Aims:

Main aim:
To develop students' skills of reading for gist and specific information in the context of interview experiences.

Subsidiary aim:
To enable learners to speak about their experiences related to interviews.

Personal aims:
To maintain a good pace of the lesson and provide clear instructions.

Target group: 12 adult learners who have intermediate level of English. They have a variety of professional experiences, therefore, they may bring various points of view in the class. They also come from different countries and cultural backgrounds. This may have an impact on the way they communicate with others. This is their second evening session and they do not yet know each other very well. Thus, some may feel nervous when speaking in front of their peers.

Aids/ Materials: handout adapted from New Cutting Edge Intermediate, Longman 2006, Cunningham & Moor
PPT, laptop, board, pens, paper, cards

3 min	Warm-Up: To enable students to get to know the teacher and to create a relaxing atmosphere.	The teacher provides learners with cards containing different words. She instructs learners to ask her 'yes/ no' questions using these words, which are all related to her career. How to give instructions: I want you to ask me 'Yes/ No' questions to find out about my career. Refer to these words to find out what they mean. You have 2 minutes for this. Words are: Spanish, English Literature, Translation, Romania, Teacher, 3 years, Qualified Teacher Status, 10 years. For example, Teacher: Are you a teacher? ICQs: Are you going to ask me questions with 'why/when/ how'? (NO); Are you going to ask me 'yes/no' questions? (YES)	TTT STT	Problem Although they have done something similar with the tutor in the previous lesson, the use of key words may appear confusing. Learners might not be able to identify some of the information. Learners may struggle with the interrogative form specific to yes/ no questions: e.g. Learners may struggle with the use of past or present interrogative, use of	Solution The teacher will try to provide clear instructions. The teacher will give out the answer. Modeling a question before may help. Correcting when necessary, but without interrupting the flow of

3 min	Lead-in: To activate learners' schemata related to the world of work.	Instruct learners to turn to their peers and discuss aspects related to the following questions: - What is your job? - What are you good at? - What have you studied? (Slide 2) Instructions must be checked: When I throw the ball, I want you to say your name and answer one of these questions. For example, I am Claudia and I studied Spanish and English. ICQ: do you answer all the questions? No. How many questions will you answer? 1. Learners do the activity for two to three minutes, until everyone has had a go. RESOURCES: PPT Slide 2 and computer, ball	T STT	Problem Learners may not understand what they have to do. Learners may not stay on topic. Learners may not have vast vocabulary related to education: e.g. Bachelor's degree, secondary school etc.	Solution Examples may be given by the teacher. Careful monitoring and timing are required. Some help may be provided by the teacher with pronunciation. However, this vocabulary will not be taught extensively, as they might discuss it with the next tutor in the vocabulary lesson.
5 min	Pre-teach vocabulary To unblock key texts needed to help students understand the text.	The teacher tells students that they will soon read a text. The teacher draws students' attention to the fact that they discussed work. We are going to read a text soon, but first we are going to look at some vocabulary. She asks learners various questions to activate vocabulary: 1. What do we need to do to get a job? Expected answers: apply, interview Contextualised: If I get selected for a job, I need to go for an	TTT	Problem Learners may not give out the elicited vocabulary at first.	Solution More prompts may be given.

The authors take the view that engagement with political economy is central to any fully rounded analysis of language and language-related issues in the world today, and their collaboration in this volume represents an initial attempt to redress what they perceive to be an imbalance in the field The book begins with a discussion of neoliberalism and an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology impacts on language This is followed by a discussion of how globalization and identity have been conceptualised in applied linguistics in ways which have ignored the political centrality of class a concept which the authors see as integral to their perspective The book concludes with an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology plays out in two key areas of applied linguistics language teaching and language teacher education Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics is essential reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in applied linguistics

Building the Self-Efficacy Beliefs of English Language Learners and Teachers Mark Wyatt, Farahnaz Faez, 2024-02-20 Building the Self Efficacy Beliefs of English Language Learners and Teachers explores juxtaposes and bridges two fields of research that have developed separately the self efficacy beliefs of English language learners and the self efficacy beliefs of English language teachers The aim is to expand understanding in each field and highlight how the two areas can mutually inform each other This should encourage fresh perspectives providing direction for researchers and improving learning teaching and teacher education Empirical research suggests that English language learners and teachers who believe they can fulfil a task are more likely to succeed than those who believe they cannot Based on a deep understanding of how self efficacy beliefs are formed and developed this book illustrates how such beliefs can be supported and researched amongst English language learners and teachers Bringing together the work of educators and researchers working in contexts including Algeria Bulgaria Canada China Iran Israel Japan T rkiye the UK the USA and Vietnam this volume includes meta analyses largely focusing on quantitative data and empirical studies employing qualitative approaches and mixed methods Studies included examine factors impacting the development of language teachers self efficacy beliefs and investigate domain specific dimensions of the self efficacy beliefs of English language learners and teachers This rigorous and original volume will appeal to an international readership of scholars teachers teacher educators and researchers with interests in language education teacher education TESOL linguistics and educational psychology

Life Beyond Borders Melissa Mitchell, 2025-08-19 Melissa Mitchell never thought a civil war in Syria would reroute the life of a girl from Oregon Then again she didn't expect the Middle East to feel like home or to spend decades with her husband living and working in places most people couldn't even point to on a map Life Beyond Borders is a brutally honest laugh out loud cry when you least expect it memoir of what happens when one unlikely yes leads to three decades of chaos compassion and calling Melissa's journey is all grit heart and survival held together by the kind of sarcasm that costs less than therapy and works twice as fast This isn't a story about saving the world it's about being reshaped by it Through missteps miracles and the kind of stubborn hope that refuses to quit her story unfolds not with grand solutions but with the quiet power of presence listening staying and standing in the gap Told with honesty humility and hard won perspective Life Beyond Borders reveals that the most meaningful journeys don't begin when we're ready they begin the moment we show up

Assessing Language Teachers' Professional Skills and Knowledge Rosemary Wilson, Monica

Poulter,2015-01-31 The growth in English language teaching worldwide and the related increase in teacher training programmes of all kinds highlight the need for greater accountability in the assessment of teachers The need for formal summative assessment has taken on greater importance in training programmes and requires procedures which do not always sit easily with the development process while transparency of assessment procedures is also increasingly demanded by the candidates themselves This edited volume discusses key issues in assessing language teachers professional skills and knowledge and provides case study illustrations of how teacher knowledge and teaching skills are assessed at pre service and in service levels within the framework of the Cambridge English Teaching Qualifications The volume provides discussion of ways in which the changing nature of English language teaching has impacted on teacher education and assessment examples of specific assessment procedures for both teaching knowledge and practical classroom skills accounts of the ways in which the Cambridge English Teaching Qualifications have been integrated into and adapted for local contexts This is the first volume of its kind wholly dedicated to language teacher assessment and as such will be of interest to language teachers and teacher educators as well as to researchers and postgraduate students Duoethnography in English Language Teaching

Robert J. Lowe,Luke Lawrence,2020-02-05 This book sets out duoethnography as a method of research reflective practice and as a pedagogical approach in English Language Teaching ELT The book provides an introduction to the history of duoethnography and lays out its theoretical foundations The chapters then address duoethnography as a research method which can be used to explore critical and personal issues among ELT teachers discuss how duoethnography as a reflective practice can aid teachers in understanding themselves their colleagues or their context and demonstrate how duoethnography can be used as a pedagogical tool in ELT classrooms The chapters are a range of duoethnographies from established and emerging researchers and teachers which explore the interplay between cultural discourses and life histories with a focus on ELT in Japan

Passport to Life Dennis Coughlin,2012-12-06 When I split with my wife ten years ago my antidote for the resulting feeling of loss and the negative emotions that a marriage breakup engenders was to be dramatically life altering At the age of fifty five I planned to teach English in Asia and South America However the road from plan to realization was littered with mental and physical obstacles some of which almost proved fatal Somehow surviving these setbacks I completed my quest by backpacking through Laos Thailand Cambodia South America Central America and Burma This is a tale about my physical emotional and psychological journey

Celta Lesson Plan: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Celta Lesson Plan : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
