Cemetery of the Murdered Daughters Sara Lennox,2006 Although Austrian writer Ingeborg Bachmann 1926 1973 is widely regarded as one of the most important twentieth century authors writing in German her novels and stories have sometimes been viewed narrowly as portraits of women as victims In this innovative study Sara Lennox provides a much broader perspective on Bachmann s work at the same time undertaking an experiment in feminist methodology Lennox examines Bachmann s poetry and prose in historical context arguing that the varied feminist interpretations of her writings are the result of shifts in theoretical emphases over a period of more than three decades Lennox then places her own essays on Bachmann in similar perspective showing how each piece reflects the historical moment in which it was written Making use of recent interdisciplinary approaches Foucauldian theories of sexuality post colonial theory materialist feminism she explores the extent to which each of her earlier readings was shaped by the methods employed the questions asked and the political issues that seemed most germane at the time Out of this analysis comes a new understanding of the significance of Bachmann s work and new insight into the theory and practice of feminist criticism

Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda Lê Alexandra Kurmann, 2016-01-14 Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda L Imagining the Ideal Reader uncovers the primary textual relationship that Linda L 1963 the most prolific Francophone author of the Vietnamese diaspora fosters with a literary precursor of Austrian descent the feminist writer in exile Ingeborg Bachmann 1926 1973 This study offers an overdue exploration of the notably European roots of L s writerly formation It traces an unexamined feminist import in her work to a sixteen year inter and intra textual engagement with Bachmann and positions the latter as an imagined ideal reader of L s oeuvre Intertextual analyses of Bachmann s post war novel Malina with L s literary essays early fiction and trilogy reveal that to overcome the challenges of writing in exile L adopts an alternative literary fore bear of the European tradition Crisis and Form in the Later Writing of Ingeborg Bachmann Aine McMurtry, 2012 Ingeborg Bachmann 1927 73 one of the most acclaimed German language poets of the post war period famously turned away from the lyric during the 1960s Publicly declaring that she had stopped writing poetry Bachmann began work on the prose Todesarten cycle that would dominate the last decade of her life During a period of personal breakdown in the 1960s however she privately continued to write in verse and the publication of selected drafts in 2000 threw new light on her compositional methods in this period As the most extensive study to date of the poetic drafts this monograph leads away from the polemic that surrounded their publication to establish the fragmentary texts as an experimental stage of writing that proved formally and thematically significant for later published prose works Bridging the genre gap of much Bachmann scholarship McMurtry illuminates the development of a reflexive mode where sophisticated aesthetic strategies enable the oblique expression of cultural critique ine McMurtry is Lecturer in German at Durham The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Translation Jean Boase-Beier, Lina Fisher, Hiroko Furukawa, 2018-06-26 This Handbook offers a comprehensive and engaging overview of contemporary issues in Literary Translation research through in depth investigations of actual case studies of particular works authors or translators Leading researchers from across the globe discuss best practice problems and possibilities in the translation of poetry novels memoir and theatre Divided into three sections these illuminating analyses also address broad themes including translation style the author translator reader relationship and relationships between national identity and literary translation. kind of split personality In view of the traumatic monstrosities of the previous century that development may seem logical to some The Historical Dictionary of Postwar German Literature is devoted to modern literature produced in the German language whether from Germany Austria Switzerland or writers using German in other countries This volume covers an extensive period of time beginning in 1945 at what was called zero hour for German literature and proceeds into the 21st century concluding in 2008 This is done through a list of acronyms and abbreviations a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on writers such as Nobel Prize winners Heinrich B ll G nter Grass Elias Canetti Elfriede Jelinek and W G Sebald There are also entries on individual works genres movements literary Women and National Socialism in Postwar German Literature Katherine Stone, 2017 In recent styles and forms years historians have revealed the many ways in which German women supported National Socialism as teachers frontline auxiliaries and nurses as well as in political organizations In mainstream culture however the women of the period are still predominantly depicted as the victims of a violent twentieth century whose atrocities were committed by men They are frequently imagined as post hoc redeemers of the nation as the rubble women who spiritually and literally rebuilt Germany This book investigates why the guestion of women's complicity in the Third Reich has struggled to capture the historical imagination in the same way It explores how female authors from across the political and generational spectrum Ingeborg Bachmann Christa Wolf Elisabeth Plessen Gisela Elsner Tanja D ckers Jenny Erpenbeck conceptualize the role of women in the Third Reich As well as offering innovative re readings of celebrated works this book provides instructive interpretations of lesser known texts that nonetheless enrich our understanding of German memory culture Katherine Stone is Assistant Professor in German Studies at the University of Warwick Christa Wolf Sonja E. Klocke, Jennifer R. Hosek, 2018-03-19 Interest in Christa Wolf continues to grow Her classics are being reprinted and new titles are appearing posthumously becoming bestsellers and being translated Energetic scholarly debates engage well known aesthetic and political issues that the public intellectual herself fore fronted This broad ranging introduction to the author her work and times builds upon and moves beyond such foundational interpretative frameworks by articulating the global relevance of Wolf s oeuvre today also for non German readers Thus it brings East German culture alive to students teachers scholars and the general public by connecting the socialist German Democratic Republic GDR and the lived experiences of its citizens to nations and cultures around the world The collection focuses on topical matters including the search for authenticity agency race cosmopolitanism gender environmentalism geopolitics war and memory debates as well as movie adaptations and Wolf s film work with DEFA marketing and international reception Our contributions by senior and emerging scholars from across the globe emphasize Wolf s position as an author of world literature and an important critical voice in the 21st century The Differentiation of Modernism Larson Powell, 2013 The Differentiation of Modernism analyzes the phenomenon of intermediality in German radio plays film music and electronic music of the late modernist period 1945 1980 After 1945 the purist medium specificity of high modernism increasingly yielded to the mixed forms of intermediality Theodor Adorno dubbed this development a Verfransung or fraying of boundaries between the arts TheDifferentiation of Modernism analyzes this phenomenon in German electronic media arts of the late modernist period 1945 80 in radio plays film music and electronic music The first part of the book begins with a chapter on Adorno s theory of radio as an instrument of democratization going on to analyze the relationship of the H rspiel or radio play to electronic music In the second part on film music a chapter on Adorno and Eisler's Composing for the Film sets the parameters for chapters on the film Das M dchen Rosemarie 1957 and on the music films of Jean Marie Straub and Dani le Huillet The third part examines the music of Karlheinz Stockhausen and its relationship to radio abstract painting recording technology and theatrical happenings The book s central notion of the differentiation of culture suggests that late modernism unlike high modernism accepted the contingency of modern mass media driven society and sought to find new forms for it Larson Powell is Curator's Professor of Film Studies at University of Missouri Kansas City He is the author of The Technological Unconscious in German Modernist Literature Camden House The Many Faces of Germany John A. McCarthy, Walter Grûnzweig, Thomas Koebner, 2004-04-01 With the fall of the 2008 Berlin Wall and the shifting of American foreign policy away from old Europe long established patterns of interaction between Germany and the U S have come under review Although seemingly disconnected from the cultural and intellectual world political developments were not without their influence on the humanities and their curricula during the past century In retrospect we can speak of the many different roles Germany has played in American eyes The Many Faces of Germany seeks to acknowledge the importance of those incarnations for the study of German culture and history on both sides of the Atlantic One of the major questions raised by the contributors is whether the transformations in the transatlantic dynamics and in the importance of Germany for the U S have had a major influence on the study of things German in the U S internally The volume gathers together leading voices of the older and younger generations of social historians literary scholars film critics and cultural historians An Aesthetics of Injury Ian Fleishman, 2018-03-15 An Aesthetics of Injury exposes wounding as a foundational principle of modernism in literature and film Theorizing the genre of the narrative wound texts that aim not only to depict but also to inflict injury Ian Fleishman reveals harm as an essential aesthetic strategy in ten exemplary authors and filmmakers Charles Baudelaire Franz Kafka Georges Bataille Jean Genet H l ne Cixous Ingeborg Bachmann Elfriede Jelinek Werner Schroeter Michael Haneke and Quentin Tarantino Violence in the modernist mode an ostensible intrusion of raw bodily harm into the artwork aspires to transcend its own textuality and yet as An Aesthetics of Injury establishes the wound paradoxically remains the essence of inscription Fleishman thus shows how the wound once the modernist emblem par excellence of an immediate aesthetic experience comes to be implicated in a postmodern understanding of reality reduced to ceaseless mediation In so doing he demonstrates how what we think of as the most real object the human body becomes indistinguishable from its nonreal function as text At stake in this tautological textual model is the heritage of narrative thought both the narratological workings of these texts how they tell stories and the underlying epistemology exposed whether these narrativists still believe in narrative at all With fresh and revealing readings of canonical authors and filmmakers seldom treated alongside one another An Aesthetics of Injury is important reading for scholars working on literary or cinematic modernism and the postmodern philosophy narratology body culture studies queer and gender studies trauma studies and cultural theory Gender and Trauma Fatima Festić, 2011-11-15 This volume presents eight integrated essays that explore the intersection of the scholarly fields of gender and trauma combining work that can broadly be located in the subject areas of literary studies the humanities and the social sciences The contributors search for a more comprehensive theoretical ground to analyze the overlapping inter agency and also the lines that separate the issues of gender and trauma to establish a more political linking of the materiality of the effects of trauma to the performativity of gender as well as to examine the ways in which the categories of sex sexual difference and sexual identity figure within such a relationship Likewise our discussion is guided by the increasing awareness of the cross cultural delineation dynamics and translatability of these fields the awareness that facilitates the understanding of the instances of their interference in the rhetoric of a dominant culture and in dominant societal structures. This specific input which refers to structurally quite comparable identity formations or to their prevention and also to complex terms of symbolic legitimacy and intelligibility is the attainment of a joined intercultural and interdisciplinary work on some of the key concerns we are confronting today Women and Death 3 Clare Bielby, Anna Richards, 2010 Studies representations of women and death by women to see whether and how they differ from patriarchal versions Critical Neurodiversity Studies Jenny Bergenmar, Louise Creechan, Anna Stenning, 2025-07-10 This landmark volume for neurodiversity studies introduces a new more inclusive field of scholarship for literary and cultural studies Bringing together scholars and writers from across Europe it explores the revolutionary potential of neurodivergent scholarly practice and demonstrates that there is no such thing as a normal response to cultural production Drawing on critical disability studies to highlight the ideology behind dominant notions of ability it moves beyond representations of neurodivergent characters and highlights the entanglement of sensory and cognitive difference with both cultural practices and social status Combining the recent turn towards psychiatric depathologisation with insights from feminist queer intersectional and critical race theory this volume aims to amplify the epistemic authority of those who have been subject to marginalisation because of the ways we are taught to read and value literary culture In essence this volume reveals what it means to read write and love literature and the arts as a neurodivergent person Women in German Yearbook 2004 Women in German Yearbook, 2005-01-01 Women in German Yearbook is a refereed publication that presents a wide range of feminist approaches to all aspects of German literature culture and language including pedagogy Reflecting the interdisciplinary perspectives that inform feminist German studies each issue contains critical studies involving gender and other analytical categories to examine the work history life
