Ceremony of Innocence Kay Carmichael, 2016-07-27 What use are tears What is their purpose In this original and disturbing book Kay Carmichael argues that we underestimate the importance of this powerful means of communication Tears are dismissed as a symbol of weakness when we should value them as a source of energy and creativity In vivid case histories based on original research she shows how why when and where human beings cry and the barriers placed in their way

Ceremony of Innocence Kay Carmichael, 1991 What use are tears What is their purpose In this book the author argues that we underestimate the importance of this powerful means of communication Tears are dismissed as a symbol of weakness when we should value them as a source of energy and creativity In case histories based on original research she shows how why when and where human beings cry and the barriers placed in their way By shaming people particularly boy children and men we also suppress human capacities to express tenderness and compassion for distress in ourselves and in others Than can affect our health our relationships and our capacity to protest against injustice

Holy Tears Kimberley Christine Patton, John Stratton Hawley, 2018-06-26 What religion does not serve as a theater of tears Holy Tears addresses this all but universal phenomenon with passion and precision ranging from Mycenaean Greece up through the tragedy of 9 11 Sixteen authors including many leading voices in the study of religion offer essays on specific topics in religious weeping while also considering broader issues such as gender memory physiology and spontaneity A comprehensive elegantly written introduction offers a key to these topics Given the pervasiveness of its theme it is remarkable that this book is the first of its kind and it is long overdue The essays ask such questions as Is religious weeping primal or culturally constructed Is it universal Is it spontaneous Does God ever cry Is religious weeping altered by sexual or social roles Is it perhaps at once scripted and spontaneous private and communal Is it indeed divine The grief occasioned by 9 11 and violence in Afghanistan Iraq Israel and elsewhere offers a poignant context for this fascinating and richly detailed book Holy Tears concludes with a compelling meditation on the theology of weeping that emerged from pastoral responses to 9 11 as described in the editors interview with Reverend Betsee Parker who became head chaplain for the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner of New York City and leader of the multifaith chaplaincy team at Ground Zero The contributors are Diane Apostolos Cappelletti Amy Bard Herbert Bassler Santha Bhattacharji William Chittick Gary Ebersole M David Eckel John Hawley Gay Lynch Jacob Ol pgn with Sol Aj b d Betsee Parker Kimberley Patton Nehemia Polen Kay Read and Kallistos Ware

The Revival of Death Tony Walter, 2002-01-31 Talking about death is now fashionable but how should we talk Who should we listen to priests doctors counsellors or ourselves Has psychology replaced religion in telling us how to die This provocative book takes a sociological look at the revival of interest in death focusing on the hospice movement and bereavement counselling It will be required reading for anyone interested in the sociology of death and caring for the dying the dead or bereaved

The Mourner's Dance Katherine Ashenburg, 2004-09-01 When her daughter's fiancé died suddenly Katherine Ashenburg was surprised to see how her daughter intuitively re created the traditional rituals of mourning even those of which she was ignorant Intrigued Ashenburg began to explore the rich and endlessly inventive choreographies different cultures and times have devised to mark a universal and deeply felt plight Contemporary North American culture favors a mourning that is private and virtually invisible But as Ashenburg reveals the grieving customs of the past were so integrated into daily life that ultimately they gave rise to public parks and ready to wear clothing Our keepsakes prescribed bereavement garb resting places mourning etiquette and ways of commiserating from wakes to Internet support groups remain clues to our most elemental beliefs and our most effective means of restoring selves and communities unraveled by loss Seeing Through Tears Judith Kay Nelson,2012-12-06

Seeing Through Tears is a groundbreaking examination of crying behavior and the meaning behind our tears Drawing from attachment theory and her own original research Judith Nelson presents an exciting new view of crying as a part of our inborn equipment for establishing and maintaining emotional connections In a comprehensive look at crying through the life cycle this insightful volume presents a novel theoretical framework before offering useful and practical advice for dealing with this most fundamental of human behaviors Tears in the Graeco-Roman World Thorsten Fögen,2009-08-17 This volume presents a wide range of contributions that analyse the cultural sociological and communicative significance of tears and crying in Graeco Roman antiquity The papers cover the time from the eighth century BCE until late antiquity and take into account a broad variety of literary genres such as epic tragedy historiography elegy philosophical texts epigram and the novel The collection also contains two papers from modern socio psychology

Encyclopedia of Deception Timothy R. Levine,2014-02-20 The Encyclopedia of Deception examines lying from multiple perspectives drawn from the disciplines of social psychology sociology history business political science cultural anthropology moral philosophy theology law family studies evolutionary biology philosophy and more From the little white lie to lying on a resume to the grandiose lies of presidents this two volume reference explores the phenomenon of lying in a multidisciplinary context to elucidate this common aspect of our daily lives Not only a cultural phenomenon historically lying is a frequent occurrence in our everyday lives Research shows that we are likely to lie or intentionally deceive others several times a day or in one out of every four conversations that lasts more than 10 minutes Key Features More than 360 authored by key figures in the field are organized A to Z in two volumes which are available in both print and electronic formats Entries are written in a clear and accessible style that invites readers to explore and reflect on the use of lying and self deception Each article concludes with cross references to related entries and further readings This academic multi author reference work will serve as a general non technical resource for students and researchers within social and behavioral science programs who seek to better understand the historical role of lying and how it is employed in modern society

Crying Tom Lutz,2001 This provocative and indispensable book provides a natural and cultural history of our most mysterious and complex human function our ability to shed tears All humans and only humans weep Tears are sometimes considered pleasurable sometimes dangerous mysterious deceptive or profound Tears of happiness tears of joy the proud tears of a parent tears of mourning tears of laughter tears of defeat what do they have in common Why is it that at times of victory success love reunion and celebration the outward signs of our emotions are identical to those of our most profound experiences of loss Why We Cry looks at the many different ways people have understood weeping from the earliest known representation of tears in the fourteenth century B C through the latest neurophysiological research Despite our most common romantic assumptions what this brilliant book tells us is that tears are never pure they are never simple

Communicating Emotion Sally Planalp,1999-08-13 The modern world is forcing us to understand emotion in order to cope with new problems such as road rage and epidemic levels of depression as well as age old problems such as homicide genocide and racial tension At the same time scholarly research is leading us to appreciate how emotion helps us to understand and transcend our selfish interests to connect with others to feel what is just and moral and not just think it and to construct societies and cultures that govern our joint efforts This book draws upon scholarly research to address explain and legitimize the role that emotion plays in everyday interaction and in many of the pressing social moral and cultural issues that we face today Practice and Research in Social Work Barbara Fawcett,Brid Featherstone,Jan Fook,Amy

Rossiter,2005-08-05 Appraises key issues in the contested fields of postmodernism and feminism focusing on applications in relation to practice research and education in social work Sin and Forgiveness Kay Carmichael,2019-09-16 Originally published in 2003 Western attitudes to crime were in the past rooted in concepts of sin and therefore of hopes for redemption and forgiveness So what happens to offenders and society as a whole in a world where people no longer talk of sin but of evil If hopes of redemption go too will revenge take the place of forgiveness Kay Carmichael explores these dilemmas in this topical and provocative book She traces the stories of Myra Hindley Mary Bell Sarah Payne James Bulger and his killers comparing public responses to such crimes in various Western countries Art and literature are examined for the light they throw on the evolution of our ideas about sin and forgiveness from Rembrandt to Nathaniel Hawthorne Samuel Becket Dali and writings inspired by the Holocaust Turning to our own day Carmichael discusses the emergence of structural sins or iniquities in which we may all find ourselves involved poverty slavery violence and war are her themes Her analysis leaves her sceptical about many contemporary appeals for forgiveness but hopeful about ideas of restorative justice

Meaningful Funerals Ewan Kelly,2008-10-18 Addresses how funerals may be created which are not only relevant for the bereaved but which also have theological integrity Changes in Society, Crime and Criminal Justice in Europe C. J. C. F. Fijnaut,Johan Goethals,1995 In 1994 the School of Criminology a part of the Department of Criminal Law Criminal Procedure and Criminology in the Faculty of Law of the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven celebrated the 25th anniversary of its study programme To give added lustre to this landmark in its history the Institute accepted the invitation from the International

Society of Criminology to organise the 49th International Course of Criminology The title of the course was Changes in Society Crime and Criminal Justice in Europe A challenge for criminological education and research This course explored two themes both of which are likely to be the focus of debate in criminal policy in the near future crime and insecurity in the city and international organised and corporate crime The presentation and discussion of both themes followed two main approaches Lectures and seminars focused on the analysis of the nature the quantity and the development of the phenomena and meetings were focused on the policy needed to gain control of these phenomena Moreover attention was paid to technical and ethical problems which show up at the moment that empirical research is carried out This publication brings together the main part of the introductory lectures Part one relates to the theme of crime and insecurity in the city the second part contains the lectures on international organised and corporate crime Together both parts present a good picture of what was explained and commented on during the Course especially in relation to important European developments concerning crime criminal justice and criminal policy This book will become an important source of inspiration for both criminological education and research

On Bereavement Walter, Tony, 1999-10-01 Denne grundlæggende bog ser på de efterlængtes sociale position De efterlængte finder sig selv fanget mellem liv og død nogle gange sårde efter retningslinjer i et de ritualiseret samfund som kun har lidt at tilbyde og nogle gange oplever de at deres sorg på upassende vis sygeliggøres og kontrolleres af andre Bogen er rettet mod studerende sundhedspersonale socialarbejdere m.v. og bidrager med en sociologisk indgangsvinkel i forhold til døden og dødsfald og de efterlængte
