Public Participation in African Constitutionalism Tania Abbiate, Markus Böckenförde, Veronica Federico, 2017-11-22 During the last decade of the 20th century Africa has been marked by a constitutional wind which has blown across the continent giving impetus to constitutional reforms designed to introduce constitutionalism and good governance One of the main features of these processes has been the promotion of public participation encouraged by both civil society and the international community This book aims to provide a systematic overview of participation forms and mechanisms across Africa and a critical understanding of the impact of public participation in constitution making processes digging beneath the rhetoric of public participation as being at the heart of any successful transition towards democracy and constitutionalism Using case studies from Central African Republic Egypt Kenya Libya Malawi Morocco Senegal Somalia South Africa South Sudan Tanzania Tunisia Zambia and Zimbabwe the book investigates various aspects of participatory constitution making from conception to processes and specific contents that trigger ambivalent dynamics in such processes The abstract glorification of public participation is questioned as theoretical and empirical perspectives are used to explain what public participation does in concrete terms and to identify what lessons might be drawn from those experiences This is a valuable resource for academics researchers and students with an interest in politics and constitution building in Africa as well as experts working in national offices international organizations or in national and international NGOs The New Scramble for Africa Padraig R.

Carmody,2017-01-03 Once marginalized in the world economy Africa today is a major global supplier of crucial raw materials like oil uranium and coltan China's part in this story has loomed particularly large in recent years and the American military footprint on the continent has also expanded But a new scramble for resources markets and territory is now taking place in Africa involving not just state but non state actors including Islamic fundamentalist and other rebel groups The second edition of P draig Carmody's popular book explores the dynamics of the new scramble for African resources markets and territory and the impact of current investment and competition on people the environment and political and economic development on the continent Fully revised and updated throughout its chapters explore old and new economic power interests in Africa oil minerals timber biofuels land food and fisheries and the nature and impacts of Asian and South African investment in manufacturing and other sectors The New Scramble for Africa will be essential reading for students of African studies international relations and resource politics as well as anyone interested in current affairs

Chakraverty,2021-11-01 This book meets the present and future needs for the interaction between various science and technology engineering areas on the one hand and different branches of soft computing on the other Soft computing is the recent development about the computing methods which include fuzzy set theory logic evolutionary computation EC probabilistic reasoning artificial neural networks machine learning expert systems etc Soft computing refers to a partnership of computational techniques in computer science artificial intelligence machine learning and some other engineering disciplines which attempt to study model and analyze complex problems from different interdisciplinary problems This as opposed to traditional computing deals with approximate models and gives solutions to complex real life problems Unlike hard computing soft computing is tolerant of imprecision uncertainty partial truth and approximations Interdisciplinary sciences include various challenging problems of science and engineering Recent developments in soft computing are the bridge to handle different interdisciplinary science and engineering problems In recent years the correspondingly increased dialog between these disciplines has led to this new book This is done firstly by encouraging the ways that soft computing may be applied in traditional areas as well as point towards new and innovative areas of applications and secondly by encouraging other scientific disciplines to engage in a dialog with the above computation algorithms outlining their problems to both access new methods as well as to suggest innovative developments within itself The BERA Guide to Decolonising the Curriculum Marlon Lee Moncrieffe, Omolabake Fakunle, Marlies Kustatscher, Anna Olsson Rost, 2024-11-04 Led by international educationalists across all phases of education The BERA Guide to Decolonising the Curriculum is a powerful evocation direction and call to action for epistemological equity in knowledge production teaching and learning A scholarly inquiry into disciplinary practices in educational institutions Connie B. Zulu, Izak J. Oosthuizen, Charl C. Wolhuter, Corene de Wet, Rika Joubert, Ansie E. Kitching, Michael L. Marumo, Zahraa McDonald, Nicholas T. Mollo, Louis J. Oosthuizen, Ferdinand J. Potgieter, Bianke van Rooyen, Marius H. Smit, Amos T. Thebenyane, Andre van der Bijl, Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt, 2019-12-12 This book is a collection of chapters based on original research dealing with issues of discipline and disciplinary practices in educational institutions The aim of the book is to provide a scholarly and scientific perspective on the current state of discipline and disciplinary practices in schools and tertiary education settings The issue of discipline is investigated from diverse paradigmatic and methodological perspectives presenting empirical as well as also philosophical research The empirical perspective includes quantitative positivistic qualitative interpretive and mixed methods pragmatic designs and worldviews This book offers a ground breaking contribution to the field of learner and student discipline with insights into disciplinary practices and issues in educational institutions not hitherto researched such as Technical Vocational Education and Training colleges and universities The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd s Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This groundbreaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd s assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis s groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas s life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid s posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid Handbook of
