

A group of young men, likely Yale students, are posed in front of a large brick building with arched windows. In the center is a classic silver car with a prominent chrome grille and a hood ornament. Two men are riding motorcycles in the foreground, one on each side of the car. Several other men are standing behind the car, and one man on the left is holding a model airplane. The overall scene captures a moment of youthful rebellion and style from the 1960s.
