Pressure Lara M. Rural Wage Employment in Developing Countries Carlos Oya, Nicola Pontara, 2015-05-22 There is a striking scarcity of work conducted on rural labour markets in the developing world particularly in Africa This book aims to fill this gap by bringing together a group of contributors who boast substantial field experience researching rural wage employment in various developing countries It provides critical perspectives on mainstream approaches to rural agrarian development and analysis of agrarian change and rural transformations from a long term perspective This book challenges the notion that rural areas in low and middle income countries are dominated by self employment It purports that this conventional view is largely due to the application of conceptual frameworks and statistical conventions that are ill equipped to capture labour market participation The contributions in this book offer a variety of methodological lessons for the study of rural labour markets focusing in particular on the use of mixed methods in micro level field research and more emphasis on capturing occupation multiplicity The emphasis on context history and specific configurations of power relations affecting rural labour market outcomes are key and reoccurring features of this book This analysis will help readers think about policy options to improve the quantity and quality of rural wage employment their impact on the poorest rural people and their political feasibility in each context
